

CITY BRIEFS

From Malin—Miss Camille Klueker and Miss Beth Kirkpatrick, both high school students of Malin, spent a few hours in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon enroute to Chiloquin where they attended the Malin-Chiloquin basketball game.

Returns From North—Mrs. Wilbur Jones and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg have returned to their homes in Klamath Falls following an eight days' trip in Portland and other points north. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Wattenburg, representing Eulalia chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, attended the annual state board meeting in Portland.

Returns South—Mrs. J. R. Lake, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Olympia, Portland, Oregon City and other points since December, returned to her home in Klamath Falls Thursday. Her husband, who also spent the holidays north, returned before the first of the year leaving Mrs. Lake to enjoy a visit with relatives.

On Vacation—Friends of Mrs. Sarah Phillips and Mrs. W. S. Slough will be interested to learn that they left Thursday morning for southern California, where they will enjoy a month's vacation with friends. Mrs. Slough will return north, but Mrs. Phillips plans to enjoy an extensive visit in California with old friends and relatives.

Home From Valley—Miss Margaret Hargus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, has returned to Klamath Falls from Ashland where she has spent the past six months attending the Southern Oregon Normal school. Miss Hargus will be employed at the new library when it is formally opened. She was with the old city library for some time before leaving for school.

Employed in Store—Mrs. E. D. Trulove has accepted a position at the Golden Rule store in the piece goods department. She took up her duties the early part of the week.

Home From Portland—E. S. Veatch and son Don, Perry O. DeLap, and "Skinny" McMillan, have returned to Klamath Falls from Portland, where they represented the Klamath Falls Elks lodge at the reception for the national exalted ruler who stopped in Portland on an official visit. Elks lodges from all over the entire state were represented in Portland to tender a welcome to the national ruler. Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Olds, who spent some time in Portland, also have returned from the north. Olds is the exalted ruler of Klamath lodge.

Promoted to Captain—Basil Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown of Williamson River, has been promoted to the rank of captain at Hills Military academy, according to word received this week by his parents. Brown held rank of first lieutenant when here but shortly after his return north obtained his promotion.

Home From South—Mrs. Pleas Brown of Merrill, who has spent the past few days in the south, has returned to her home in the valley. She visited here for a short time yesterday.

Shopping in Klamath—Mrs. O. L. Brown was shopping in Klamath Falls yesterday and visiting with friends from her home on Williamson River.

Roads Poor—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson and son Richard drove into Klamath Falls yesterday from their ranch home near Keno, and reported the roads in bad condition. They were mired for two hours in deep ruts on the road between Worden and Keno.

Elks Dance—Scores of Elks and their guests enjoyed the first annual Bowlers' ball last night in the Elks' temple when the teams were hosts. A number of dinner parties preceded the dance and the affair was one of the most successful of this season's Elks dances.

To Leave Soon—Mrs. J. R. Hershberger is leaving soon for southern California where she will spend several months visiting friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Francisco. Hershberger will join his wife and later spend a short time on the coast before they return home.

Gordon Improves—J. A. Gordon was able to be at his desk for a short time yesterday at the First National bank, following an illness of several days from influenza.

Mrs. Conway Home—Mrs. J. D. Conway and daughter, Beverly, returned to their home in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon after spending the past three weeks in Long Beach and other southern points. They drove north with Mrs. Conway's father, Jesse Beckley, who has been visiting in California.

In From Merrill—Mrs. J. W. Taylor was in the city yesterday for a short time from her home in Merrill making plans for an extensive trip which will take her south.

New Member—E. J. Kolb, manager of the New City Laundry, is the newest member of Klamath county chamber of commerce, according to the bulletin board yesterday.

Register Cars—The following cars were registered at the Triple A desk, chamber of commerce, yesterday: George A. Prowse, California; J. L. Murphy of California, and Ed Bearden, of Yreka, California. All are in the city on business.

Building Permit—Ben Waldries was issued a permit for the construction of a $2960 house on Wantland avenue, the only one given out yesterday from the office of the city clerk, Lem L. Gaghagen.

Miss Wakeman Ill—Miss Edith Wakeman, teacher of Fremont school, was unable to be in the school room yesterday suffering from an attack of influenza. She became ill Thursday afternoon.

Delta Gamma—Announcement of the general meeting of Delta Gamma chapter, Delphian club, was made yesterday by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, supervisor. The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Hall hotel annex with Four Famous Romances as the subject. Mrs. J. S. Elliott will serve as courtesy hostess for the afternoon.

High School Dance—All high schools in the county will be amply represented tonight in the community hall at Henley when the first inter-state school dance is enjoyed.

Scores of students of Klamath county high school are planning to drive out to Henley this evening to spend the evening. There will be a social hour and reception from 8 o'clock until 9 o'clock before dancing, it was learned.

Mrs. Lamm to Entertain—Mrs. W. E. Lamm of Modoc Point will entertain on Wednesday of the coming week for members of the Mah Jongg club.

Returns From South—Charles Wood Eberlein has returned here after spending some time in the south. Mrs. Eberlein has remained in San Francisco to enjoy a number of musicals and operas to be given in the Bay city.

Ladies Aid—Mrs. H. E. Pelts will entertain for members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church at the Pelts home on Walnut street, Thursday afternoon. A most interesting gathering is scheduled for the afternoon as this is the first meeting of the year of the group.

Speaks to Children—W. A. West, Klamath Falls attorney, yesterday afternoon spoke to the upper grades of Fremont school on the subject of the week, savings. The discussion of the day was well received by the children and West's little talk enjoyed.
