

James E. O'Neil, formerly president of the Prarie Oil and Gas company and R. M. Blackmer, former chairman of the board of the Midwest Refining company. These two men are alleged to have participated in a conference with the Contin-ental Trading company in which arrangement for a large paper sale of oil was made. Fall received $250,-000 in profits out of the arrangement, the government alleges. An parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Park effort will be made to show that the cr in Grants Pass. Continental Trading company trans-action was employed to cover up the payment to Fail. The company, home in Yoncolia near Roseburg

7

1 A

Vacation Period Draws Many Away

That many Klamath Falls real-That many klamath Falls resi-dents will spend the holidays away from home is indicated by the fact that the Klamath-Eugene local that pulled out of here yesterday morn-ing was so jammed with humanity that standnig room was declared to be at a premium.

To meet the heavy demand for railway accommodations, an' extra passenger coach came in on the local yesterday afternoon, in order to provide ample space for an anticipated heavy rush northward this will spend Christmas in the county $\ensuremath{\mathsf{will}}$ ticipated heavy rush northward this morning. Passenger traffic, however, is much heavier to the south, accords ing to R. G. Stein, ticket agent at the local denot, who yesterday de-ger fraffic out of this city at this is to as has year at a correspond-ing to R in Stein ticket agent at the local denot, who yesterday de-ger fraffic out of this city at this is to as has year at a correspond-ing to R in the volume of passen-ing to R in the volume of passen-ing the volume of passen-ticket agent at the morning of December 5, was ing has last year at a correspond-ordered bound over to the district in this var has not been so plen-ticket agent at the solution of the solution of the district in this year has not been so plen-ticket agent at a correspond-ordered bound over to the district in this wear has not been so plenas it was last year at a correspond- ordered bound over to the district ing time ing time. Train No. 91 that left here in the south yesterday evening, was equipped with an extra pullman car and by the time the train left, herths on both sleepers were vir-testimony before the disrict court testimony before the disrict to obtain ball.

Golden Wedding Is Observed Here testimony in time.

versaries is declared uncommon in clime, but this evening will the celebration of the fiftieth guests of friends or relatives, as the Christmas season gives to the The University activity of the city from $2,500 to $10.000 to $10.0000 to $10.000 to $10.000 to $10.000 to $10 the Klamath teachers.

ing her holiday vacation with her ed

a Canadian concern, was dissolved (Continued on Page Four) Miss Hazel Noble, Miss Clara Jarvis and Miss Helga Larson are remaining in the city for the vacation season. Miss Helen Horan will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Horan of Pine Ridge near Chiloquin. Miss Anna Mae Johnston is re-maining in the city with her parents. Miss Lulu Foster and her sister, (Continued on Page Five)

Detective's Wife Held For Murder

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 23, (U.

ing time. Train No. 91 that left here for clusion of her preliminary bearing

Friday in an effort to obtain ball, but the county clerk intimated that he would be unable to prepare the Word of golden wedding annipose any attempt to obtain bond for the accused woman.

000 the Klamath teachers Fremont School Miss Augusta Parker, principal of Fremoni and Central, is spend-ing her holiday variation with her sd with the major movements of Continued on Page Four), afternoon.

Christmas Kettles Will Assist Needy

The kettles of the Salvation Army who have braved the rigors of win-ter that the unfortunates of Kla-math Falls may feel the warmth of the Christmas spirit tomorrow deserted her children and went to -will be upturned today and their contents distributed among other-wise forgotten poor.

wise forgotten poor. "People have been generous to but I just couldn't face Christmas our cause this year," Ensign H. R. Briggs stated, "and it is with much Briggs that e and it is with much happiness that we will today start carrying our boxes of Yuletide char-ity to the homes of the needy." On Christmas day, members of the Salvation Army, unmindful of their own enjoyment on the natheir own enjoyment on the ma-tion's great holiday, will make up and distribute basket dinners among those extremely zoor who hold hope

ing this year has not been so plen tiful, it was said, and the little stock on hand at the army's local headquarters dwindled long before Work of the Salvation Army does not conflict with other charity movements, in this or any other city, for it is the aim of this or-(Continued on Page Five) Christmas came, Nimrods Will Get Busy at Tule Lake Kenosha plants. Every employe was handed his envelope by C. W. Nash himself.

Hunters returning from Tule lake operations. In one compartment was a lethel gas machine to give quick relief to animals injured be-yona hope of recovery.

JOHN D. TO GOLP ORMOND BEACH, Fia.—Tinsel. bells and candles adorn the big Christmas tree that has been set up in the hall of his winter home for John D. Rockefeller. The aged fin-ancier will spend Christmas golfing in the morning and motoring in the

PAGES ARE HAPPY

REAL ENTERTAINER

KANSAS CITY, Kas.-More than 40 stray dogs and cats to say noth-ing of birds, which, although uninvited, are welcome, will be Christ-branches will be placed cups con-taining grain, milk, choice bones, lettuce and cake for the lucky ani-

JUST AN EDITOR

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.-Hundreds of poor children of this city will enjoy a merry Christmas, thanks to Samuel W. Nichols, venerable news-paper man, whose benefactions have continued for more than thirty

WORK IS APPRECIATED

mais

The pair escaped in a small car, taken from the Lindley garage.

THEFT

room.

John Lindley, 20, a son, and Ralph Lyman of Los Angeles, who Shipping Snowing Its Highest Level While the volume of freight mov-ing out of Klamath Falls has drop-ped off somewhat with the arrival of winter, the unceasing activity of 1 arger lumber operations here coupled with continued industrial and commercial activity, is serving to keep shipping at a comparatively to keep shipping at a comparatively to keep shipping at a comparatively to the end of the 1926 season. The west entrance showed very high level. This was shown yesterday by a statement from S. R. Berry, local freight and passenger agent for the Continued on Page Four) high level. freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, which revealed that an average of 10 carloads of

Yuletide Season box shooks and five cars of lumber are being shipped daily out of this city

Livestock shipping at this season Livestock samping at this season is spotty, the agent stated, but has been exceptionally good considering the time of year. Last week saw several cars of cattle, sheep and hogs leave the county, but the num-ber exported dropped away down this weak Other commodules are the whole county is extended by the local movement, to attend the Christmas tree celebration that is to be held in front of the Labor Temple here commencing at seven this week. Other commodities are said to generally exceed the average for last year at this time.

Four through freight trains are plying via this city daily, two travel-ing north and two southward, and are experiencing no d-lays from snow, either on the new Cascade line or to the south. The three feet of snow at Crescent Lake and 14 inches at Grass Lake, are easily kept off the track, it was stated.

While Christmas will bring no KENOSHA, Wis. - A Christmas distribution of more than $650,000 slackening of business at the local freight depot, only those men who (Continued on Page Four) in cash was made Thursday by the Nash Motor company among em-ployes in its Milwaukee, Racine and

Traffic Meetings

pected to be the scene of consider-able fun for the kiddles this eve-Candy, nuts and toys will ning. be distributed to the youngsters by old Santa Claus himself.

ren, are cordially invited by t in charge, to attend the affair. thos

The big tree was in place last night, and decorations were virtually complete. Hundreds of tiny colored lights gleamed from the long branches of the forest giant

Ask any Kiwanian if there's a id of the 1926 season. east entrance showed very season travel with 1,676 cars tontinued on Page Four) With sufficient snow on the ground to assure a white Christmas, a rising barometer at the local bureau of reclamation yesterday promised Klamath Falls clear, pold weather for the Christmas holidays. The ley clutches of winter closed down for the second time this month here early yesterday morn-ling when the mercury dropped to six above zero rt the reclamation office and as low as three above office and as low as three above in sections of the business district. A failing thermometer at the weath-An invitation to every child in er station, late yesterday after-noon, indicated that last night would be fully as cold, if not more o'clock this evening. Sponsored by the Building Trades council, the big tree at the corner of Ninth and Walnut, is ex-pected to be the scene of consider-able fun for the kiddler this eve-ludged from the fact that the barometer rose from 25, its position during the snow storm early in the old Santa Claus himself. This will be the only outdoor Christmas tree in the city this year, and grown-ups, as well as the child-here means clarity, it was stated.

Gaghagen Proves Wonderful Santa

Proving Fruitful and truly heralded the approach of Santa Claus, and he'll avow in the positive, naming Police Judge Lem L. Gaghagen as it.

With sufficient snow on

White Christmas

- Is New Assured

ed today at the drive headquarters in the Slater building, before ten

m. The chest committee expects that the merchants, who have the boxes in large quantities, will respond, as they have in the past and that appeared during the raid, were met ing 54,624 visitors. Nine motor-at the door by one of the young cycles, carrying 11 persons, enter-bandits and marched to an upper ed the park through the southern plenty of boxes will be available as seen as the word has gone an out as such as the word has gone stages. There were 102 visitors who entered the park by other means than stare, motorcycle or automobile, making a grand total of 35,629 visitors. The word entered the park by other set of the park by other means than stare, motorcycle or automobile, making a grand total of states of willing motorists who will report at the Shater building.

will report at the Slater building, on Seventh between Main and Kla-math, directly after lunch today. If the requested boxes arrive (Continued on Page Four)

