

Bonanza Resident Dies as Result of Blood Poisoning

John Waldo Bell, aged 47, a well known resident of the Bonanza district, died at a local hospital yesterday following an infection of the arm which developed into blood poisoning.

Mr. Bell was born at Talent, Oregon, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Bell. A number of years ago he located in the Bonanza district and has since been engaged in farming. He was extremely popular with his friends and acquaintances and his demise is sincerely mourned by a multitude of people.

In addition to his widow deceased is survived by two sons, Vern, of Klamath Falls, and T. J. Bell, of Talent.

Remains are at the mortuary of Twoey & Harrington. Announcement will be made later.

WOOD

The slight advance in prices of wood have increased rather than decreased the buying.

A slight decrease in the production of wood at the mills has cut the supply until we are a few days behind with deliveries.

At the present time we are not selling wood to be loaded in trucks or wagons other than our own.

Please be patient if your order is not delivered at once, we are trying hard to serve you promptly.

PERSONALS

Mrs. R. D. Eller, who has been in New York for the past two months visiting with her parents and many friends, will return Sunday from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Miss Margaret Worden and Miss Maybelle Leavitt left at noon yesterday for Eugene where they will spend the week-end at Home Coming.

Among the Klamath Falls residents attending Home-Coming week-end at Eugene, is Harry Messner, who left Friday for the college city. Messner is affiliated with Kappa Sigma on the U. of O. campus.

Miss Frances Howard left this morning for Medford to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Howard of the valley city. Miss Howard is employed at the stage office of Howard & Bell.

Miss Martella Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Glover, is ill at the family home suffering from an attack of cold and influenza.

Sidney Hayslip and Wendell Lawrence, both affiliated with Sigma Nu on the University of Oregon campus, left for Medford yesterday morning after spending the past few days here. From Medford they will drive north to Eugene to spend Home Coming week-end. Lawrence is the son of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Lawrence, formerly of Klamath Falls when they were in charge of the Presbyterian church.

Roland Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ulrich, is ill at the family residence on Conger avenue, suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism which physicians fear will keep him confined to his home for at least a month. Roland is a freshman at Klamath county high school.

EXTRA MONEY

WHERE IS THERE A MAN with a family who is not anxious to make extra money. To provide a better living and a better place for his family to live. A place where his children can help in a small way to help make the living, and thereby help to teach the children to be self dependent. A place where the entire family will be halthier and happier. WE HAVE JUST THAT PLACE.

An Altamont Small Farm

A 2, 3, 4, or 5 acre tract of the finest quality land with all city conveniences.

And here is a real piece of news for you.

On one of our choicest tracts a model poultry farm is being erected to be conducted by one of the foremost poultry specialists and agriculturalists in the state. This man has had years of experience in guiding and advising folks along agricultural and allied lines and he will help those on our tracts who go in for poultry raising, truck gardening, etc.

And where could you find a place where there is a better market and bigger demand for what you can raise than right here in Klamath? Think of it! More than 85 per cent of the eggs used here are shipped in. The manager of one produce company stated yesterday that his company had shipped in over 700 cases of eggs in the last three weeks, and the demand for more eggs growing every day.

Think it over! Here is a real opportunity within the reach of anyone who really wants to get ahead.

We are selling this land at a price far below the price of any other subdivision land of the same quality and of equal distance from the city, and at terms to suit the purchaser.

We know you can't beat our prices and terms. Come in and LET US PROVE IT TO YOU.
