SANTA CLAUS MAKES A VISIT

Santa Claus, the jolly old fellow from doll land, stopped in Klamath Falls over night on his way south to give his reindeers a rest.

While here he took from his sleigh and left with the Golden Rule, the famous "Madame Hendren" doll family. Santa stated that he was coming back in a few days and asked that all the little folks come to the store and get acquainted with the dolls, for on his return trip he will have loads of other surprises for you.

The Madame Hendren dolls are far superior to the stereotype common creatures of yesterday—they are new in form, new in face and new in dressing—some walk, some talk and they all cry. There are fashions and styles in dolls, of course, and as Madame Hendren has, year after year, set the style among the different doll clans, so this year, to cheer the little folks, she has made all her children Lyf-Lyk.

They are all priced so that every little girl may have a doll this Xmas.
