

Boys All Set For Fight Card Here Tuesday Evening

Everything is in readiness for the clash of padded gloves at the Legion Hall tonight when Pop Webster, Tacoma colored fighter, wags warlocks with Tim Callahan, an adopted son of Klamath. These boys will go 10 rounds as the main attraction of the feature card.

Callahan, who has never lost a scrap in Klamath, is trained down to fighting edge for his set with the Tacoma mauler, and promises his legion of friends to give a good account of himself. Webster's experience and soaking ability make him a favorite over the red-headed Irish lad, but it looks like a real battle as far as it goes.

Billy Austin and Pat McFadden are scheduled to trade hooks and jabs in a six-round semi-final. Austin is a flashy ringster but McFadden carries concentrated dynamite in either fist and may end this fight at any stage of the proceedings.

Kid Ryder and Dickey Williams will put the fans on edge with their six-round special event which promises more than usual glove-throwing action.

The first bout will start promptly at 8:30, with two prices prevailing, $1.65 and $2.20. Advance seat sales have been good but there are still plenty of good ring-side seats to be had.

Thrill Game Ends With Pelican Win

In the most thrilling game played on the home field this season, the Klamath Pelicans Sunday won the first tilt in the pennant series from the Ashland nine, with a score standing 8 to 7.

The thrills which brought a grandstand filled with enthusiastic fans to their feet, began in the ninth when the Ashland shortstop, Robbins, belted the pellet for a homer. Up until then the score had rested at four to two in Klamath's favor, and everybody on this end of the Klamath Falls-Ashland highway felt easy.

But Robbins' homer set the ball flying for the visitors, and at the end of the first half of the ninth, the score stood 7 to 1 for Ashland.

Then the Pelicans settled down to thrilling baseball, a climax which sent the fans home husky-voiced but happy. One hit after another featured the last half of that memorable ninth until with three men in home for counters, Mathews came in on Henion's grass clipper to an Ashland short who made a buny toss to first.

At the Pine Tree

A bright and breezy five-act program of vaudeville will hold the boards of the Pine Tree Theatre for Tuesday and Wednesday together with a picture feature of unusual interest.

Starting proceedings is Claude Burke, a young ventriloquist who has many novelties to unfold in the art of voice throwing.

A comedy Swedish oddity with Brown and Simmons as the principals is a neatly constructed offering of comedy and song. Miss Simmons offers a characterization of a scrub woman that is sure-fire for laughs.

The Roping Ace Jack Cavanaugh of big-time fame can do almost anything with the lariat. The canny Scot and wee Jimmy should cause roars of laughter with their merry persiflage and cute repartee.

The Skating Fiends, better known as the Whirling Duo, bring the show to a close with some daring feats on rollers concluding with a sensation feat of balancing never before attempted on the stage.

On the screen, "Matinee Ladies" featuring May McCoy, Malcolm McGregor and Hedda Hopper, a comedy of dancing mam-

Algoma Boys Win Tilt With Malin

While the Klamath Falls Pelicans were flying just out of reach of the Ashland Beas in this city Sunday, the crack Algoma nine was winning a baseball game which had evolved into a keen contest, from Malin, at Malin.

With the score standing 6 to 4 in the last half of the 10th inning, Algoma's short, Griffith, walked home with the bacon in the form of a homer. He was closely followed by Ward, Algoma's second baseman, who cracked out a three-bagger and then stole home for the eighth run which left the score standing 8 to 6 in the lumbermen's favor.

Batteries: Algoma, Lammo and Francis; Malin, Jackson, Street and Booth.

At the Liberty

That Robert Kane goes in for authenticity of atmosphere in his pictures was evidenced when he sent out invitations to prominent Tammany Hall leaders and members of the Harvard and Yale clubs to take part in his latest picture, "For the Love of Mike," which will bring an impressive cast to the Liberty Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday.

This Harvard-Yale regatta in "For the Love of Mike" was shot from a great many angles. Close-up of the race, with Skeets Gallagher sitting as coxswain of a crew attacked by Ben Lyon, were taken at the New Rochelle Rowing club course. The scenes showed Hugh Cameron, George Sidney, Fort Sterling and Claude Colburn cheering Ben from an observation train. The actual race was photographed by Joseph Boyce at New London when the famous regatta between Yale and Harvard took place.

Yes... in all four corners of the earth!

THE FOLLOWING IS QUOTED, BY PERMISSION, FROM A LETTER OF MR. A. J. BARKER, ST. LOUIS, DATED MAY 10th, 1927

"It will be, I have no doubt, a source of gratification to you to know that Chesterfield cigarettes were on sale and, at that, the leading American seller, in all parts of the world.

"We started our trip on December 2nd, and visited among other points—Madeira Island... Gibraltar... Monte Carlo... Algiers... Haifa... Jerusalem... Cairo... Naples... Suez... Bombay... Java... Dutch Sumatra... Singapore... Manila... Hongkong... Shanghai... Peking... Kobe... Tokyo... Honolulu... the Canal Zone... Havana and home.

"Not only was Chesterfield the leading American cigarette at all points visited, but it was the best seller (all brands) on our ship, the Empress of Scotland."
