

CITY BRIEFS

Marriage License—Virgil Cleo Heavilin, 22, of Keno, and Miss Rose Cole, 15, Klamath Falls were issued a marriage license from the county clerk's office Wednesday. Miss Cole appeared with the consent of her parents due to her age.

Farmer In—L. W. Copeland, well known Fort Klamath farmer, was a business visitor for a few hours in Klamath Falls Wednesday. Copeland has a very optimistic outlook for conditions in the Wood River valley for 1927 he told friends.

Arnold Here—L. D. Arnold, superintendent of Klamath Indian Agency reservation, has returned from a business trip which took him to Washington, D. C., and was in Klamath Falls yesterday for a short time.

Home from South—Bill Dalton, well known Malin country rancher, has recently returned from a business visit which took him to Sacramento, Oakland and San Francisco, where he spent much time looking into affairs for Klamath county chamber of commerce.

Collins Improved—Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Collins, who have suffered from an attack of ptomaine poisoning as the result of eating canned meats, are improved and taken to their home from Klamath Valley hospital. They were not in serious condition.

Delphian Club—Announcement was made Wednesday of the Delphian meeting which will be the general chapter meet of the organization, Delta Gamma chapter. The subject, according to Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, supervisor, will be "The Renaissance in France." Miss Marie McMillan will be courtesy hostess for the afternoon. Mrs. W. O. Smith will review "The New Japanese Womanhood." Allen K. Faust. The meeting will be held in the Hotel Hall Annex.

Duncan Home—William M. Duncan, district attorney, returned to Klamath Falls late Wednesday afternoon after being absent the early part of the week in Portland where he looked into legal affairs for the Klamath office.

Fishing Tuesday—No fish but a good time was reported by E. S. Veatch of the Klamath County Abstract company who spent Tuesday fishing on Rock Creek. Veatch took his young son, Bobby Veatch, and Dick and Bob Cobbin on the trip.

Merrill Visitor—Bob Adams, well known rancher of the Merrill district, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls for a short time Wednesday afternoon.

Visits Here—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bailey, well known residents of the Merrill country where they reside, spent Wednesday visiting friends and shopping in Klamath Falls.

Entertains—Mrs. Mollie Belding entertained at a pretty informal affair at the L. E. Willis home on Klamath avenue and Fifth street Wednesday afternoon.

Visit Here—Miss Nellie Cheyne and Miss Alice Cheyne, well known young girls of the Merrill country, spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls on business, visiting friends and shopping.

Sleep Wednesday—Mrs. A. R. Cheyne, accompanied by Mrs. D. Stukel, were among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls Wednesday from their ranch homes in the Merrill district. With the advent of warmer weather and dry conditions many ranchers who found it difficult to make frequent trips to Klamath Falls are driving in almost daily to attend neglected business affairs.

Visiting Here—Mrs. William Maguire of the Pelican Bay Lumber company camp where her husband is an official, and Mrs. Sullivan, also of the camp, were visitors for some time in Klamath Falls this week. They will return this evening to Kirk.

Attends Luncheon—Wilson Coffee, lumber broker of Eugene, is among the out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls during the past few days. Coffee attended the forum luncheon of the chamber of commerce as the guest of F. Ray Dunn, Wednesday.

Recovers from Illness—Mrs. J. R. Hershberger is recovering from a slight attack of measles which confined her to her home for the past few days.

Entertain Guests—Two members of the Altamont orchestra under the direction of Hal Blackburn, appeared in two individual numbers at the forum luncheon of Klamath county chamber of commerce Wednesday noon. The chamber is appreciative of the entertainment granted by the orchestra from time to time.

Justice In—J. O. Hamaker, justice of the peace of Boganza, was a business visitor for a short time in Klamath Falls.

Luncheon Visitors—Among the interested visitors at the chamber of commerce Wednesday were members of the union high school board, District No. 7. They included W. C. Ezell of the Summers district, B. J. Lottsguard, Algoma district, Louis Botens of Plevna, and the two Klamath Falls representatives, C. H. Underwood, and Leslie Rogers, chairman.

Leaves for North—Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Olds and Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt are leaving this morning for the Rotary convention to be held in Tacoma this week-end. Mrs. Olds has been asked to sing at the affair and Mrs. Zumwalt will accompany her.

Henley Visitor—Mrs. Elsie Leming, who teaches in the grades and high school of the Henley school, spent Tuesday afternoon in Klamath Falls visiting at the office of Fred Peterson, superintendent.

Decorate Rooms—The county clerk's room is submitting to drastic changes with the furniture moved about and the walls kalsomined and freshened by painters. According to F. R. Goddard, county judge, the county court room, whose walls bear evidence of eras who chose the walls upon which to strike their matches or to lean with soiled hands, will soon be redecorated and the walls kalsomined.

of the residents of that community and the school children as well. A few days of sunshine and no rain put the roads in a passable condition and made the trip feasible.

To Return South—Miss Alice Miller, who has been visiting her father, J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific in Klamath Falls, plans to return to her home this week-end in San Francisco. Miss Miller has been in training for some time in St. Francis hospital and will be graduated from that institution this summer. Other Klamath Falls girls in her class include Miss Denina Molatore and Miss Mildred Stevens.

Ride with Cal's Taxi to the Plumbers' ball at Altamont, Friday night.

RADIATOR AND FENDER WORKS

R. T. BALDWIN, PROP.

325 South Sixth Street
Phone 361-R

DON'T DRIVE A WRECKED CAR—WE ARE EXPERT MECHANICS

DO YOUR FEET HURT?

Have you weak or flat feet?
Have you Corns, Callouses, Ingrowing Nails, Warts or Bunions?

DR. J. M. INGALLS

Foot Specialist Registered Chiropodist

AT OUR STORE NEXT
Monday and Tuesday, April 25th and 26th

Dr. Ingalls has been in active practice in the State of Oregon for the past eight years with home office in the Morgan Bldg., Portland. We have him make our stores each month. This is a Buster Brown Service.

Buster Brown Shoe Store

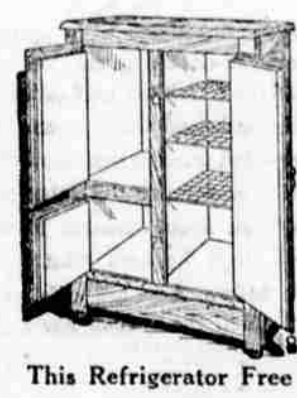

Free Examinations Arch Supports

SPECIAL PURCHASE SALE

STOVES
STOVES
STOVES

Two Carloads of Toledo Stoves $75

This Refrigerator Free

— JUST THINK —

WITH NO INCREASE IN THE PRICE OF THE TOLEDO RANGE—
BUT BECAUSE OF THE FACT THAT WE MUST CLEAR THESE STOVES IN A SHORT TIME

Beautiful Breakfast Set Free

WE ARE OFFERING FREE

Refrigerators—Radio Cabinets—Two 2x12 Felt Base Rugs—Mahogany Rockers—Beds—Springs—Your Choice of Patterns of Linoleum for a 9x12 Kitchen—See Our Windows For Free Gifts

MORDOFF FURNITURE HOUSE

Phone 16

"CHEERFUL-CREDIT"

719 Main