

QUAKER CITY IS BUSY AS BEE

Dizziest City in World as Result Of Coming Fight

Dempsey-Tunney Contest to Draw Greatest Gate in the History of Fisticuffs; All Hotels are Overflowing

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—(United News)—This third largest city in the United States has become the dizziest in the world.

Even the usually self-contained Tex Rickard, with his poker face and inevitable stogie, has lost his poise and succumbed to the universal excitement over the outcome of the world's heavyweight championship fight.

Betting is dull but speculation is lively. The hotels, overwhelmed with unprecedented demands for accommodation, have become completely demoralized. Reservations go unheeded, while beds for the week are hawked about at extraordinary premiums.

In the lobbies, on the station platforms, up and down the sidewalks, the city's populace and visitors are talking nothing but fight. Practically all the reserved seats for the fight have been sold—and many of them resold, and every one now is figuring on how to reach the Sesqui-centennial grounds in time for the fracas.

Last minute attempts will be made by those otherwise financially interested to prevent the bout being held. Tex Rickard, recognizing the symptoms, and being wise in the same of fisticuffs, already has taken care of B. C. Clements, who came on from Chicago with the idea of interrupting proceedings on behalf of the Coliseum club, which attempted to stage a fight between Dempsey and Harry Wills.

Clements talked of going to court, but a gesture from Tex Rickard apparently has fixed that matter. Far from the muddening crowd the principals in the fight are putting the finishing touches on their training. The champion, dodging process servers and other nuisances, at Atlantic City, has announced that he is through with active training. Up in the hills of Stroudsburg Gene Tunney, the challenger, is taking his whirl at secret training.

As for Jack Dempsey, he is working himself up into a state of rage, which he considers appropriate for the occasion, due to the importunities of sheriff, process servers, lawyers and others, whose one desire is to worry the champion out of whatever money he will relinquish. Dempsey is due in court Tuesday morning, but his last reports had decided to duck all such appointments and let the law take its course.

Gene Tunney retains his composure. He talked with the United News correspondent over the long distance telephone Monday and didn't split an infinitive.

"Tell them I'm not worrying. I know I'll win," quoth Gene. "Jack Dempsey never will be able to overcome that handicap of three idle years."

Braves Tounce Reds; Cardinals Rest Easy at Top

(By United News)

Despite their double defeat by the White Sox Monday, the Yanks were saved from disaster by Boston's 3 to 2 victory over the Indians.

The day's encounters left the New Yorkers three games ahead of Cleveland with only six games more to be played.

The White Sox won by a score of 7 to 3 and 4 to 3.

In the older circuit the Braves tounced the Reds 9 to 3 and 3 to 0, leaving the league leading Cardinals, who did not play, two games ahead of Cincinnati.

The Pirates pounded out ten hits to win from the Phillies 3 to 0; the Cubs took a bargain bill from the Giants 4 to 2 and 2 to 1.

In the American league the Athletics divided a double-header with the Tigers at Detroit, winning the first 5 to 0 but losing the second 5 to 2.

The Senators won both games of their double-header with the Browns at St. Louis, 7 to 4 and 8 to 2.

79 Years Young - Thanks Tanlac

Aged Lighthouse Keeper Tells Story of Health Restored.

Many men and women endure pain needlessly. As S. H. Borland, a respected resident of Milwaukie, Ore., says: "Without good health a man's life is unbearable. Sooner or later he breaks down."

"I've had a narrow escape. I neglected my health, and grew so nervous I couldn't sleep. My stomach would not digest food and had to stick to milk and eggs only. I forced myself to this and even then was tormented by sharp pains. I was in constant misery. A friend told me about Tanlac and I began taking it. This wonder tonic toned me up and made me a new man. Now, I eat everything without trouble. I sleep like a child. I'm almost 80 years old now, but feel stronger and better than in many years, thanks to Tanlac."

Tanlac, nature's own remedy made from roots, bark and herbs, is sold by your druggist.

Oaks Must Play Very Durdnest During the Week

(United News)—Oakland will have its last chance to contest the Pacific Coast league leadership of the Los Angeles club when it plays the Angels this week.

The Oaks are now 10 full games behind first place and only a brilliant spurt can carry them to the top.

Both Los Angeles and Oakland won five games in the series ending Sunday, but the Oaks lost three of their games against Mission, while the Angels were beaten by Sacramento only twice.

Portland and Seattle return to their home parks this week, playing Hollywood and Mission respectively. The Beavers are trying to get into the first division, being now one and one-half games behind the fourth place Senators. Sacramento will be defending its first division berth during a series against San Francisco.

Tunney Completes Hard Work and Is Resting For Bout

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 20.—(United News)—Gene Tunney Monday had his final workout in the ring before he enters the arena at the Sesqui-centennial stadium at Philadelphia for the heavyweight title next Thursday night.

With the public barred from his camp he boxed four rounds with Jimmy Delaney of St. Paul and Harold Mays of Bayonne. He demonstrated that he had both the power and ability to deliver real punches.

In the second round of his bout with Delaney, he cut loose and staggered his sparring partner several times with hard rights to the face and short jabs to the jaw. As yesterday, Jimmy's nose appeared to be the target for Gene's blows and he again had the blood squirting from it over the canvass. It began to look as if the challenger considere Jack's made over nose one of the weak spots about him and that he intends going after it first of all.
