

Fight Card Was Humdinger Say Local Sportsmen

After six rounds of game battling with a stronger foe, Joe Coffman went down for the count in the main event of the American Legion fight card here yesterday afternoon. His opponent, Kid Starkey, led the scrap from the opening gong.

That Starkey was out to get his man was apparent from the first round of the fight. The local carpenter abandoned his favored style of infighting and leaped from his corner at his shifty little mate, repeatedly at his shifty little mate.

The event was a good one, and comment of most of the fans, who liberally phoned the card after the show, was that Joe put up a game scrap, but was simply outclassed by the Kid. Coffman landed quite a lot of stuff during the opening rounds of the tilt, but was apparently unable to phase the stocky hammer thrower, who came in repeatedly for more fight.

Kidney Punch Did Work

A kidney-punch early in the sixth canto started Coffman on the decline. The green-trunked battler went to the floor for nine counts, regained his feet and was back at Starkey like a flash. But the grin never left the carpenter's face, and before two minutes had elapsed, he had delivered the blow that put Coffman on the floor for the second time. This time Joe failed to get up, and Starkey was acclaimed victor.

On the whole, the legion card was one of the best run off here for many weeks. It is regrettable that the big house was little more than half filled, due, it is believed, to the fact that many who had a holiday yesterday, headed for Tule lake in quest of ducks. Returning hunters last night reported a hunting ground swarming with local nimrods, but fairly depleted so far as birds were concerned.

Chloquin Boy Wins

A pseudo knockout on yesterday's card came in the third round of the semi-windup between Dummy Poole, of Weed, and Wilbur Harrington of Chloquin. The battle was a fast one while it lasted, and the California boy showed up well against the Indian, but the redman proved too speedy for Dummy and put the latter out while on his feet along toward the end of the third canto.

Poole is a clever boxer and has apparently danced in a good many fight rings, but judging from the bout yesterday, Dummy has lost the fighting vigor of his earlier youth. The Indian had him groggy in the second round, and throughout the third slashed his white opponent continuously. Harrington is apparently better than ever, and was hailed by fans as a fighter of real ability.

McFadden-Daly Draw

Fighting desperately to break the tie decisions that have pursued them in previous fights here, Pat McFadden and Mike Daly put on four rounds of high class fighting in the special event on the legion card. But to no avail. The decision was once more and for the third time in favor of both fighters. And the decision was the fairest possible, for Pat and Mike fought equally well and with sufficient intensity to please the hardest boiled fight crowd that ever razzed a referee.

Ryder Bests Bates

Following an amusing preliminary, in which two African gents, name of Oregon Cougar and Alabama Wildcat, struggled from clinch to clinch, Kid Ryder and Johnny Bates went through four rounds of snappy slugging. Ryder was given the decision at the end of the fourth, and while he outclassed the smaller fighter, Bates did a lot of good work, incidentally letting considerable blood via the victor's nose.

In the preliminary, the Oregon Cougar won a decision over the ebony pugilist from the banana belt.

Jack O'Neill, Butte, Montana, refereed the first three bouts, while Joe Shirk, city, supervised the semi-windup and main event.

Army Is Ready Great Conflict With Notre Dame

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The Army has finished its preparations for the Notre Dame game Saturday.

Their work today was light but there was plenty of it. The varsity men were all in their places but one or two positions seem in doubt. Hewitt and Murrell both went through a long kicking drill. Brentnall also had a turn at punting, although he is not considered a likely starter. Trappier was in the signal practice. He again wore his face mask as protection for his broken nose.

Because of the uncertainty concerning the doubtful place on the eleven, Biff Jones, coach, said today that he would not announce his line-up for the game until the Army squad departed for New York.

Coast Army, Navy Game Won by Army In Fierce Contest

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 11.—(United News)—The Army was victorious this afternoon in the annual west coast clash of service football teams.

The Navy, represented by the crack team of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, champions of the United States fleet, went down to a 28 to 21 defeat before the eleven of the west coast army division.

Two touchdowns in the last quarter turned the tide of victory to the Army after it appeared that the game would end in a tie. At the end of the third period the score was 14 to 14, but Speicer scored a touchdown soon after the last quarter ended. Speicer added another score after Jowett had intercepted a Navy pass and carried the ball back to the 15 yard line.

In the closing minutes of the play Dickey of the Navy team ran 65 yards to a touchdown.

The Army was the first to score, Haralson, right end, taking a pass in the first quarter, and running 15 yards to the goal line. Mah-lesteadt drop kicked the extra point.

The Navy tied it up in the same period when Worden scored from the six yard line.

Jowett, whose line bucks and runs were a feature of the Army attack, scored the next touchdown, early in the second quarter. The game went into a deadlock again when Thomas ran 19 yards to a touchdown in the third quarter.

Captain H. E. Eastwood, athletic officer for the Ninth Corps Area, was deluged with congratulations over the splendid showing made by his victorious team.

Jayhawkers Win From Sooners of Southern State

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 11.—(United News)—The Kansas Jayhawkers today won a football game from the Oklahoma Sooners and, if you will remember, it was the Oklahoma Sooners who walloped Missouri last week.

The score was 19 to 9, and it was just that kind of a football game. In the first quarter the Sooners, carrying out the predictions of the football prophets, got away for a touchdown and failed to kick goal.

The Jayhawkers came right back in the second quarter with a touchdown, and what's more, they kicked that old pigskin over the goal, which gave them the lead. The next quarter was scoreless.

But in the last quarter both teams kicked field goals, but the Jayhawkers still held the one point lead, and they stuck to it until the referee blew his whistle.

Army and Navy in Champion Contest Football Honors

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—(United News)—For the first time since football really became national, a final game of the season for a recognized national championship is in the making.

The Army and the Navy teams may play their annual game not only for the traditional service flag but for the national title.

The Army, of course, has had great teams in the past and the Navy has had as many but it never before so happened that the cadets and the midshipmen had such high class teams in the same season—a season with so many other great teams. Two formidable barriers, however, stand in the way of the West Point and Annapolis teams.

To go into their annual game undefeated, the Army will have to beat Notre Dame Saturday and the Navy will have to beat Georgetown.

The whole country knows what can be expected of the Irish of Notre Dame but to the fans in removed territory, the Irish of Georgetown may not be so respected.

Georgetown, the leading scoring team of the country, has developed fast since being defeated by West Virginia the team has been pointed for a neighborhood battle with the Navy. The Army has beaten Detroit, Davis Elkins, Syracuse, Boston university, Yale and Franklin and Marshall and if the cadets beat Notre Dame and the Navy, no stronger claim can be made by any other team, kvanting the fact in advance that the western conference will have a good team and that Stanford and Southern California, on the coast, must be good teams.

Notre Dame has beaten Beloit, Minnesota, Penn State, Northwestern, Georgia Tech and Indiana. If Notre Dame beats the Army and Drake, and beats Southern California in Los Angeles next month, Notre Dame would be a champion almost by acclamation.

Navy has beaten Purdue, Richmond, Drake, Princeton, Colgate, Michigan, and if the midshipmen beat Georgetown and the Army, no team in the country can boast of no defeats on such a formidable schedule.

The best teams in the south, the midwest and the far west cannot be dismissed from a seat in the east by a mere wave of the hand and a verdict that they are not candidates. But if it should so happen that Ohio State would be defeated by Michigan Saturday, then the dope will lead back to the support of the east.

Lord Bishop Wins In One Set Tennis With Helen Wills

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 11.—(United News)—The lord bishop of London laid aside his robes of church office for hours this afternoon, and scampered through lively sets of tennis with Helen Wills and "Little Bill" Johnston.

The bishop won one set, that in which he and Johnston were paired against Helen and Dr. Sumner Hardy.

The score was 6-4. Helen played with the churchman in the first two sets, both of which went to Dr. Hardy and Little Bill, 6-4, 6-2.

Attired in grey trousers, white shirt and an old grey hat pulled well down over his face the Right Hon. and Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington-Ingram, lord bishop of London, was the most active on the Claremont courts.

A few club members, photographers and newspaper men constituted the gallery. The bishop is 65 years old and looks 50. Throughout the match he kept up a running fire of comment.

A baby ward and aseptic delivery room is maintained at Klamath Valley Hospital which facilitates the care of mothers and babies.
