DORRIS NOTES

(From the Star) Now that the highway is coming to town, and some people from the outside world are coming to look us over, we ought to build a bathing pond for them, so we can do some looking, too.

Most of the S. P.'s through passenger trains will be routed over this line in a short time. Prospects are good for a new mill and box factory. There is every reason to expect a record crop the coming season. A blind man can see that we are approaching an era of growth and industrial activity unequalled in the history of the valley.

Sagebrush Ole of Wolfden passing through Dorris Monday morning, en route to Long Beach. Ole just heard that Miss Martha Yeager of Portland is going to try to swim the Catalina channel without a bathing suit. He says he has been waiting thirty years for a sight like that, and doesn't intend to miss it, even though it is a long trip for a '13 Ford.

Just 50c a month—that's all it costs for the prompt and regular delivery of The Klamath News to your home or place of business. Phone 877 now and service will start as soon as you wish it to.
