

Ducks Trapped Do Not Like Ordeal, Make it Known

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 24.—(United News)—Hundreds of ducks alighting one recent Sunday morning quacked surprise and no little indignation upon finding themselves trapped.

They were trapped in the worthy cause of scientific research, and in addition were given an abundance of food, but it is doubtful if the ducks appreciated this.

They were banded and released. E. M. Ehmman, official government "duckmaster" here, expects to establish through this means that wild ducks are imbued with the spirit of wanderlust to a greater extent than any other species of fowl, excepting certain sea birds, and in establishing such proof, to solve one of nature's most fascinating mysteries.

"We banded many hundred ducks," Ehmman said. "Now we are sitting back to await word from Moscow, Sardinia, Capetown and where not a few months hence.

Speculation always has flourished regarding the extent of ducks' migrations. Ancients had it that the birds flew to the moon. As late as the '60's a western ornithologist claimed they hibernated during winter along river mud-banks.

"We aren't altogether in the dark," said Ehmman. "Last year a sprig duck banded with our Lake Merrill band was shot in Brazil."

The tiny green-winged teal, Ehmman said, traversed the U. S. from the Great Lakes and Southern California.

"At least one species," he continued, "the pintail, flies each year by definite sky lanes from the Arctic circle to Central America. Its aerial path is as fixed as the highways of men. On a clear day, flying at an altitude of one mile, it can be seen over a 90-mile area."

A teal banded in Ohio recently was killed in South Africa, Ehmman declared.

Lands In Prison 24 Hours After Robbery of Bank

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Nov. 24.—(United News)—Only 36 hours after he had participated in a Richmond bank holdup, Hicks Anderson, a plasterer, tonight was committed to San Quentin penitentiary to serve a term of from five years to life for first degree robbery.

Anderson and a confederate escaped with $16,000 from the Mechanics bank of Richmond yesterday morning.

The accomplice has not been caught, but Anderson was arraigned before Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie this afternoon and pleaded guilty to the charge. Half of the loot was recovered when Anderson was arrested.

Judge McKenzie promptly sentenced Anderson to San Quentin and Under Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county brought him here tonight.

LOS ANGELES MODEST WANTS ONLY MILLION

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—To avert irreparable damage to southern California watersheds and consequent loss to southland crops, a campaign was outlined here Tuesday to secure a federal appropriation of $1,000,000 to combat the forest fire menace.

FORCEPS IN STOMACH

CHARLESTON, Ill., Nov. 24.—(United News)—A pair of forceps left in her abdomen after an operation caused the death of Mrs. Emma W. Mock here, declared physicians who examined her body.

MAN DISAPPOINTED WITH INTENDED AND ASKS RETURN OF FEE

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., Nov. 24.—(United News)—Meyer Lavine, 31, San Rafael junk dealer, appeared at the office of the county clerk with grinning, blushing Lura Lin, 22, San Francisco, at his side.

For $2 he bought a wedding license and away he went with Lura, presumably happy.

He reappeared 24 hours later, but Lura Lin was not at his side. He demanded return of his $2. "She can't talk English so good," he said. "She just came over from Russia. She couldn't help in my store, so I ain't gonna marry her. I oughta have my money back."

The county kept the $2.

Volstead Prepares 10 Commandments for Moonshiners

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 24.—(United News)—A list of ten commandments for moonshiners has been added to "Volsteadiana" in the possession of Andrew J. Volstead, father of the prohibition enforcement act.

Volstead now is special adviser to Brig. General Rhinow, northwest prohibition administration and received the list from special agents who received it in raiding a still.

The commandments read:

- 1. Thou shalt not make moonshine.
2. Thou shalt not drink liquor.
3. Thou shalt not tempt thy government lest they the government tempt thee.
4. Thou shalt do unto the federal agents as you would like to have the deputy sheriffs do unto you.
5. Thou shalt not fear the hi-jackers, but trust in fair play.
6. Thou shalt not drink wood alcohol.
7. Thou shalt not steal thy neighbor's jug.
8. Thou shalt protest they enemy's still.
9. Thou shalt have only one protector.
10. Thou shalt make good wine and be happy all the days of thy life.

MAKING SERIOUS INROADS

The home builders' claim on the forests is disputed by the automobile industry, which is consuming rapidly the standing timber of many states. Within the last three years 1,500,000,000 feet of hardwood trees have been purchased by one of the largest manufacturers of automobile bodies. The company recently acquired 60,000 acres of hardwood timber in Louisiana and Arkansas.

"KING BEN" AGED BY LONG PURSUIT

"King" Benjamin Purnell of the House of David, seized by Michigan state police at the cult's colony, Benton Harbor, following a three-year search has aged considerably. Group picture shows him now as he faces charges preferred by two former girl members of his colony; below, as he appeared prior to his flight. Group picture, left to right, front row: Deputy Under Sheriff Frank Paget, who took part in the raid; "King" Benjamin Purnell and James Walker, a disciple. Back row: Mrs. Mary Benjamin Purnell, known as "Queen Mary," and Cora Mounsey, disciple.

The "King's" followers, after his release on bail, declared they were confident he would be proved innocent of all charges against him. It was in 1922 that two young girls, Mrs. Ruth Bamford Reed and Mrs. Gladys Bamford Rubel, sisters, left the House of David colony, charging immoralities by Purnell. This started the investigation which resulted in the indictments returned against Purnell, who now awaits arraignment Dec. 22 on charges of bigamy and criminal assault.

Formerly a vigorous man, the "King" now is feeble and is supported by the faithful when he walks.

TEN WOMEN READY TO RUN FOR MAYOR

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—(United News)—Ten women have been pushed over the political horizon as possible candidates for mayor following advice of Mrs. Bertha K. Landis, mayor of Seattle, that Chicago needs the guiding hand of a woman. No definite candidates have been announced, of course, but Chicago is toying with the idea and the feminine boom is a distinct rumble as civic leaders consider a field of eligibles.

WALLOWA GROWER TO SHIP 1200 TURKEYS

WALLOWA, Ore., Nov. 24.—One of the most extensive poultry dressing operations ever conducted in this county has been going on at the M. O. Courtney ranch, about a mile east of Loring, where Donald Courtney, assisted by Ray West of Portland, prepared 1200 turkeys for the Thanksgiving market. They also dressed a considerable number of chickens and geese. The birds were sent to outside markets.

Minister's Widow Will Be Witness In Own Behalf

ROSEVILLE, N. J., Nov. 24.—(United News)—The enigma of the Hal-Mills murder mystery, Mrs. Frances Simpson Hall, will follow her brother upon the witness stand when their trial is resumed after Thanksgiving.

The proud, imperturbable widow, whose demeanor has been a baffling enigma as the problem of who killed her husband and his sweetheart, will swear not only to her innocence, but to her ignorance of the intrigue that led so directly to the crime.

Although Senator Alexander Simpson, the prosecutor, has proved by witnesses that the love affair of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills was common gossip in New Brunswick, Mrs. Hall will tell the jury she had no inkling of her husband's infidelity. To her, the erring reverend appeared a model spouse. Even after his death she affirmed her belief in his faithfulness.

ROSEBURG WILL GET ALPINE MILK PLANT

ROSEBURG, Nov. 24.—(United News)—The Alpine Milk company's plant at Bandon will be moved to this city if negotiations now in progress are completed. An option on Roseburg property has been secured and plans for the new building are under way.
