TRIO INDICTED FOR SELLING NEW YORK

MONTREAL, May 12.—(P)—Indictments were handed down today against Orrin Kellogg, former Wisconsin lawyer, his wife and brother, Chief W. K. Cornelius of the Iroquois, Indians, all of whom are charged with conspiracy and obtaining $15,000 under false pretenses from Indians of four Quebec and two Ontario reservations. They are accused of promoting a fraud to "sell the state of New York" back to the Indians. Bail originally fixed at $300 each was increased to $1,500. Their cases will come up in September.

WALLACE BEERY'S LATE ROLE FUNNY

In the hilarious comedy, "Casey at the Bat," which made its local bow at the Pine Tree yesterday, Wallace Beery signs a contract to play baseball for the old New York Giants and almost wrecks the entire league with his escapades.

Hailed as a "find," Beery, a small town junk dealer, enters the "big time." So popular does the red-headed brawler become that he soon emerges as the Babe Ruth of 1890. Funny as Beery was in "Behind the Front" and "We're in the Navy Now," he's even more humorous as baseball's famous "Casey."

The entire cast contributes much to the film's success. Ford Sterling gives a sterling characterization as a big league scout. ZaSu Pitts, the home town girl, is at her best and Sterling Holloway does his crafty plotting humorously. If "blues-chasing" ribbons are being distributed, this picture gets a handful.

FAMOUS GAMBLING DEN, PLAY SCENE

"Hell's Four Hundred," starring Margaret Livingston, which opened last night at the Liberty Theatre, has a very elaborate gambling scene in it. The set is an exact duplication of the celebrated Canfield gambling house which was the center of Broadway's sporting activity in the days when New York was "wide open."

Several highly dramatic scenes of this story, which is adapted from Vaughan Kester's novel, "The Just and Unjust," take place in the gambling room.

In the cast supporting Miss Livingston are Harrison Ford, Wallace McDonald, Henry Kolker, Marceline Day, Rodney Hildebrand and Amber Norman.

JACK DEMPSEY WILL FIGHT BASQUE SOON

NEW YORK, May 12. (U.P.)—Tex Rickard announces he has heard from Jack Dempsey and that the former heavyweight champ has accepted terms for a bout with Paolino Uscudun on July 9. If Dempsey defeats the Basque, he will be matched against the winner of the bout between Jack Starkey and Jimmy Maloney.

BURGLAR GETS $100

PENDLETON, May 12.—(P)—A burglar entering the laundry chute at the Troy laundry last night opened the safe combination, jimmied the inside door, and secured $100. Officials are following up fingerprint clues.

Circus Effect in Black and White

Black and white are necessary in the making of good cuts, and with a jet black horse and Betty Kenyon of the Al G. Barnes circus attired in white, the result is here shown.

Handsome horses and good looking girls form two of the many features of Al G. Barnes' circus, which exhibits in Klamath Falls, Monday, May 15. The management announces a roll call of 150 performing horses, headed by the $10,000 equine star, "San Marcus."

The new spectacular feature of the circus this year is entitled "Aladdin and the Parade of Gold."

GIRL DIES AFTER FASTING 49 DAYS

DENVER, Colo., May 12. (U.P.)—Irene Gimbel, 26 year old chiropractic student, who recently fasted for 59 days, died here tonight. Her death was due to pneumonia induced by the prolonged fast, physicians said.

Miss Gimbel undertook the fast believing it would help her gain weight. She had intended to go without food for only 10 days, but when she attempted to eat at the end of that time she became violently ill and it was 49 more days before she was able to take nourishment.

REAL COUNT PLAYS IN ORPHEUS FILM

A real Italian count plays the role of an Italian nobleman in "Perch of the Devil," King Baggot's big Universal production, which comes to the Orpheus Theatre today and Saturday.

He is Mario Carillo, who shortened his name from Caricullo for screen purposes, and in the picture plays the character of Marchese Valdonia.

Carillo, or Caricullo, has been in the picture colony for about three years, and in that time has advanced from obscurity to a steady and acknowledged position, recognized as a competent actor.

Before coming to Hollywood, he was on the stage in Italy and also did some picture work in Europe.

His family is a well-known and distinguished one in Rome, and Carillo holds titles and decorations from the most prominent courts of the continent. He was decorated for bravery during his service with the Italian army during the World War.

Which side of the bed is the wrong side

THAT'S a riddle most of us never trouble to answer. All we know is whether we hop out of bed feeling tip-top or crawl out feeling "low." But, even so, there's breakfast; and that's the time to let those "blues" go up in smoke—that fragrant wisp of smoke that curls up from your pot of M-J-B.

For M-J-B has a rousing good-morning flavor—a cheerio flavor that sets you right with the world. And it is this flavor that has made M-J-B stand for contentment—no matter how you make your coffee or how you drink it: strong, mild or in-between!

"The result of precision construction is long life and enduring good will"

So much has been said and written about the standards of accuracy to which the Greater Oakland Six is built that "Oakland super-precision" has become almost an everyday phrase. . . . But we wonder, sometimes, if the users of that phrase really appreciate its profound significance. Do they know that in the manufacture of the Oakland engine alone, thirty-three additional operations cannot vary more than three ten-thousandths of an inch? And that three ten-thousandths of an inch is one-thirtieth the thickness of an average human hair? . . . Yet, after all, what if they do not know it? All they are concerned with is results. . . . result of precision construction, which is long life and flawless operation. . . . the result of rigidly controlled quality, which is lasting owner satisfaction. . . . the result of enduring value, which is Oakland's enduring good will!
