UNIVERSITY WOMEN TO SPONSOR DANCE MARCH EIGHTEENTH

What stands out prominently on the calendar for the latter part of March is the dance sponsored under the direction of the Klamath Falls chapter of the American Association of University Women in Winter Garden March 18.

Final arrangements for the affair were made Thursday evening at Linkhaven when the committee met with Mrs. Avis McConnell, chairman. Other committee members are Mrs. George A. Myers, Mrs. Frank F. Moser and Miss Virginia West. Mrs. R. E. Geary and Mrs. William Ganong are in charge of the tickets which will go on sale Monday at the Peggy-Claire shop. They may also be obtained from individual members of the organization.

Patrons for the affair include men and women from various representative groups in Klamath Falls. Those who will serve are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg. Daughters of the American Revolution; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. P. Hill Hunter. Order of the Eastern Star; Mr. and Mrs. Syd Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier from P. E. O.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, and Dr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Rea from the Library club; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Glover and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dixon, Business and Professional Women's club.

As the affair follows St. Patrick's Day, the spirit of Ireland's patron saint will still prevail and the committee has arranged for several Irish dances during the evening. Members of the chamber of commerce quartet will sing.

REPORT FUNDS TAKEN AT BALL

Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at their meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Fred Schallcock, were interested to learn that they had cleared $139 on their annual Colonial Ball, February 22, with receipts at the door totaling $250.

The funds will be used to purchase the marker at the old stone bridge below Merrill commemorating the southern gate through which pioneers came into the southern Oregon country.

The registrar, Mrs. Fred Glover, reported the name of Miss Evelyn Applegate, great granddaughter of Daniel Applegate, soldier of the Revolution, had been added to the list of Eulalona chapter. Mrs. Allan Sloan, in absence of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, read a paper on Colonial Music which Mrs. Zumwalt had prepared. Mrs. A. J. Vove, accompanied by Miss Betty Ramsby, sang a number of patriotic songs.

OFFICERS OF JUNIOR C. E.

Officers of the Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church which embraces boys and girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the city, elected officers Monday afternoon at four o'clock with Frank Drew named as president.

Miss Emmelou Telford was elected vice president, Miss Audrey O'Neill, secretary, and Robert Smith, treasurer.

Mrs. D. N. Clemens is advisor for the group in which there are now 25 enrolled.

TO ORGANIZE HISTORICAL GROUP

On Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the organization of the American Revolution, will be formally organized at the home of Mrs. Emma Mills on north Fourth street. This is the first group of the national organization, to be granted in southern Oregon and Mrs. Mills received her appointment as organizing president from the national society in Washington, D. C.

Children in Klamath Falls who have qualified for the society are Athen Moore, Lawrence Moore, Orin Lee Moore, Mary Viola Cramblitt, Fred Glover, Calvin Hunt, Donald Hunt, Robert Hunt, Wilbur Jones, Rosemary Sloan, Marian Telford and Mary Thomas.

MRS. KENNETT HONORED MONDAY

Mrs. Wilbur Kennett was complimented Monday evening at her home in the McCarthy apartments when women of Moe's store honored her with a shower.

Mrs. Kennett was Mrs. Goldie Miller before her marriage a short time ago and an employe of the store. Those who called Monday night were Mesdames Grace Stewart, Wyma Brotherton, J. H. Hamilton, Carl Wimer, Sydney Abbott, Ed Propst, A. G. Meisner, W. O. Hardberger, H. N. Moe, and the Misses Olive Wilson, Vera Eitrem and Lillian Seefeld.

P. T. A. ALTAMONT TO MEET TUESDAY

Members of Altamont Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school building for a meeting that is demanding a great deal of attention.

There will be a brief program given by the school children.

DELIGHTFUL TEA SPRING EVENT IN LIBRARY FRIDAY

The very breath of spring was incarnate in the tea given Friday afternoon in the new library club rooms when the Library club entertained at its first affair since the formal dedication of the building.

A glass basket on the tea table held daffodils and yellow candles on either side, with yellow tulle streamers completed the lovely arrangement of the tea table.

A glass bowl of daffodils on the mantle piece with silver candle sticks holding tall yellow tapers lent a charm as did a beautiful basket of roses and spring flowers on the piano.

In the receiving line stood the committee, Mrs. Horace T. Bridgeford, chairman, Mrs. H. F. Murdoch, Mrs. H. E. Homyer and Mrs. Fred C. Murphy.

Those who poured during the hours from two o'clock until five o'clock included the following gracious hostesses: Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, president of the Library club; Mrs. Harry E. Peltz, Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. J. Fred Goeller, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Frank Ankeny, Mrs. Fred Schallcock, Mrs. Claude Daggott and Mrs. Jackson F. Kimball.

Assisting about the rooms was Mrs. R. E. Geary, Mrs. Del Gammon, Mrs. T. Pearson Henderson, Mrs. Bernard J. Rea and Mrs. Edward Hall Pike.

A delightfully arranged musical program was heard at four o'clock. Mrs. A. J. Vove, accompanied by Miss Betty Ramsby, sang "Mattiota" by Ruggiero Leoncavallo, and "Ah Though the Silver Moon Were Mine," by Hermann Lohr, and "Down in the Forest," by Landon Ronald.

Mrs. William Lorenz sang later, "The Rose Enslaves the Nightingale," Rimsky-Korsakoff, and "My Little Bateau," Strickland. Mrs. Osmond J. Hauge accompanied her.

MRS. ROBERTSON REVIEWS BOOK

One of the most interesting book reviews given during the past year before the book department of the Library club was heard Monday afternoon when Mrs. W. H. Robertson gave her version and impressions gathered from reading Ellen Glasgow's novel of the new south, "The Romantic Comedians."

Mrs. Robertson had read the book carefully and well and chose parts of the book that would give her audience a clear insight into the real characters as they were depicted from the pen of Ellen Glasgow.

There were 20 members present at the meeting which was conducted in the new library club rooms.

Mrs. Del Gammon is in charge of the book department during the absence of Mrs. Thomas White Deltzell who is visiting several months in the south with her mother.

JOLLY NEIGHBORS MEET ON WEDNESDAY

One of the busiest and most interesting sessions of the Jolly Neighbors club was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dave Kalor on the Merrill route.

Thirty-five women were guests of Mrs. Kalor during the day when sewing and music passed the hours away. A luncheon was served by Mrs. Kalor assisted by several of her guests.

Mrs. A. L. Paul of the Merrill route will entertain the Jolly Neighbors club the first Wednesday in April.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE TO OPEN TUESDAY

A membership drive which will include all mothers, wives and sisters of ex-service men who served with the American Expeditionary Forces in France in the years 1917 and 1918, will be opened Tuesday evening by the American Legion Auxiliary it was recently announced.

Mrs. Pearl Barth is chairman of the publicity committee and is urging all those eligible to membership to make themselves known. The meeting Tuesday evening will be called at 8 o'clock in the court house in the rooms now occupied by the Boy Scouts.

TWENTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN TUESDAY

The twenty-eighth anniversary of Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was observed Tuesday evening in the Masonic Hall, when members of the Past Matrons club provided the entertainment and arranged for the banquet which followed the evening.

Just exactly 28 years ago Tuesday, March the eighth, a handful of women organized Aloha chapter soon after the Masonic lodge was granted a charter here. Of that group of charter members only Mrs. L. F. Willis and Mrs. Frank Ward remain in Klamath Falls. Both took prominent parts in the birthday anniversary Tuesday evening with Mrs. Willis cutting the huge, gaily frosted birthday cake, and Mrs. Ward reviewing the work of Aloha chapter and its growth from a few to 250 members.

In discussing the origin of the club and the years that followed, Mrs. Ward told of Mrs. Jennie E. Heams, first worthy matron of Aloha chapter and those who followed her in order that now compose the Past Matrons club.

Over 300 were present at the annual banquet. The entertainment committee is composed of Mrs. W. C. Van Emon, Mrs. H. G. Wortley and Mrs. Oscar Peyton, banquet, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. H. F. Murdock, Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Jennie Hurn.

HENLEY P. T. A. PRESENTS PLAY

The following play, "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," was presented last week-end by members of the Parent-Teacher association of the Henley school.

The first act took place in Mrs. Briggs' cottage. The second act in the cottage six weeks later, and the third act ends with prosperity reigning in the Briggs' home.

Between acts there were four minor presentations given with excellent characterization including "A Dutch Love Scene," "Comin' Thro' the Rye," a feature by one of the cast and "Reuben and Rachel." Following are the characters:

Mrs. Briggs Kate Hilyard
Her Family—
Ralph A. Haley
Jimmy W. Wobbles
Alvira Ester Haley
Melissa Grace Birk
Silas Green (a near relative)

Mr. Lee (a wealthy neighbor) L. L. Meyers
Virginia Lee (his daughter) Lois Heselino

Daisy Thornton (Virginia's friend) Esther Haley
Mrs. O'Connor (with no liking for goats) Sally Harshberger
Mandy Bates (whose tongue will stumble) Georgia Booth

MRS. MARTIN IS HONORED AT PARTY

For the pleasure of Mrs. S. E. Martin, Mrs. Charles Martin entertained recently at a prettily appointed bridge luncheon at her home on Washington street.

Mrs. Martin is visiting here from Oakland, California, and has been entertained upon numerous occasions by her many friends in Klamath Falls.

GUESTS DINE AT LINKHAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Albertson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Moe and Mrs. Lindsey Sisemore of Fort Klamath were dinner guests at Linkhaven Friday evening.

CONFERENCE TO BE ATTENDED BY MANY OF D. A. R.

Klamath Falls will be well represented at the annual state conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, when that historical body meets March 24, 25 and 26 in Corvallis on Oregon Agricultural college campus.

Among those who will make the trip north is Mrs. Wilbur Jones, regent of Eulalona chapter of Klamath Falls, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, vice regent of the state of Oregon, Mrs. O. H. Harshberger, past regent of the state of California, Mrs. Fred Schallcock, Mrs. Emma Mills, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Harry M. Ackley, and Mrs. A. J. Vove, all interested in the work of the organization in this city.

An interesting phase of the meeting will be the presence of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery who organized the order in Oregon. She is a resident of Portland and has attended every conference since the first was held in Portland in 1914. A monument was unveiled to her recently in Portland. It was learned here.

Included in work of Daughters of the American Revolution in Klamath Falls is the formal dedication of the stone bridge at Lost river which marks a famous historical spot in Klamath county. Daughters of Eulalona chapter announced that the dedication will take place early in June, commemorating for all time the entry gate into the southern Oregon country of those staunch old pioneers, among them the Applegate and Rose families.

A committee made up of Mrs. Rachel Applegate Solomon, Mrs. D. V. Kaykendall and Miss Evelyn Applegate has been appointed to serve on a board to make arrangements for the services.

Funds for the marker were obtained through receipts of the annual Colonial Ball given February 22, Washington's birthday, at Altamont.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB WITH MRS. BECK

Mrs. W. E. Beck was a charming hostess on Tuesday afternoon to members of her club, Happy Hour, when she entertained from two o'clock until five o'clock at her home on Lewis street.

Red carnations in tall glass vases were used about the rooms. Assisting Mrs. Beck were three of her guests, Mrs. Curtis Smith, Mrs. L. McClure and Mrs. Mary Zachariah.

Mrs. R. A. Emmitt will entertain the guests in a fortnight. Mrs. Beck's guests included Mrs. C. H. House, Mrs. Curtis Smith, Mrs. L. J. McClure, Mrs. Leslie Stearns, and Mrs. Mary Zachariah.

Members present included Mesdames Paul Johnson, R. A. Emmitt, W. D. Cofer, E. Jones, Rinehart Motschenbacher, Sam Summers, Ed Lawrence and W. J. Steinmetz.

TRY CLUB WITH REV. AND MRS. HAIGHT

Members of the Try club were feted Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. V. Haight on Second street at an informal evening and supper.

Rev. and Mrs. Haight have taken an interest in the group that was organized by Mrs. Arthur L. Rice, and since become one of the strongest of the youthful organizations in the Presbyterian church.

MAH JONGG CLUB WITH MRS. SHIVE

Mrs. Oscar Shive entertained at her home on North Ninth street for members of the Mah Jongg club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. O. Smith was awarded high score. Mrs. R. E. Geary will entertain her club in a fortnight.

TELL-A-BELLS ENJOY PARTY

Mrs. Nellie Carter, who is leaving soon for Portland, was the honor guest at a party given Thursday evening at the W. C. Compton home on Auburn street by members of the Tell-a-Bells club. Mrs. Carter also received a number of lovely gifts from the girls.

Pink and white color scheme was developed in the table decorations and about the living room.

Guests who honored Mrs. Carter included Mesdames George Barth, Lee Weber, Alice Moore, Cleone Stamper, Faye DeSpain, Gertrude Ludwig, Mae Deuno, Estler Gardner, Rose Mae, J. E. Burke, "Sunny" Strachar, Ina Goode, and the Misses Theda Baird, Stella DeRushia, Thelma Merritt, Alice Joann, Martha Shoemaker, Merle Myers, Bette Harrows.

ORIENTAL RUGS TO BE DISCUSSED AT LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library club will listen to a most interesting discussion of Oriental rugs when J. Atiyeh of Atiyeh Co., rug importers of Portland, speaks before the group on that fascinating subject Monday afternoon, March 21.

The meeting was announced at the tea for Monday, March 14, but this has been postponed one week. The instructive talk by Mr. Atiyeh will follow immediately the program of the music department.
