

Gene Tunney to Manage Himself While in Ring

Will Wear No Apron Strings But Will Be Permitted to Think for Himself While Mixing With Dempsey

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 14.—(United News)—Gene Tunney, the somewhat intellectual heavyweight challenger, will wear no apron strings when he enters the ring against Jack Dempsey. He will rely less on advice from such mental inferiors as his seconds than any fighter in recent years, according to Billy Gibson, his not so intellectual, and yet not so dumb manager.

Even Gibson will talk to his fighter but briefly on the day of the fight, and once in the ring he promises, "Gene will be his own master," without outside steering except in case of emergency.

Upon the possibilities of this emergency Mr. Gibson did not expand.

"The second is an important man," Gibson explained, "and he must be ready for whatever comes up. But he can't tell a fighter how to fight his fight. The fellow up there is being hit and nobody knows how badly he is hurt like he does."

Gibson sniffed at the idea of Jack McAuliffe, Jimmy de Forest, Matt Hinkle of Cleveland and others here that Dempsey excelled in fighting instinct, co-ordination of brain and body and other important factors.

"If Dempsey fights the same fight he fought against Firpo he has not a chance in the world," he continued. "There was no intelligence there. Instead it was a dock worker's fight—a catch-as-catch-can. Anyone who throws all his intelligence into the Delaware canal won't stand a chance against Tunney."

"Are you sure Tunney isn't too humane—too gentle?"

"Everybody else thought the same thing about Tunney, way back," Mr. Gibson answered with assurance. "The marines couldn't understand why he ever enlisted with them. And every opponent he has fought felt he was too nice a fellow to be in the wrong. Erminio Spalla came to me before the fight and said he didn't want to knock Tunney out—he liked him so well, and soon afterward Erminio had taken the count. Everyone thought Tunney was too gentle when he fought Carpenter, Gibbons and Madden, but they all were down."

Duback's Henchmen Accept Challenge Of Black Pelicans

The Klamath Pelicans last night accepted the redhot challenge thrown them yesterday by the "Black Pelicans," rebel aggregation, according to Manager Eddie Duback, and will meet the pirate band of ball tossers on any terms at the fairgrounds Saturday.

The game will be played in connection with the Klamath county fair, Duback stated, and will serve as entertainment to fair-goers as well as local baseball fans, on the closing day of the agricultural exposition.

The Pelicans (white) had originally planned to play some rival league team on Saturday, but with the challenge of the Black band flaunted before them, the Klamath baseball club could do naught but declare combat with ye buccaneers of baseball.

The rebel group has been organized by Frenchy Bayness, former third baseman for the white Pelicans who left the local team early in the season to play with Medford. Frenchy is a capable boy himself, and has gathered into his crew a number of players whose experience is said to be wide and ability high.

In the group are Southpaw Johnson, a quick and tricky tosser; Bill Franey, catcher of repute; P. M. Noel, Max Newsum and an outfielder, Spriggs, all dark horses to the dopsters. The balance of the aggregation are all good men and true, Frenchy declares, and quite fit to crack bats on any ball a white Pelican ever threw toward the pan.

"These birds won't get to first base," is the opinion of Eddie Duback, who ventured the remark with considerable heat. Evidence of enmity is in the sporting ozone, preening fast and furious baseball. Unofficial or otherwise, the tilt should prove to be one of real merit and fans are looking forward to nine innings of wholesome fun and diamond frolic, colored with friendly innuendoes ad lib.

Pugilist's Crown Is Shattered and Not Blow Struck

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(United News)—The world's bantamweight boxing championship has changed hands suddenly without the striking of a single blow in the prize ring.

The new title holder is Bud Taylor of Terra Haute, Ind. He was named Tuesday afternoon by the new Illinois boxing commission, which at the same time dethroned Charlie Phil Rosenberg, who was to have defended his title against Taylor in a 10 round bout here Thursday night.

The suspension of Rosenberg was for life and came unexpectedly as the result of the champion's failure to post a $12,000 forfeit even after the commission had granted him several days of grace.

Harry Segal, the deposed champion's manager, went into banishment by the same order which lifted the crown and placed it upon the brow of the contender.

Segal was as much at fault as Rosenberg, the commission held, in violating the forfeit rule.

Huncke's statement said the decision was "to protect boxing in Illinois."

"It is our opinion," the statement said, "that Segal and Rosenberg are not the caliber of men that should have to do with boxing in the state of Illinois. Their unsportsmanlike attitude, coupled with the disregard for rules, has prompted this action."

"Bud Taylor has been designated by the commission to receive the world's bantamweight championship because of his cooperation with the commission in the attempts to bring about the bout and also because of the heavy expense to which he has been subjected.

"Further, we believe that if boxing is to survive it must be kept absolutely clean, and having this in mind the commission feels that there is nothing else it can do."

INDIANA COURT IS WITHOUT AUTHORITY

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(United News)—An Indiana injunction apparently hasn't the slightest deterrent effect on Pennsylvania, who, backed by an opinion of Attorney General Woodruff, are going ahead with their plans for the Dempsey-Tunney fight.

The injunction is "absolutely ineffective" in Pennsylvania, Woodruff said in commenting on the action of Superior Judge Givan of Indianapolis in preventing Jack Dempsey from meeting Gene Tunney, because the former has not fought Harry Wills.

"The issue is between Dempsey and the Indiana court," Woodruff said. "If Dempsey violated the injunction he will be subject to punishment in Indiana, but there is no reason why Pennsylvania should interere with his engagement here."

Cincinnati Reds Defeat Robins And Land on Top

Playing splendid baseball behind the airtight pitching of Carl Mays the Reds rushed into the National league lead by defeating the Robins 5 to 1, while the Cardinals were idle.

Pittsburgh falling into the Giants for a 5 to 0 victory, kept pace and now is two and a half games behind the leaders.

As a result of Tuesday's games, the league standing was:
Teams— W. L. Pct.
Cincinnati 53 69 .580
St. Louis 52 69 .577
Pittsburgh 50 62 .563

Submarine Carl begged Manager Jack Hendricks for the honor of hurling the Reds into first place. Once on the mound he was complete master of the situation, allowing the hapless Brooklynites five scattered hits, while his team mates hammered McGraw for 12.

Ray Kremer made the Giants look foolish. Like the bespectacled Meadows he had a no-hit game in his palm the seventh inning, and like the same hurler, was cheated out of

Mission Pitcher Loses to Oaks in Game to Oakland

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—(United News)—Bert Cole, Mission pitcher who has won 24 games for his club this season, suffered his second straight defeat, when Oakland jumped on him today for two runs in the ninth inning. The Oaks won 4 to 3. Cole had a lead of one run going into the ninth, but a walk and hits by Pickering and Lary caused his downfall.

In Los Angeles, Phillips, Hollywood rookie, held Seattle to two hits and the Stars won 3 to 0.

The league leading Angels defeated Sacramento in a ten inning game at the capital 4 to 1. San Francisco played ragged ball here, making six errors in losing to Portland 9 to 1. The Beavers swatted three seal moundmen for 14 hits.

A perfect performance by Frankie Frisch, it was Frankie's single in both Saturday's and Tuesday's games which prevented Pirate pitchers from entering baseball's hall of fame.

Over two billion smoked a month!
—natural tobacco taste has the "call" these days!

Men have certainly made their preference clear!

REMEMBER just a few years back you saw but few Chesterfields?

Mighty different today! You see them everywhere! But it's not that fact, but the reason, that's the interesting thing.

Natural tobacco taste—a taste secured by matching one fine variety against another, a taste which retains tobacco character—that's why Chesterfield is America's fastest-growing cigarette, and has been for four consecutive years. Not much doubt nowadays about what smokers want!
