

SOCIETY NEWS

"BRUTUS" PRESENTED IN KLAMATH FALLS

lovely, whimsical manner. "Barrie, the author of "Brutus," the hitting comedy acted by the Moroni Olsen in the Pine Tree theatre day and Friday evenings. Klamath Falls with the y fantastic play of three

"Brutus," the famous Barrie is one of the finest to be presented in Klamath Falls. A group of had been chosen carefully for their parts.

It, dear Brutus, is not in stars, ourselves, that we are un-st art is in Lob's house, Lob, with quick, sprit, eating up the carcasses him by the women, his sts for mid-summer week, cond act, loveliness in it n the wood, the myster- fantstic wood, presented ames Barrie can. Trees are n their grotesqueness, be- situations. The second ven to the men and wo- "Dear Brutus" forms the of the play.

—Shakespeare.

ard act, and the finale, ily and the play, all in as smoothly as plays proth the situations that "Dear Brutus," can ever on the American stage. s in Acts One and Three arth, Moroni Olsen; Mrs. eora Thatcher; Mr. Purdie, ay Poulger; Mrs. Purdie, ones; Mr. Coade, Joseph ama; Mrs. Coade, Janet oh; Harry R. Allen; Matey, elson; Joanna Trout, Dor- rms, Lady Caroline Laney, oke.

acters in the Wood rlist, Margni Olsen; Mar- (Dearth's daughter) Janet The Hon. Mrs. Pinch-Pal- ora Thatcher; The Philan- ron Kay Poulger; Joanna e) Dorothy Adams; Mable, Jones; The Piper, Joseph ame; James Matey, Gor- lom; Carolyn, his wife, oke.

—Lob's House, II—The Wood, III—Same as Act I, icial Musical Program —"Mignon" —Thomas "Artista Life" —Strauss as from "The Student " —Romberg ch—"Capitol" —Rapee-Act

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEET FRIDAY

Interest to members of the Teacher association of the school, will be the first of the year on Friday afternoon, October twenty-second at 8 o'clock in the school house. Rena Goers and Miss Freda will relate their experiences on a trip to New York, the United States, during the summer. All patrons and members of the school are invited to the afternoon.

Members of the school are invited to the afternoon.

Members of the school are invited to the afternoon.

TEACHERS ENJOY LUNCHEON PARTY

A group of teachers of the Klamath city schools, were com- ed on Friday evening with ber party at the home ofazel Noble, Miss Rena Goers las Freda Kjack.

Midnight supper was served guests and those that at- the party included Miss Mit- tiffin, Miss Melvena Dilling- liss Anus Mae Johnston, Miss Jarvis and the hostesses, Miss Miss Goers and Miss Kjack.

WARMING AT BRONSON HOME

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson on Upham street, given an enjoyable house- ing on Thursday evening by rs of the Methodist church of which Mr. Patterson is di- rator.

Twenty-five were present, includ- ov, and Mrs. Frank Wem- and their daughter, Miss Dor- emmett, who have arrived in h Falls from Minnesota to ip their new work in the ist church of Klamath Falls.

ND MRS. SHOOP FOR CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Ted A. Shoop, (Hanks), left early Sunday for San Francisco, where ill spend a fortnight visit- the bay city with friends.

WOMEN'S GUILD RISH HOUSE

A. R. Morrison and Mrs. Martin were hostesses on ay afternoon to members of ul's Guild in the Parish of the church.

ness of the church, during at two weeks, was discussed members. Tea was served the afternoon.

SOCIETY CALENDAR

MONDAY, OCTOBER 18
University Women, dinner at Linkhaven.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19
P. E. O. with Mrs. Fred Peterson.

WEDNESDAY, October 20
A. N. W. club with Mrs. Rufus Moore.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22
Elks apron and overall dance. Parent Teacher association, Fairview school.

MRS. MOMYER IS HOSTESS THURSDAY

Mrs. H. E. Momyer entertained on Thursday afternoon at her home for members of the Euwana Heights division of the Methodist Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The women worked on dainty gifts for the holiday bazaar to be held Saturday, December the fourth.

On October the twenty-eighth, the women will entertain the Ladies Aid in the church rooms, and following the business meeting a "mystery luncheon" will be served.

The members present at the home of Mrs. Momyer included Mrs. Block, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, Mrs. H. E. Calkins, Mrs. E. O. Nord, Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Chris Barnstable, Mrs. D. M. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Mrs. T. B. Westfall, Mrs. H. E. Momyer.

MRS. IGL IS DINNER HOSTESS

Complimenting her mother, Mrs. Theodore Haas of San Francisco, Mrs. E. M. Igl entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at her attractive home on Third street.

A centerpiece of deep yellow chrysanthemums was used at dinner and yellow candles added to the arrangement of the table.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Haas, Mrs. Sadie Davenport, Henry Bolvin, Elmer Hosking, G. C. Lorenz, Roy Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Igl and Dickie Igl.

MRS. WILSON IS HONORED AT PARTY

For the pleasure of Mrs. Perry Wilson, a group of the younger matrons were bidden to an informal party on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Cook with Miss Inez Jenkins and Miss Ruth Lindsay, assisting.

Those who called to compliment Mrs. Wilson included Mrs. W. G. Houston, Mrs. Emmitt Childster, Mrs. Goldie Miller, Mrs. Oliver Williams, Mrs. Floyd Henriot, Mrs. Jack Hershberger, Mrs. Vale Holcomb, Mrs. Charles Hogue, Mrs. Paul M. Noel and the Misses Ruth Lindsay, Inez Jenkins, Connie Crystal, Mae Crystal, Sybil Bamber, Elna Jensen, Jo Upp, Addie Jenkins and the hostess, Mrs. Cook.

DINNER COMPLIMENTS R. LELAND COUCH

A dinner party, pretty in its appointment, was enjoyed Wednesday evening, when a group of friends, bidden by the Mrs. R. Leland Couch, attended a birthday dinner given as a surprise in compliment to Mr. Couch's birthday.

Following dinner, where Hal- loween favors were used, cards were enjoyed with high score go- ing to Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, low to Miss Irene Anderson.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz, Miss Irene Anderson, Miss Martha Upp, Otto Lorenz, Ernest McCollum, G. C. Lorenz, Roy Schmidt, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Leland Couch.

AUXILIARY OF ST. PAUL'S MEETS

An interesting study club was formed within St. Paul's Episcopal church among the younger matrons of the parish with meetings fortnightly in the parish house.

On Tuesday evening the subject was Liberia, and Mrs. Heber Radcliffe was in charge of the program and she read an interesting paper on Liberia which she had prepared.

Mrs. Jean Young, Mrs. Eric Baker, Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas also read papers on the subject, discussing general phases of the little negro republic in west Africa.

Mrs. Thomas' paper discussed Mohammedanism and scrapbooks obtained through the courtesy of Miss Charlotte Brown, educational secretary of New York, showed colored maps and pictures of the interest- ing country.

The next study club meeting will be held in November with Alaska as the subject. H. W. Bathiany, who is familiar with conditions in Alaska, has promised to speak before the women.

On Tuesday evening, October 26, a Halloween party will be enjoyed with the women bidding guests to the affair in the parish house.

MR. AND MRS. HALL RETURN FROM NORTH

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall are welcoming their return to Klamath Falls after an absence of the past three weeks. They spent the time in Portland and valley cities.

MUSIC SECTION MEET MONDAY IN LIBRARY ROOMS

Miss Miriam Martin, leader of the music section of the Klamath Falls Library club, announced Saturday afternoon the program for the initial meeting of the year. Monday afternoon in the library club rooms at 2:30 o'clock.

A paper will be read by Mrs. H. F. Murdoch, How to Under- stand and Appreciate Music.

Butterfly, Grieg, Miss Lydia von Berthelsdorf, instrumental.

Hark! Hark! The Lark, Schubert, and "I hear a Thrush at Eve," Cadman, Mrs. Glenn Kent, vocal.

Value Brilliante, (op. 34 No. 2) Chopin, and Etude, (op. 25, No. 9) Chopin, Margaret Cummings, instrumental.

Berceuse from Jocelyn, B. Godard, and The Brown Bird Singing, Haydn Wood, Virginia West, vocal.

LOUISE HOMER HEARD IN MEDFORD

Valley residents were fortunate in having the opportunity to hear Louise Homer, famous contralto, in concert Saturday evening in the Medford armory, and a number of Klamath Falls men and women journeyed to the valley to spend the weekend and hear Madame Homer.

It is understood that Madame Homer will be heard from KFI and KPO on Sunday evening, October twenty-fourth, and those who could not attend the concert in Medford last night, will avail themselves of the radio concert next week.

MISS BIEHN IS HOSTESS WEDNESDAY

One of the prettiest parties of the week was that given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Pearl Biehn.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening with high scores going to Mrs. John Schubert and Martin Ramsby, low to Mrs. Herman Givold and Marvita K. Lucas.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Givold, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Mr. and Mrs. Rex LaPrairie, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conway, Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. Noel, Miss Beattie Tull, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Elna Jensen, and Martin Ramsby, Kenneth S. Perry, Edwin Driscoll, Paul Foster, Babe Green and the hostess, Miss Biehn.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY

An interesting dinner party was an event of Thursday evening when Mrs. G. A. Krause was hostess to a number before the first night of "Dear Brutus" presented by the Moroni Olsen players in the Pine Tree.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed, Mrs. Weston Kilbourne, T. Pearson Henderson, Jay Calzek, Thallentyne Sturdivant, and Mr. and Mrs. Krause.

MRS. LINMAN ENTERTAINS

For Mrs. Theodore Haas of San Francisco, who is visiting in Klamath Falls for a fortnight, Mrs. John Linman Sr., entertained informally at her home in Shippington at luncheon.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Haas, Mrs. Martin McAndrews, Mrs. Marie Davenport, Mrs. P. E. Hannon and Mrs. Linman Sr.

MRS. BEEBE IS MEDFORD VISITING

Mrs. Carl Beebe, accompanied by her attractive twin daughters, Dale and Gall, are spending the week- end in Medford visiting with Mrs. Beebe's mother.

MRS. RHODEHAMEL HONORED WEDNESDAY

Complimenting Mrs. Lylse RhodehameL, Mrs. Fred Schallock entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon at Linkhaven Tea rooms at luncheon.

Mrs. RhodehameL has been visiting for several days in Klamath Falls from her home in Oakland, California. Mrs. Schallock, Mrs. Minnie Henry and Mrs. Emma Mills motored to the valley with Mrs. RhodehameL Thursday when she returned south.

Mrs. Schallock's guests at luncheon included Mrs. RhodehameL, Mrs. Eleanor Yaden and Mrs. C. H. Dargrett.

LAMM HAS SATURDAY LUNCHEON

For a few friends, Mrs. W. E. Lamm entertained at luncheon Saturday afternoon at Linkhaven Tea rooms at one o'clock.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Harry W. Poole, Mrs. C. S. Carrin, Mrs. Steve Sabo Jr., Mrs. Harry Ackley, Mrs. Emma Mills, Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. W. E. Lamm.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN TO MEET MONDAY

The American Association of University Women will hold their second meeting of the year Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Linkhaven Tea rooms. Mrs. Avis McConnell, who is in charge of the social committee, has promised a special dinner for that evening.

Reservations can be made with Mrs. Vera Houston Moser, or Miss Virginia West.

Any college women in the city, who are not affiliated with the organization, are invited to attend. The program committee, consisting of Mrs. R. E. Geary, Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. Levant Pease, have scheduled some very entertaining features at the regular monthly meeting. They have an excellent talk planned on the subject of re-forestation.

MRS. MORDOFF BORGAS CIRCLE

Mrs. Myron G. Mordoff entertained members of Dorcas Circle at her home on Ninth street at High on Thursday afternoon. The women spent the afternoon sewing for the holiday bazaar which the Presbyterian Auxiliary will conduct December third and fourth on Main street.

LADIES AUXILIARY MEET THURSDAY

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Herbert Applegate Camp No. 14, was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert McDonald, 1026 Jefferson street.

Mrs. W. E. Carter was initiated to membership. The next meeting will be held October 28 and all sisters, wives and daughters of Spanish-American War veterans, are asked to obtain application for membership.

MRS. BEEBE IS MEDFORD VISITING

Mrs. Carl Beebe, accompanied by her attractive twin daughters, Dale and Gall, are spending the week- end in Medford visiting with Mrs. Beebe's mother.

BUSINESS WOMEN HEAR STORY FROM TEACHERS MONDAY

An interesting gathering, such as the Business and Professional Women have not enjoyed for several months, was given Monday night at Linkhaven Tea Rooms when, following the dinner, the four school teachers who drove from Klamath Falls into Old Mexico, along the Grand Canyon, the Gulf of Mexico, to Florida, north along the Atlantic coast to Boston, New York and then home to Oregon by the north- ern route discussed their trip.

Miss Anna Mae Johnston told of the early part of the trip and the latter part was told by Miss Freda Kjack. Miss Hazel Noble dwelt on the humorous happenings of the trip which were many. The auto camps, on the route, were mentioned by Miss Rena Goer and many questions were asked the girls by the business women.

A Halloween party will be enjoyed Monday evening, October the twenty-fifth in the library club rooms, according to announcement made by Mrs. Irma Dixon, president. Mrs. Gertrude Glover is in charge of arrangements.

All friends of the girls and prospective members are bidden to the party where cards and music will be enjoyed. The time will be announced later.

RUMMAGE SALE HELD AT FORD GARAGE

Under the direction of the Methodist Ladies Aid, one of the most successful rummage sales of the season was conducted.

Committees on location included Mrs. Mollie Belding, and Mrs. T. R. Skillington.

Soliciting, Mrs. Young, Mrs. S. C. Barry, Mrs. E. C. Stuckey, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote and Mrs. H. E. Peltz.

Sale, Mrs. T. R. Skillington, Mrs. George R. Lindley, Mrs. Will Levings, Mrs. Carrie Maier, Mrs. Mattie Burchett, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Wintley.

MAZAMA GROUP PICNIC SATURDAY

The girls of the Mazama Camp Fire group enjoyed a hike along the west side of Upper Klamath Lake chaperoned by their guardian, Mrs. D. M. Smith, Saturday afternoon.

There were fifteen in the party and a sandwich luncheon was enjoyed at 4 o'clock.

DINNER PARTY AT THE CLUB ENJOYED

A pleasant dinner, one of the first of the season, was an event of Friday evening when a party of the younger set enjoyed the affair at the Club Cafe. Covers were laid for Miss Freda Kjack, Miss Anna Mae Johnston, Miss Rena Goers, W. I. Tingley and N. G. Wheeler.

MRS. STEWART IS ENTERTAINED HERE

One of the most feted visitors of the fall season in Klamath Falls is Mrs. Charles P. Stewart of Hollywood, formerly of this city, who is the guest of her many friends while north on a combined business and pleasure trip.

In compliment to Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. D. M. Smith, entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon at her home. Fall foliage and cut flowers were used about the rooms.

Mrs. Smith's guests included Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Lawrence of Medford, Mrs. Mollie Belding, Mrs. George R. Lindley, Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. Elizabeth Culbertson and Miss Elizabeth Culbertson of Berkeley, Mrs. W. S. Slough and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck.

MISS HELEN SHIVE IS COMPLIMENTED

In honor of her daughter, Miss Helen Shive, whose thirteenth birthday occurred last Saturday, Mrs. Oscar Shive entertained for a group of the younger set at the Shive home on North Ninth street.

Games were enjoyed until late in the afternoon when Mrs. Shive served a charming luncheon.

The guests who honored Miss Shive included the Misses Harriett Bratton, Henrietta Wright, Alice Harvey, Lois Tabor, Shirley Earl- andson, Mariah Grimes, Alysse Hector, Nancy Gammon, Gertrude Boyle, Marguerite Boyle, Katherine Hor- belt, Letta Kenyon, Ruth May Chilcote, Jean Beard, Helen Gregory, Ruth McNealy and Rose Darley.

MRS. STEWART IS ENTERTAINED HERE

One of the most feted visitors of the fall season in Klamath Falls is Mrs. Charles P. Stewart of Hollywood, formerly of this city, who is the guest of her many friends while north on a combined business and pleasure trip.

In compliment to Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. D. M. Smith, entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon at her home. Fall foliage and cut flowers were used about the rooms.

Mrs. Smith's guests included Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Lawrence of Medford, Mrs. Mollie Belding, Mrs. George R. Lindley, Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. Elizabeth Culbertson and Miss Elizabeth Culbertson of Berkeley, Mrs. W. S. Slough and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck.

Dear Cynthia

Mother and I were talking about clothes yesterday - and I said - "I don't see how a woman can look well and feel properly dressed without the aid of:

Barnhart's Peggy

BARNHART'S MCCARTHY BLDG. SEVENTH ST. KLAMATH FALLS, ORE.

If you were Robinson Crusoe

If you were alone with yourself—really alone, like Robinson Crusoe on his desert island—how long would you be able to interest yourself in You? After all, it's the woman who knows something about what's happening in Europe and why, and can tell a "bill of lading" from a "promissory note" that's most interesting to herself and to others. And she's generally one who has appreciated the value of laundry service in cutting down her housework hours. Finished Service, the fully finished laundry service, has made her washday as easy as turning on the electric lights.

Finished Service

Troy Laundry

Phone 656

"To Serve Humanity Better"

SERVICE

with us, means anticipating the needs and desires of our patrons so that they need not concern themselves about the slightest detail beyond telling us their wishes.

"A Superior Service"

Which never costs more — Often Less.

EARL WHITLOCK
PHONE FUNERAL COR. 6TH AND PINE STS.
46 HOME

The Peggy Claire

Hats and Things Hats

301 South Seventh Street