CHILOQUIN HI SCHOOL NOTES

By LAURA MAY PLUMLEIGH
News Correspondent

A three-act comedy has been chosen for the high school play and practice on it has begun under the direction of Miss Claire Dunn, English instructor at the high school. The play committee is considering the change of the title Bashful Mr. Bobbs and likely the play will be advertised under another title.

The cast is as follows:

Katherine Henderson, a fault-finding wife; Juanita Savage; Frederick Henderson, a henpecked husband; George Harris; Obadiah, a fresh country product; Gust Youngren; Francis Whitaker, an athletic girl; Crystal Beard; Rosalie Otis, a society bud; Rose Bridgewater; Mr. Robert Bobbs, the bashful one; Joe Crooks; Marston Bobbs, anything but bashful; Richard Hessler; Jean, the sweet little country girl; Agnes Stewart; Celesta Vanderpool, an actress; Laura May Plumleigh; Julie, her French maid from Paris, Kentucky; Meda Skene.

The under classmen sincerely missed the presence of the seniors who, accompanied by their class advisor, took a sneak day from school Friday.

A group of high school students gathered at the home of Margaret Benson Thursday night and made posters for the P. T. A. dance to be held at the Chilochin dance hall, April 29. After the "budding artists" had completed the pleasant task of poster making they gathered around the dining room table for a game of cards. Meda Skene, though she insisted that the Charleston is an "extinct as the dodo," finally consented to dance the aforesaid dance. At ten o'clock refreshments were served and the jolly group turned their steps homeward.

A church dinner was held at the club rooms Thursday evening. The dinner was served by members of the Ladies Aid society. Business plans for the coming year were made.

Word has been received here of the illness of Miss Olive Hill who is attending the Southern Oregon normal school. Mr. Hill motored to Ashland Thursday to visit with his daughter.

J. P. Harter had the misfortune of wrecking his car Wednesday evening. When returning from Malin he ran into a truck. Neither he or Mrs. Harter were injured but the front wheel was torn from the car.

Misses Thirza Anderson and Winifred Offield motored to Chilochin in the interests of the senior class. The play "Tweedles" will be given by the Merrill senior class at Chilochin Monday, April 18.

Mrs. M. A. Bowman was hostess Tuesday evening at a party for the Junior Christian Endeavor. The Endeavor has been recently reorganized with about 50 members.

ACTOR'S PARENT DIES
LOS ANGELES, April 12. (U.P.)—Frank Chaney, 76, father of Lon Chaney, motion picture actor died in a hospital here Tuesday.

Death followed an apoplectic stroke Saturday.

BONANZA

By FRANCIS J. BOWNE JR.
News Correspondent

The school carnival given here Saturday night was a big success in spite of the bad weather. There was a large attendance and all had an enjoyable time. The school took in about $95, a part of which was used to pay for the new Victrola which they purchased some time ago.

Fred Peterson, superintendent of schools visited the Bonanza school Friday, April 8.

Hazel R. McClellan, county health nurse, visited the Bonanza school Thursday, April 7.

The Bonanza school observed Arbor Day by a general clean-up of the school grounds and by making preparations for future planting.

There was a get-together meeting at the Bonanza gymnasium Friday evening, April 8, of the boy scouts, to determine the interest shown in the boy scout movement in Bonanza. Mr. Ely, scout executive of Klamath county, and Mr. Perkins, a business man of Klamath Falls, who is very much interested in boy scouts, were present. A large number from Langell valley attended. The scout executive was well pleased with the interest shown by the parents and other residents of the district.

James Luebke has purchased 49 acres three miles west of Bonanza on the Klamath Falls Lakeview highway.

George Sparretorn reports the sale of two 20 acre tracts, one to George Hartley and one to James J. Linzi. Hartley is a professional well driller and has had charge of the drilling of the Yonka Valley oil well the past few years. Linzi is from Hildebrand and has been in the logging business. The land is located about one-half mile east of Bonanza along the old Rly road.

The Langell valley irrigation board met Tuesday afternoon of this week to discuss land settlement.

A special meeting of the Bonanza community club was called Thursday evening.

Joseph Sparks sold his stock cattle, 90 head, to Jess Beckley of Klamath Falls, last week.

Horace Daniel, a past resident of this district is here from Modesto, Calif., visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Lytle.

James Luebke, Elsie Luebke, Alvin Olson, and Grace Lytle, Bonanza teachers were Klamath Falls visitors Saturday, April 9.

The regular city election of Bonanza was held Monday, April 4. Kenneth Bold succeeded J. O. Hamaker as mayor. J. E. Scott and Claud Dayton were reelected to the council while William Woods, William Beckholt, and Dan Gregory replaced P. W. Broadward, J. L. Sparretorn, and H. J. Hickman. This is practically the same board as controlled the city two years ago.

GEORGE WALSH IS AGAIN AT ORPHEUS

George Walsh is again to be seen at the Orpheus theatre in one of his stirring, dynamic roles of intense action "Striving for Fortune."

In his character of Tom Sheridan he is the embodiment of the type so many modern magazines take for their hero's character; the upstanding young chap who by dint of honest, hard work becomes an amazingly successful man.

In "Striving for Fortune" Tom Sheridan, as played by George Walsh, is seen as a worker in a shipyard. A great project is under way there and its success is threatened by a succession of mishaps.

LANGELL VALLEY

(By MRS. LEVI McDONALD)
News Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kilgore made a business trip to Klamath Falls Friday, returning to their ranch the same day.

Everett Malone and Jack Sullivan came over from Tale Lake Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift of the Lorella section spent Sunday at the McDonald ranch visiting.

Mrs. Alma Glacier, teacher of the Langell valley school moved to the Oscar Campbell ranch Friday evening to spend the week-end with the Campbells and her sister who is teaching at Lorella.

Master Robert Pepple attended the meeting at Bonanza Friday night, which was given for the boys of the surrounding sections of Bonanza.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Oscar Campbell Thursday afternoon. Those present were Messames Gilman, Dave Turner, John Turner, W. D. Campbell, A. Keller, Jesse Walker, C. Walker, P. Pepple, Loomis, H. Ticknor, Hopkins, Gale, Paul Monroe, Edna Conley, Gene Kilker, all enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Hazel Turner visited at the John Turner ranch Friday for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald motored to Bonanza Saturday to buy ranch supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner motored to Klamath Falls Saturday to transact business and shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Ticknor of this section plan on making a business trip to Klamath Falls Saturday, where they will spend the day.

Mrs. M. Sewald motored to Klamath Falls Friday to attend to matters of business, returning the same day.

The county road supervisor made a trip around Langell valley Friday, expecting to return to his home near Klamath Falls the same day, but found it pretty slow traveling in low gear on account of deep ruts and washouts for about 30 miles of this trip in the upper section of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Blisoff motored to Bonanza Friday evening to attend the boy scout banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Keller and son Billy were among the many who motored to Bonanza to attend a meeting at Bonanza Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wealing made a business trip to the John Turner ranch Monday. Mr. Wealing has leased 40 acres of land for planting potatoes this year of Mr. Turner.

The Community club will meet at the club room at lower Langell valley Saturday night. A large crowd is expected and the committee always serve good cake and coffee.

Lloyd Pepple has recovered from an attack of the flu after several days confinement to his home.

Friends of Miss Helen Turner will be glad to hear she is able to attend school after a few days confinement to her home suffering from influenza.

George Partrich moved his household goods to a ranch he recently bought, which is known as the Walter Broadward ranch. His brother accompanied him back from California, saying he was going to move his family here as soon as the weather would permit. They also shipped a bunch of thoroughbred horses to his ranch. He is very much encouraged over this valley, saying before summer is over Owens valley families are expecting to be in this section of the country to buy land for homes.

Fred Hilton is putting Paige wire fencing around his ranch, preparing to pasture a herd of goats, also a bunch of lambs.

Mrs. M. Sewald made a business trip to Lorella Thursday.

Levi McDonald is building a large double garage on the McDonald ranch in upper Langell valley, which will be completed soon.

Mrs. H. J. Ticknor called on Mrs. Walter Smith and sons Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Turner made a trip to Klamath Falls Saturday on business and to do some shopping.

Charles Collier, state engineer, Road Supervisor Spedel, and County Surveyor Jensen, made a trip around Langell valley looking over the road situation. It is hoped after seeing for themselves they will surely do something to better conditions.

CIRCULATION THAT DOESN'T COUNT

NAPA, Calif., April 12.—The managers of the Napa Daily Journal and Napa Daily Register and the police are looking for a man named A. L. Viensieux and $18 of newspaper money.

Viensieux appeared in the Journal office, took out a two months' subscription, paying for it with a $10 check, and receiving $9 in change. He repeated the procedure at the Register office. When the checks were presented at a local bank the publishers were told that there was no such account there.
