EDW. MACDOWELL COMPOSITIONS TO BE HEARD MONDAY

The compositions of Edward MacDowell will fill several hours Monday afternoon in the old library building, when the music department of the Women's Library club meets with Mrs. George R. Lindley and Mrs. George Ulrich in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. William Ganong will read a paper on "Edward MacDowell: His Works," and she has spent much time in preparation of the article, which will throw interesting sidelights on the life and works of the favorite composer.

There will also be two piano numbers by Miss Margaret Rowles, "To a Wild Flower," and "Told at Dawn."

Mrs. Bert William Holloway will sing several numbers, including "The Springtime," "Deserted," and "When a Maid Sings High and When a Maid Sings Low."

Miss Frances Larson has promised to play "An Old Trysting Place," and "From an Indian Lady," both MacDowell compositions.

Lynn P. Sabin will sing, according to announcement.

Miss Pearl Behn, graduate of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music and teacher of the piano, will play "Shadow Dance" and "Lullaby."

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt is temporary chairman of the music department since the departure of Miss Miriam Martin for San Francisco, where she will continue her study of music.

ACTIVITIES IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The latter part of the month will be a busy one for members of St. Paul's Episcopal church when three events are scheduled for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, January 23, 24 and 25, in both the church and the parish house.

On Sunday there will be services in the church in commemoration of the founding of the church, and its first birthday. St. Paul's Day, which falls on Tuesday, January 25, will also be observed at this time. The special services will be held at 11 o'clock.

On Monday afternoon at lovely tea and musical has been arranged for under the direction of Mrs. John M. Glover, musical, and Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. N. D. Ginsbach. Hours are from three o'clock until five o'clock, and friends of the guild and members of the church are invited.

A pot luck supper, which has always been one of the most interesting forms of entertainment and sociability, will be held at 5:30 o'clock in the parish house, with Mrs. M. J. Young in charge, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Decker, Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. E. H. Lawrence. Members of the church and of the guild, with their friends and husbands, are invited to the supper.

DINNER PARTY AT MYERS HOME

Mrs. W. P. Myers was hostess at her home, 133 Grant street, with a prettily appointed dinner party on Tuesday evening, when she entertained for members of the auxiliary of Spanish War Veterans.

The affair was also in the nature of a farewell for Mrs. Iva Momson, retiring secretary-treasurer of the organization, who is leaving this city for Astoria, where she will make her home. Mrs. Momson is a charter member, and has held the responsible position since the organization of the auxiliary. She was presented with a lovely gift before her departure.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mrs. Clara Frankford, Mrs. W. P. Myers, Mrs. Iva Momson, Mrs. Nellie Carter, Mrs. Mae Ankeny, Mrs. Edith Eschle, Mrs. Bertha Richardson of Los Angeles, Miss Emma Lou Myers and Miss Virginia Myers.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Members of the Presbyterian church Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. James A. Perry and Mrs. David Shiel as hostesses for the affair.

Mrs. E. N. Pearson and Mrs. W. R. Boyd are in charge of a program which will include China and the missionary work done there by the church. Mrs. D. V. Haight, wife of the Presbyterian minister, is expected to discuss briefly a few of her experiences in China during the period she served as a missionary.

There will be several musical numbers during the afternoon.

THURSDAY CLUB WITH MRS. NOEL

Mrs. Paul Noel was hostess on Thursday evening to members of her bridge club. Miss Clara Calkins was a guest.

Members present included Mesdames Floyd McMillan, John M. Glover, Paul Dalton, John Houston, Rex LaPrarie and Miss Elma Jenson and the hostess, Mrs. Noel.

PINOCHLE CLUB AT BATHIAN HOME

Members of the Pinochle club enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bathian Wednesday evening. Three tables were in play.

NO HOST AFFAIR AT CLAUD DAVIS HOME THURSDAY

A no host affair was one of the interesting features of the week when Mr. and Mrs. Claud Davis entertained for a group at their home on Eldorado street.

Dinner was served around a prettily appointed table with centerpiece of sweet peas and snapdragons.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Eller, Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schaupp and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Davis.

Following dinner the guests enjoyed several hours of dancing at the formal opening of the Winter Garden.

P. T. A. MEETS AT FAIRVIEW

Members of the Parent-Teacher association enjoyed a meeting in the Fairview school Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Americanization and customs as the topic.

Don Fisher of the high school, who has conducted the classes in Americanization for the American Legion, spoke on that subject in a most instructive manner.

Proper display of the flag was shown by Mrs. Charles Price.

Children of the second grade gave the flag salute, while those of the third and fourth grades recited the American Creed.

An exercise of George Washington was given by Jack Vaughn, student of Fairview school.

Big Uncle Sam and Little Uncle Sam were portrayed by Jimmy Hadman and Everett Sherman.

Refreshments were served by mothers of the third grade children.

LEAVE FOR NORTHERN POINTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. Wilbur Jones left Thursday from Klamath Falls for Portland, where they will spend the week-end.

Mrs. Wattenburg and Mrs. Jones will attend, as representatives of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, the state board meeting of D. A. R.

They will have an interesting report to make to the Klamath group upon their return here early in the week.

MARGARET WORDEN COMPLIMENTED AT EVENING THURSDAY

Miss Margaret Worden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worden, one of the most attractive of the spring bride-elects, was complimented on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Z. Howard, when Mrs. Howard and Miss Loretta Jennings shared courtesies as hostesses.

Members of Miss Worden's bridge club were guests.

Rooms of the Howard home were especially lovely in arrangements of dainty snapdragons and freesias in baskets of blue and lavender.

Guests included Miss Worden and Mesdames George Auxier Myers, J. M. Bedford, Dorothy Dammun, Lynn P. Sabin, Avis McConnell, E. G. Wisner, Charles Martin, George Stevenson and the Mesdames Maybelle Leavitt, Clara Calkins, Virginia West, Lelane West, Rachel Cronquist, Jean Perry and the hostesses, Mrs. Howard and Miss Jennings.

DINNER PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

A group of the younger set were bidden to a prettily appointed dinner followed by music and cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch, when their daughter, Miss Esther Veatch, entertained for Dean Beckley and Wayne Harris, who left early Sunday morning for San Francisco and Los Angeles for an extended motor trip.

The centerpiece of the charmingly arranged table was a cluster of sweet peas, ferns and freesias.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bradley, Miss Norma Dodge, Miss Lorraine Mordoff, Miss Esther Veatch, Dean Beckley, Wayne Harris, Gilbert Fleet and Don Veatch.

MAH JONGG CLUB WITH MRS. PIKE

Mrs. E. H. Pike of Pelican City entertained on Wednesday afternoon for members of the Mah Jongg club.

Mrs. Del Gammon was awarded high score of the afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Laum will entertain for the club at her home at Modoc Point, overlooking the Upper Klamath lake, in a fortnight.
