A. LEGION HOLDS INITIATION FOR WOMEN TUESDAY

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion met on Tuesday night for the last time before the declaration of the vacation period and for initiation of new members. After the business of the night was over a pleasant time was spent playing cards and refreshments were served to those present. Mrs. H. E. Getz was chairman for the affair. The initiates were: Mesdames Pearl Hoskings, Leta Abbey, Frieda McClure, Clara Crawford, Dorothy Krasman, Florence Ogle, Margaret Perry, Fern Smith, Lena Motschenbacher, Ruby Wisecarver, Violet Purdin, Margaret Shelton, Leola Hellbronner, Gladys Shelton, Veronica Vandenberg, Florence Rea, Grace Miller, Thelma Stukel, Alma Merritt, Mary Case, Laura Smith, Pauline Thompson, Myrtle McChesney and Pauline Moeller.

LAKES LURE FOLK OVER WEEK-END ON PLEASURE TRIPS

The outing season is about to break in full blossom and even at this early date many are taking advantage of the fine weather to pay fleeting visits to their, or their friends' summer cottages. Among those who spent this week-end at Diamond lake were: Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hiken, who drove to the lake the middle of the week for a few days' stay at the Alfred Collier cabin. Mr. and Mrs. Collier left Saturday with their two children for the lake for the purpose of joining Mr. and Mrs. Hiken and getting things in readiness for the summer months. Bert C. Thomas and E. S. Veach were others who made the trip in on Friday to the Thomas cabin. Miss Vera Thompson, her mother Mrs. Frank Frankfort, and Mrs. Gertrude Teague are enjoying a week's visit at Sunny Brook, the H. W. Poole summer home on the west side of Upper Klamath lake. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood were among those who drove to the Lake o' the Woods where they have cabins. Mayor and Mrs. T. B. Watters were also at their cabin at Lake o' the Woods.

METHODIST LADIES AID AT PELTZ HOME

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Peltz on Thursday afternoon. Arrangements were made for the cooked food sale to be held July 2, and other general business was taken up. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Guy Satterlee late in July. Those present this week were: Mesdames Mattie Burchett, W. A. Levins, Earl L. Hill, F. H. Cofer, E. C. Stuckey, J. Guysbers, C. Mater, M. C. Coseboom, W. J. Stelmets, F. L. Wimet, Everett O. Nord, W. T. Shockley, H. G. Wortley, M. E. Momyer, Lawrence Smith, C. E. Lindsay, H. B. Kirkpatrick, J. N. Guthrie, L. K. Phelps, B. R. Berry, A. Hammel, C. H. Barnstable and Miss Bertha Peltz.

D. A. R. DELEGATES TO ATTEND MEETING

A meeting of the state Daughters of the American Revolution will be held in Albany on Thursday, June 30. A number of the members of Eulalona chapter will attend the meeting from here. They will be: Mrs. Charles Martin, regent; Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, vice regent; Mrs. O. H. Harshbarger, past regent of California; Mrs. Wilbur Jones, past regent of Eulalona chapter and Mrs. Emma Lee Mills.

INFORMAL DINNER AT CLAUD DAVIS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Claud L. Davis were hosts Thursday night at a dinner in honor of Mrs. Robert Adams of Lakeview. Mrs. Adams has been visiting in Klamath Falls for the past week as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey.

A. A. U. W. HOLDS LAST MEETING OF SEASON

The A. A. U. W. at its meeting Monday night at Linkhaven heard papers on the association's journal read by Mrs. George Stevenson and Mrs. E. A. Mathews. This will be the last meeting of the year of the University women until September.

THE P. E. O. PICNIC HAS BEEN POSTPONED

The annual P. E. O. picnic which was to have been held this week-end has been postponed indefinitely. The Kiwanis picnic grounds had been chosen as the place for the gathering.

R. N. A. TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING MONDAY

There will be a meeting of the R. N. A. at 7:30 Monday night at the home of Mrs. Reginald, 73 High street. All Royal Neighbors are urged to be present as this is a special and very important meeting.

MISS SCHAEFFER IS HONORED AT SHOWER GIVEN BY AUNT

A charming affair of last week was the bridal shower on Thursday evening given by Mrs. H. A. Runde for her niece, Miss Bonita Schaeffer. Miss Schaeffer will be married July second to Mr. Edward Cross. The Runde home was decorated for the party, Thursday, with rose buds and ferns. The basket for the gifts was adorned with ribbons and dolls dressed to represent a bride and bridegroom; the score cards used for bridge also bore pictures of brides and flowers.

Mrs. John Siemens Jr., held high score and Mrs. Dan H. Crump received consolation score. Mrs. Runde was assisted by Mrs. Guy Eckwall, who is visiting here from Oakland, Calif., and by Mrs. Harry Hargrave. The guests were: Mesdames David Vandenberg, Carmel Miller, John Siemens Jr., Ben Mitchell, Emil Dreher, D. H. Chrump, Charles Hogue, Harry Hargrave, Guy Eckwall, The Misses Florence and Clara Elliott, Betty Ramsby, Grace Bennett, and Marie Davenport.

MISS BOWNESS WINS IN CHALLENGE MATCH

The Women's Auxiliary of the Reames Golf and Country club held a challenge tournament on Thursday starting at nine o'clock. Miss Margaret Bowness won the match with Mrs. Frank Bowness by 2 up. Mrs. E. H. Pike won over Mrs. Claud McCulloch by 3 up, and Mrs. Charles J. Roberts came in with high score over Mrs. John C. Boyle. Next week on Thursday the Auxiliary will hold a sandwich picnic at noon after the morning's play. The competitive tournament will begin at nine and players may choose their own partners. Any one desiring to play in the morning is urged to do so by Mrs. H. W. Bridgford, president of the organization.

LEGION CARD PARTY VERY SUCCESSFUL

The afternoon of bridge sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday was very much of a success as 19 tables were taken by matrons and maids of the city for themselves and friends. High score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. C. A. Dunn and the second prize was won by Mrs. T. R. Skillington.

The party was held in the American Legion Memorial building. Mrs. G. B. Cozad was chairman of the committee on arrangements, other members of the committee were Mrs. O. D. Mathews, Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Mrs. Lucile McMillan and Mrs. Glenn Jester.

CALVIN HUNT GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY FRIDAY

One of the interesting events of the week was the children's party at the Warren Hunt home on Pacific Terrace Friday afternoon. The seventh birthday of Master Calvin Hunt, oldest son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Hunt, was the inspiration for the event. Twenty-two of Calvin's little friends assisted at the celebration of his birthday. Games were played on the lawn and a sumptuous luncheon was also served on the lawn.

AUCTION BRIDGE CLUB AT LINKHAVEN WEDNESDAY

Mrs. W. E. Lamm was hostess for the Auction Bridge club Wednesday afternoon at Linkhaven. Three tables were in play during the afternoon and high score was made by Mrs. L. F. Willis. Mrs. Nelson Reed and her house guests, Mrs. Alfred Reed, were guests of Mrs. Lamm.

CELEBRATES SEVENTH BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Little Marjorie Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Baxter will celebrate her seventh birthday with a party at her home on Pacific Terrace. Twenty little friends will spend the afternoon playing games on the lawn.

The Mah-Jongg club will meet this coming Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John C. Boyle on Conger avenue. Bridge will be the diversion of the afternoon.

MRS. REHAND LEAVES AFTER BRIEF VISIT

Mrs. Jean Rehand, who has been here as the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Morris Johnson for the past week, returned Friday to her home in Berkeley, Calif.

HANDY MANDY WINS BIG LATONA DERBY

LATONIA, Ky., June 25.—(AP)—Handy Mandy, owned by Hal Price Hadley, won the Latonia derby here today. E. P. Cooleys Dolan, ridden by Jockey J. Callahan, was second, and E. H. McLean's War Eagle, ridden by Jockey N. Huff, was third. Time for the mile and half was 2:28 3-5. This is a new track record.

The purse was $24,350 to the winner. Jockey Earl Pool had the mount on the winner. The old record was 2:29 1-5.

I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife after June 24, 1927.

Bobby Jones Wins Race Against Time

NEW YORK, June 25.—(AP)—Bobby Jones won a race against time when he sailed today to defend his title as open golf champion of Great Britain. The titleholder reached New York less than two hours before noon, but he was on the Transylvania when the anchor liner put out at mid-day for Glasgow.

Joe Kirkwood, the Australian trick shot, who lives at Albany, Ga., came from Atlanta with the champion and also sailed on the Transylvania, but had only 11 minutes leeway, after a quick dash for passports and a visa.

Jones was accompanied by his father, Robert P. Jones, Atlanta lawyer, Stewart Maiden, Atlanta golf pro who taught Bobby how to swing a club, and two friends, C. E. Freeman and Sherwood Hurt.

The invasion of Great Britain was decided upon in Atlanta Wednesday.
