At the Orpheus

Most Gibson's in town again! Writing, fighting heat, laughter and battling his way in and out of situations both comic and dangerous, is holding the screen of the Orpheus theatre this week in "The Denver Dude," his latest Universal-Jewell production.

"The Denver Dude" might easily prove to be the most popular picture the star has made in many a day, for although the others have set new high marks of popularity for him, "The Denver Dude" possesses all the qualities his previous productions have boasted and some added attractions that will give you new enjoyment and entertainment.

Following his lead of the past few years in breaking away from the conventional straight "western" story into the new path of comedy, Gibson and his director, Reaves Eason, have turned out a picture guaranteed to put you into laughter no matter in what tangled state your financial or marital affairs may happen to be.

In addition to the comedy element of the picture, Gibson is his old personality, too, with plenty of riding and fighting, in which he can hold his own with any luminary of the screen.

FINDS OREGONIAN OF ANCIENT ISSUE

Yellow with age and torn from handling, a Morning Oregonian published in August, 1867, was brought to The News office Wednesday by E. M. Burdick of Roseburg.

Going through an old cabin in the canyon west of Jackson, the paper, now 60 years of age was found with a number of other papers, among the same date.

Such prominent old names as J. B. Upton, Cyril B. Brackett, Attorney General Stanberry and Secretary McColloch are found in the worn pages.

At least three columns of the front page are devoted to advertising.

Henry L. Pitcock was proprietor of the paper at that time.

HENS SET RECORD

TULARE, CALIF., May 26, (UP)—Tulare hens set a new record during the month of April by laying 15 carloads of eggs, it was announced today. Although the price of eggs was lower than usual, the net financial return also was a record.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sniffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Adv.

Tex Will Try to Popularize Game

NEW YORK, May 26, (U.P.)—Hockey is to be somewhat curtailed in New York this coming winter, in favor of basketball.

Tex Rickard will have a five of his own—the Celtics—and the court game will be introduced on an impressive scale.

The schedule of the national professional hockey league is to be reduced from 44 games to 40, and a series of big basketball matches ballyhooed.

No one expects that basketball will have the appeal of hockey, but the difference in expense of production is considerable.

Colonel John Hammond, who runs the New York Rangers, the hockey club with which Tex Rickard and company put Bill Dwyer out of business last season, announced the proposed innovation. He admitted that it was in the nature of an experiment, but anyone who knows Rickard knows that he expects to make it a profitable one.

Even Mike McGuire cannot remember back to the time when Rickard lost money on a sporting proposition.

For the benefit of the experiment in popularizing basketball, it is fortunate that the joint rules committee rescinded its ruling against more than one bounce to a dribble. Not only would this rule inevitably have slowed up the game during its first season, but the professionals would have presented an awkward appearance endeavoring to adapt their customary rough dribbling to the new regulation.

As it was played last season, basketball has a good chance of winning a large following in New York, as it has in the middle west.

Fliers Again in Forest Service

The little band of former service aviators who annually patrol the great forest areas of the west to detect and aid in the fighting of fires will be on the job again this summer despite a shortage of planes.

The War Department, which for the last eight years has been furnishing the Forest Service with machines for this purpose, has found a way to get around a shortage and aid a distressed neighboring branch of the government.

As a result planes will be operated again this summer from Glendale and Sacramento, Calif.; Eugene, Ore., and Vancouver and Spokane, Wash., in an effort to cut down the $20,000,000 annual fire loss in the national and private forests.

Transporting fire fighting tools and supplies and dropping them where needed on the firing line, scouting of fires after severe electrical storms and during periods when smoke and haze obscure the forests from ground lookout stations and reconnaissance to determine where best to concentrate fire fighting forces are the chief duties of the forest air patrol.

Eight planes were used last year to protect the main forest regions of California, Oregon, Washington, northern Idaho and western Montana. From June to September, the season of greatest fire hazard, a total of 483 flights were made for a flying time of 1,002 hours. The cost of the work, carried on without a major crash or accident to personnel, amounted to $13,534.

Feet Helps Prima Donna in Singing

ATLANTA, May 26, (AP)—Louise Hunter, the prima donna, has learned that she sings with her feet as well as her voice!

While rehearsing at WSB, prior to broadcasting a radio concert, she complained the studio was oppressive—that she could not get "life" into her singing.

Whereupon the chief engineer suggested the deadening effect of the heavy carpets and draperies might be offset with a solid foundation. So he brought out a miniature platform, which had Miss Hunter smiling and joking again.

"Now I can feel myself singing," she said. "I never realized before my feet had anything to do with it."

Later, when Lambdin Kay was announcing the concert and commenting upon the star's voice, the radio audience heard a loud whisper interrupt:

"Might tell them about my feet, too!"

HEAVY FIGHTING BY CHINESE ARMIES

SHANGHAI, May 26, (AP)—A wireless dispatch from Hankow today said the number of wounded arriving from the Honan front indicated unusually heavy fighting.

Hankow Reds are reported to be conscripting one man in three as reinforcements for Honan. Troops are also being drafted to be sent to Wuchang because of the advance of General Hsia Tuo-Hin from the south and of General Yang Sen from the southwest.

Great uneasiness prevails in Hankow, where a run on the central China bank was only prevented by intervention of armed guards. The food shortage is acute and prices are soaring.
