Washington Sweeps In Rowing Honors

MADISON, Wis., June 18.—(AP)—Coach "Rusty" Callow's Washington university varsity and junior varsity crews made a clean sweep of their races today with the University of Wisconsin on Lake Mendota.

The junior varsity nosed out victory over the Badger freshmen eight in the first race, and the varsity repeated the performance in the second contest. Both were over a two-mile course.

The races were a workout for the Huskies, who are enroute to the annual regatta at Poughkeepsie, where the Wisconsin university will be represented by the freshmen crew.

At the Pine Tree

With the vast rugged valley of Jackson Hole, Wyoming, serving as one of the stages and the magnificent peaks of the Teton Range and the Shoshone Mountains for a background, "3 Bad Men" opens at the Pine Tree Theatre Sunday.

The place once made famous by Teton Jackson, notorious outlaw and horse thief, and his gang of desperadoes, after nearly sixty years, has at last been filmed, and many of their deeds of daring re-enacted on the very ground they once rode as masters.

"3 Bad Men" records that glamorous episode of American history, the opening of the Dakotas to the white man by free grants of land by the government.

At the Liberty

Monte Blue, as Dan Foster, engineer, epitomizes all that is fine, strong and loyal in the railroad man. His pride is that he is always in on schedule, that he can put bread in the mouths of his widowed sister's children, that he is in good standing with his employers and with the men of the Brotherhood.

That the speeding car of a joy-riding society girl should crash into his train, causing the first accident identified with his name, is a grief to him, but this is forgotten in pity for the girl. Pity turns easily into love, and before he knows it he is engaged to a girl whose mother comes to plead that she cannot stand poverty.

In the cast in support of Monte Blue are, Edna Murphy, Myrtle Stedman, Claire McDowell, Carroll Nye, William Demarest and J. W. Johnson. Howard Bretherton directed "The Black Diamond Express" which comes to the Liberty Theatre today (Sunday) for a run of two days.

Annual Salmon Run Starting in River

ASTORIA, Ore., June 18. (AP)—Fishermen in the Columbia river reported tonight that the run of blue-back salmon, expected for several days, had finally begun.

Catches today were augmented by this kind of fish, which is smaller than the Chinook salmon, but considered of equal quality. Tonight's sport in fishing is believed to be the vanguard of a big run that will enter the river within the next few days.

Fishermen are elated, as the catches of chinook have been poor ever since the season opened.

HYDROMEL WINNER OF AMERICAN RACE

CHICAGO, June 18.—(AP)—Hydromel, little chestnut colt that finished fourth in the Kentucky derby won the $25,000 American derby at Washington park this afternoon by five lengths, defeating four other crack three-year-olds, including Whiskery, the Kentucky derby winner.

Whiskery, the pride of Harry Payne Whitney's stable, finished last today.

Handy Mandy, the filly that had never won a race, finished second, with Buddy Bauer, the entry of E. R. Bradley, and winner of the $25,000 Fairmount derby, third.

Handy Mandy, owned by Hal Price Headley, a Kentucky turfman, made a courageous challenge, coming from behind during the long stretch run after the vaunted easterners, Whiskery and Dolan had faded, and beat Buddy Bauer out of second place by inches. The race over the punishing mile and a half route, was witnessed by a sweltering crowd of 25,000 to 40,000, and was run in record breaking time. Hydromel negotiated the distance in 2:29, breaking the track record of 2:30 1-5, hung up by Bont to Bont in winning the derby a year ago.

HOLDS GOLF LEAD

VICTORIA, B. C., June 18. (AP)—Curly Hueston, Seattle, retained his lead in the Pacific Northwest open golf tournament here today. His score at the end of the third round was 227. He scored 77 for his third round of 18 holes. Several players had yet to finish the round.

Pool Win Riches

Five poor persons, who purchased syndicate betting tickets, have won fortunes through the victory of Frank Curzon's "Call Boy," above, in England's great racing classic, the English Derby at Epsom Downs. The largest winner was John A. Kilpatrick, dental technician of Cape Town, South Africa, whose ticket paid $419,100 on a $4 "investment."

Grange Adopts an Advisory Ballot

CORVALLIS, June 18.—(AP)—An advisory ballot, setting forth the position of the state grange on each measure to be voted on at the special election June 28, was adopted by the grange as one of the final pieces of business as the 54th annual session closed at 2:55 this morning at Oregon Agricultural college.

Each measure was considered separately, seven being approved, four disapproved and one left without recommendation. The full ballot as acted upon follows:

Repeal of negro suffrage section, yes; Portland school district tax levy, yes; criminal information amendment, yes; legislature's pay amendment, yes; voters' registration amendment, no; state and county officers' salary amendment, yes; city and county consolidation amendment, no; veterans' memorial armory, no recommendation; state tax base rates, no; income tax bill, yes; assessment and tax enforcement bill, yes; Nestucca bay fish closing bill, no.

The vote of the delegates was almost unanimous on all recommendations except the registration and new tax base measures. On the former the division was nearly equal, and on the tax base, strong approval of the boost.

DRIVE FOR SCOUTS TO START TUESDAY

untary leadership of seven scoutmasters, three assistants, 21 troop committee men, 27 council members and eight on the executive board, the movement spread until on June 1, 1927, the council showed the following:

An enrollment of 219 scouts, an increase of nearly 100 per cent in one year's time; 13 scoutmasters; 15 assistant scoutmasters; four deputy scout commissioners; 53 council members, and 11 members of the executive board.

These men devote their services to the scout work entirely free of charge, in the interests of the boys. The scout council in this county has but one salaried officer, who acts as an executive, directing the work of the volunteer leadership to insure its effectiveness.

Those men who have enlisted under the banner of Youth and who will launch the campaign Tuesday morning, are: W. W. McNealy, F. R. Olds, George Canning, Fred Fleet, Thomas Ditzell, Percy Murray, T. S. Richardson, James Swanson, Walter West, J. F. Maguire, Jr., A. M. Collier, Howard Barnhise, William Houston, Dr. Bernard Rea, E. O. Nord, T. P. Henderson, Lee Jacobs, Edward Livingston, Bert C. Pirate Player Put Kayo on Brave S. S.

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—(AP)—A baseball feud of long standing between Dave Bancroft, manager of the Boston Nationals, and Earl Smith, Pittsburgh catcher, flared to white heat at Forbes field today when the husky Pirate backstop sent his fist crashing into Banny's jaw. Bancroft was knocked out by the blow. Three stitches were required to close the cut in his face.

Baseball experts said Bancroft and Smith had been at odds dating back to the days when the scrappy catcher was with the Braves. In the seventh inning of today's game between the Pirates and Boston, Bancroft came to bat and was given a walk. As he stroled to first, Bancroft halted and said something to Smith, who retorted. Later Banny scored. As he crossed the plate he halted and spoke to Umpire McCormick. It was the general belief that he complained about Smith's general attitude. Smith put in a hot sentence or two, while Banny and the arbiter stood at the plate. Then, as Bancroft turned toward Smith, the latter flung the catching mitt from his hand and shot his fist into the Boston manager's jaw.

Bancroft was carried from the field, and the Pirates' physician sowed the cut in his face. He then went to his hotel. Smith was banished from the game. Later Bancroft said Smith had been "riding" him for some time. Asked what he intended to do about today's incident, he replied:

"I'll put this thing up to President Heydler. Let him dispose of it."

The Smith-Bancroft clash caused a tense feeling on the field and resulted in several close calls. While Bancroft was being carried out, Smith and Coach Dick Rudolph of the Braves, came close to a clash. Smith started after Rudolph, but other players stepped between them.

The umpire, McCormick, Klem and McLoughlin, had a busy day keeping the would-be batters apart. They aided in quelling the clashes and said they would report to President Heydler.

OREGON GOLFER IN "BIRDIE" TROUBLE

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—Rudie Wilhelm, of Portland, amateur golf champion of Oregon, and now participating in the Pacific northwest championship tournament at Victoria, B. C., is in trouble with federal officials here because of two birdies.

He has been charged in federal court here with violation of the migratory bird act, in that he had in cold storage two dead mallard ducks more than 10 days after the close of the duck season January 15 last. After the discovery of the ducks by a federal game warden, Wilhelm signed a waiver of ownership transferring the ducks to the government.

PENDLETON SHOOTER WINS TRAP TROPHY

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—M. W. Hanel of Pendleton won the $1,000 Dayton Rod and Gun club medal and the Multnomah Rod and Gun club medal, valued at $1,000, in the first day of the forty-third annual tournament of the sportsmen's association of the northwest, yesterday.

At the Orpheus

Women, now protected from practically every harm which might befall them and who undergo practically no hardships, will find a lesson in "War Paint," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's initial western drama starring Col. Tim McCoy and shown at the Orpheus Theatre today, Monday and Tuesday.

Instead of the limousine, or touring car, of today they will see the dougherty, or army wagon of the early 'eighties when women of the West were never safe from Indian attacks on the white settlements.

Today the woman may assist her husband in driving off the attack of the modern wolf at the door but she does not have to go through the horrors and dangers of a siege by Indians, as did the wives and families of the army officers commanding the isolated garrisons along the western frontier.

New Twirler With Pelicans is Good

Consider the Pelicans, their phenomenal success in the Southern Oregon baseball league, and think as well of the new twirler recently drafted to the winning aggregation, a speed ball artist of large repute in Pacific coast sporting circles.

Lafayette Heulen by name, this gentleman with the deft fingers, mystifying wrist and powerful arm, came here from Eureka, Calif., to play an important part in the march of the Pelicans to league victory.

He has played two games with the local squad, and in each contest struck out 11 opposing, bewildered sluggers. Nor was this luck. Lafayette has done time—good time, well spent—with the San Francisco Seals, and a few seasons ago put in his stuff with the Brooklyn ball club.
