

CITY BRIEFS

Returns East—Mrs. Charles Wright has returned to her home in Sharon, North Dakota, leaving yesterday morning for the east. She has been visiting in Klamath Falls at the home of her father, Mr. O'Neil.

Christmas Guests—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Trulove have had as their Christmas guests Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wasson, residents of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson have many friends in Klamath Falls where they formerly resided.

Child Study Class—Members of the child study class of the Klamath Falls chapter of the American Association of University Women, will meet at the home of Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe on Crescent avenue, Friday afternoon, January 7, to discuss one of the most interesting phases of the work. Mrs. Radcliffe will read a paper on "Learning" and Mrs. Theodore Case has prepared a second paper on "Basis of Action."

Mrs. Stewart Ill—The condition of Mrs. Grace Stewart of Moe's Beauty Shop who is suffering from tonsillitis, was reported but slightly improved yesterday. She is under the care of a physician and will probably be confined to her home in the Baldwin for several days.

Knoll In—Mark Knoll of Chicago, where he is connected with the Ford garage there, was visiting in Klamath Falls yesterday and last night to attend the annual duck dinner of the Baisiger Motor company employees held in the chamber of commerce when Mr. and Mrs. Baisiger were hosts.

Miss Clift Improved—Friends of Miss Pauline Clift will be interested to learn that she is reported as slightly improved by members of her family. Miss Clift has been ill since before the holidays suffering from influenza and quinsy.

Lee Returns—Mr. W. T. (Bill) Lee has returned to Klamath Falls, arriving Thursday night, from Los Angeles, San Francisco and other southern cities, where they have spent the past month. Lee is Klamath county assessor. He reports delightful weather conditions.

Mother Improves—Friends of Mrs. Ruby Smith of the Blue Bird will be happy to learn that her mother, Mrs. Cora Smith of 335 Martin street, is rapidly improving from a serious illness that has confined her to her bed for several weeks. Her condition over the holiday season was most unsatisfactory.

In San Francisco—Delos Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O. Mills of Klamath Falls and Pine Grove, will not return here before going to Oregon Agricultural college to resume his studies, according to Mrs. Mills yesterday. Mills left soon after Christmas for San Francisco where he will return north with his car.

Miss Wilson Home—Miss Olive Wilson, teacher of domestic arts and science in the public schools at Fremont, is expected return today from her home in Yoncoila and Roseburg where she spent the holiday season visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Staley Wilson and friends.

Blue Bird Closes—Patrons of the Blue Bird will go elsewhere for three weeks, as the popular confectionery shop and restaurant closed its doors last night preparatory to moving into larger quarters now occupied by Miss Gertrude's Hat shop. During that three weeks period the building will be entirely renovated and new equipment installed. Mrs. Everett Hardenbrook, Mrs. Nell Osborn and Miss Albertina Nitschelm of the Blue Bird are leaving this week-end for San Francisco to enjoy their vacation. Miss Ruby Smith will remain with her mother who is ill for a week and then continue to Ashland, where she will visit Mrs. Moda Stansberry. Mrs. Stansberry is leaving today for the valley to visit friends and relatives. Mrs. Waive Moulton is leaving this week-end for Red Bluff, California, to spend three weeks visiting friends and relatives and will return with the completion of the new quarters.

Mrs. Trulove Improves—Friends of Mrs. E. D. Trulove, who has been ill at the family residence at 3228 Eberlein street, will be interested to learn that she is recovering from a serious attack of cold and headache.

Grimes In—Out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included James Grimes of the Grimes-Brown ranch on Williamson river.

In Ashland—Miss Mary Walker, of the O. L. Brown store on Williamson river, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker of Ashland, is expected to return home this week-end after spending the holiday season there.

Motor to Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Myron G. Mordoff, and daughters, Miss Aileen and Miss Lorraine Mordoff, left yesterday at noon for Medford, where they spent last night and this morning. The girls will attend the New Year's ball and be the guests of numerous friends. They are former Medford residents.

Return Here—Edwin Rose, editor of the Klamath News, returned home last night, after spending the holiday season in San Francisco and bay points visiting his daughter and other relatives.

Leaving for South—Mrs. Leo Thompson and son Scott, who have been visiting in Klamath Falls for the past fortnight with Mrs. Thompson's aunt, Mrs. Grace Stewart, will leave today for her in Oklahoma City where she will reside.

D. A. R. Meeting—Among the meetings scheduled for the coming week is that of the Daughters of the American Revolution which will meet Monday night at the home of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas. Mrs. Rachael Applegate Solomon is in charge of the program, and the subject is a most interesting one, Honore Wilkie Morrow's book, We Must March, will also be reviewed.

Divorce Filed—Suit for divorce was filed in circuit court yesterday by Lauree Roselee Jackson against her husband, Howard R. Jackson. D. R. Vandenberg represents the plaintiff.

Guests in Klamath—Miss Pearl Murphy and Robert Murphy, residents of Tennant, are visiting in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Foster. Murphy is a student at O. A. C. and will visit here until Sunday when he will leave with other college students for the north.

Entertain at Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Lynn P. Sablin are entertaining at a prettily appointed New Year's Day dinner at their home on Lincoln street at one o'clock. Covers will be laid for eight.

Merrill Visitor—Miss Mary Graybael, well known young woman of the Merrill country, spent yesterday visiting friends in Klamath Falls.

At Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton are entertaining at dinner this afternoon at 2 o'clock honoring a number of friends. The New Year's dinner table will seat 10 guests.

Suit is Filed—Ida M. Samson has filed suit for divorce in circuit court yesterday against her husband, John Sampson. W. H. A. Renner is attorney for the plaintiff.

Shopping Here—Among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday was Mrs. Carol Ritchie of Merrill where she conducts the telephone office as operator.

Mrs. Leavitt Improves—Of interest to her many friends, and the numerous acquaintances of the family, comes the word that Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, wife of Circuit Judge A. L. Leavitt, is improved materially at the family residence on Conger avenue. Mrs. Leavitt has been ill for the past fortnight and the word of her recovery is happily received.

Garage Man Here—Out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Rudolph Kattenhorn of Merrill where he conducts the garage.

Leaving Today—Mrs. Goldie Miller and Wilbur Kennett, manager of the Klamath Falls branch of the Brownsville Woolen Mills store, left early this morning for Eugene where they will be the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kennett of the University city, Kennett's parents. They will return shortly after the New Year.

Willits Returns—Leland Willits of the Shell Oil company, returned to Klamath Falls last night after spending the past few days in Redding attending a district convention of the oil company. He also spent a short time in Medford on business for the firm accompanied by W. W. Dawley of the Shell Oil plant.

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. Cleo Woodhouse of Merrill spent yesterday in Klamath Falls visiting with her many friends and shopping in the local stores.

BEST WISHES
FOR A PROSPEROUS
AND A—

HAPPY NEW YEAR

To Our Many Friends and Patrons from

UNDERWOOD'S PHARMACY
Where Particular People Buy Their Drugs

Glasses Fitted ground and repaired at
DR. GOBLE'S

709 MAIN ST.

Don't neglect to have your present glasses changed when they need it. THAT is just as necessary as it was to have glasses in the first place.

1927

RESOLVED, I will regularly deposit in the Savings department of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK part of my income during the coming year.

RESOLVED, I will make it a SAVINGS ACCOUNT in truth as well as in name.

(Signed)

MR. CITIZEN.

GEORGE METZ, Jeweler

WANTED

100

Automobiles for Resale

200

Automobiles to Wreck

WE PAY CASH

ROY CALL
AUTO CO.

ROY CALL, Prop.

New Building—727 Commercial St.

Near Sixth

Our Best Wishes
for a Year of Bounty

MAY YOU RECEIVE YOUR SHARE OF
RICH AND RARE
GIFTS FROM THOSE OFFERED BY—

...1927...

Brownsville Woolen Mills Store

WITH an earnest appreciation of the good-will and cooperation which have year after year rewarded our efforts to make this Company a factor in the growth of communities we serve, we extend sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

The California-Oregon Power Company