TEAS AND DELPHIAN PROMINENT EVENTS

As the weeks of the fall months gradually turn into the crimson and golden colors of winter, there is always one important function upon which society concentrates. Early in September the weeks were filled with interesting weddings and parties honoring bride-ets and the bride parties. Then again it was the initial meeting of all clubs and church organizations in their first efforts to make the winter work successful.

The past week has been filled with discussion of the Business and Professional Women's bridge tea, which was held Saturday afternoon in the Veterans Memorial building for the purpose of raising funds to furnish the rest room in the beautiful new library, which is fast nearing completion.

The affair was successful socially as well as financially, for both were necessary to make the bridge tea one that would be referred to as the first important affair of the winter in which society took an interest in unanimously.

This week it is the Delphian club, and after a month's delay, but not through the fault of the Klamath Falls heads, the books arrived and the group classes were ordered to their books for a fascinating season of delving into the always romantic and mysterious past.

The subject which the women of Delta Gamma chapter, Delphian, will study this year concerns the Middle Ages, and during that time one of the most thrilling plays in the history of the world was enacted in the continuous drama of life.

Mrs. J. R. Shaw is president of the Klamath Falls chapter of Delphian, Mrs. W. O. Smith is first vice president, Mrs. T. D. Case second vice president, and Mrs. Howard R. Perrin is secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt continues as leader of the groups and general supervisor.

MRS. WILKITS IS COMPLEMENTED THURSDAY
 One of the interesting parties of the past week was that of Thursday evening when Mrs. Leland Willis was honored by Mrs. Rex LaPrarie and Miss Pansy Robertson at the home of the former on 1809 Auburn street.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening, and high score was awarded Mrs. John M. Glover, and low to Mrs. Wilkits.

The rooms of the LaPrarie home were attractively arranged in asters, of which there was a profusion in the lovely shades of early fall.

Guests to honor Mrs. Wilkits included Mesdames Floyd McMillan, Jacques J. Stelger, Paul Dalton, J. D. Conway, Roderick Smith, John M. Glover, Paul Noel, Letha McClintock, Helene Braltenstein, Levi McDonald, A. D. Lambert, Fred Jones, Marvin K. Lucas, Stanley Hajicek, Robert Riggs, Oliver Williams, and the Misses Pearl Biehn, Elna Jensen and Vera Thompson.

MRS. STEWART IS INTERESTING VISITOR
 Among the interesting visitors in Klamath Falls this week is Mrs. Charles F. Stewart of Hollywood, Calif., who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote of Tenth street.

Mrs. Stewart is en route to her home in the South, after an extended tour of the far eastern states on the Atlantic coast.

MRS. HEIKEN IS HONORED SATURDAY
 Mrs. Ernest Heiken (Florence Porter) was complimented Saturday afternoon with one of the prettiest parties of the season, when Mrs. Frank Mills and her sister, Miss Anna Mae Johnston, entertained at tea for Mrs. Heiken at the Mills residence on High street. Mrs. Heiken's marriage was an event of the summer months in Portland.

The rooms of the Mills home were enhanced by the profusion of brilliant colored asters that were arranged in low bowls and bases about the tables.

Assisting Mrs. Mills and Miss Johnston was Mrs. Jacques J. Stelger, who served during tea hours. A lovely bridal shower preceded tea.

Guests who honored Mrs. Heiken included Mesdames Jacques J. Stelger, Charles Patterson, Cal Peyton, Heber Radcliffe, Frank Bell of Chilquin, Frank Moser, Bob Oliver, Paul Noel, George Stevenson, Coleman O'Loughlin, Everett Geary, D. N. Clemens, Andrew Collier, Ed McLaughlin, George T. Foster, Kenneth Klahn, J. G. Johnston, George McIntyre, A. L. Rice, William Magnier, Horace Bridgeford, E. H. Pike, Alfred Collier, Frank Mills and the Misses Abra Bradbury, Loretta Jennings, Mary Ball, Clara Calkins, Cressie Tilley, Rena Goers, Freda Kjack, May Phinney, Hazel Noble, Augusta Parker, Kathryn Gaylord and Miss Johnston, Carolyn, Phyllis and Marie Collier, daintily frocked, assisted in presenting the gifts.

MRS. AVERY HOSTESS THURSDAY AFTERNOON
 A pretty party was that over which Mrs. Joseph C. Avery presided on Thursday afternoon at her home on Oregon avenue, when a group of the younger matrons were hidden for an afternoon of bridge.

Asters in the lovely fall shades of lavender, purple and crimson were used to lend a charm to the rooms where the tables of bridge were in play.

High score was awarded to Mrs. George Mason, and low to Mrs. Rex LaPrarie.

The guests who were entertained by Mrs. Avery included Mesdames Marvin K. Lucas, Rex LaPrarie, J. D. Conway, Roderick M. Smith, Paul M. Noel, Herman Gisvold, Leland Willis, Levant Pease, George Mason, William L. Sanders, Stanley Hajicek, Mark Hanna and the Misses Frances Humphrey and Pearl Biehn.

MRS. HUGGINS HERE WITH WAVE MACHINE
 Winter has a tendency to straighten out the carefully laid waves in lady's coiffure, but science has invented even a challenge to Nature.

Mrs. Belle Huggins, permanent wave specialist of the Marvel Permanent Wave shop in Portland, will arrive in Klamath Falls Tuesday to spend several days with her machine at the Betty Jane shop. Mrs. Huggins assures Klamath women that the machine handles all lengths of hair.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS THURSDAY
 Members of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Emanuel Baptist church met on Thursday afternoon for one of their busy meetings of the fall.

Eighteen members were present, and Mrs. Chamberlain gave an interesting discussion of conditions, political and social, that now exist in China.

The women have issued an urgent invitation to others in Klamath Falls to join them in their work for the year.

A social hour followed the business meeting and discussion of the foreign missionary work.

HAPPY HOUR WITH MRS. J. J. KELLER
 Mrs. J. J. Keller was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to members of the Happy Hour club at her home on Jefferson street. Lovely shaded asters were used to decorate the rooms of the Keller home.

Guests included Mrs. Ray Harris and son Donald, and Mrs. Walter Hanson and daughter Marjorie, and Miss Frances Humphrey.

Mrs. Keller entertained the following members, Mesdames Sam Summers, Jennie Hurn, R. E. Emmitt, Paul Johnson, Ed Lawrence, O. M. Hector, W. J. Steinmetz, Rhinehart Motschenbacher and George Humphrey.

Mrs. Ed Lawrence will entertain the Happy Hour club on Tuesday, October 12.

MRS. LIVELY IS ENTERTAINED
 For Mrs. James Lively of Gold Hill, Oregon, who is visiting this week in Klamath Falls, Mrs. Dorothy Daddam entertained on Tuesday evening in her attractive home with an evening of bridge for a number of the younger maids and matrons.

Mrs. Lively is here with her husband on a combined business and pleasure trip. She is known to many of the college set who studied at Oregon Agricultural college at the same time; Mrs. Lively is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta.

Mrs. Lively was awarded high score of the evening. The following were guests at the Daddam home: Mrs. Lively and Mesdames Lynn P. Sabin, Thomas White Deltzell, Frank Z. Howard, E. G. Wisecarver, Avis McConnell, and the Misses Maybelle Leavitt, Margaret Worden, Clara Calkins, Verna Skelton, Virginia West, LeLaine West, Loretta Jennings, Abra Bradbury and Rachael Cronquist.

BOOK DEPARTMENT TO MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON
 The initial activity on this week's social calendar is the meeting of the book department of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club, of which Mrs. Thomas White Deltzell is in charge for the season.

The novel of Sir Phillip Gibbs, "The Unchanging Quest," will be reviewed by Mrs. Nelson Reed.

In order that those of the department wish to learn the novels to be reviewed in the coming meetings of November and December, Mrs. Deltzell has announced that Mrs. Levant Pease will review "The Rosalie Evans Letters from Mexico," and Mrs. Lynn P. Sabin will review "We Must March," by Honore Wilkie Morrow.

MRS. WOBBLIES IS HOSTESS AT DINNER
 Complimenting Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold of Portland, who has been the house guest of friends and relatives in Klamath Falls for the past month, Mrs. Otto Wobbles of Spring Lake entertained at a prettily appointed dinner during the past week.

Mrs. Arnold and son Billy are returning north this week.

DELPHIAN CLUB TO MEET ON TUESDAY
 Delphian group in Klamath Falls, known as Delta Gamma chapter, will hold the first group meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon, according to announcement made during the past week by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, supervisor.

The afternoon classes will meet Tuesday at the following designated homes:

Mrs. Andrew Collier's class at her home on Third and Pine streets; Mrs. J. Royal Shaw's class with Mrs. K. G. Cummings, on Washington street; Mrs. Russell Austin's class with Mrs. Claud Davis on Esplanade; and Mrs. Rachael Applegate Solomon's evening class, which will meet on Wednesday evenings during the coming winter months, will hold the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, 430 Riverside.

It is understood that group meetings will be held again next week, announcement to be made later as to the meeting places. The additional gathering of the afternoon and evening classes will serve to bring their work up to date. The chapter meeting, always well attended by the members, will be held in the sun room of the White Pelican hotel on Tuesday, October 26.
