DEATHS

MARTHA JAMISON. Martha Jamison, wife of Albus Jamison, passed away at her late residence on Prospect avenue at Sargent street, on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, following an illness of several weeks' duration. In addition to her husband she is survived by a son, Clarence A. Mitchell of Marsh-field, a daughter, Mrs. Edna Van Sickle of Martinez, California; two brothers, Joe Taylor of Olens and W. T. Taylor of the Olens Road. Mrs. Jamison was a native of Missouri and had reached the age of 65 years at the time of her passing. She has resided in this county for more than 50 years. The remains are in the lumber chamber of the Egan-Whitlock Funeral Home where friends may call. Funeral services have been set for Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Wom-ett officiating. Interment will be in Linkville cemetery.

Police Armed. Chicago police were on watch armed with machine guns, shot guns and tear bombs. Aurora L'Angelo, 18-year-old leader of two radical demonstrations, was again held by the police after having been released on bond. The chief of detectives reported that he had information that she planned a violent demonstration. Four men were arrested in Jersey City. One of them, police tion and public service facilities under heavy guard. They told for the most part of strike calls that received little response, of mass meetings animated but orderly which were dispersed in the main without trouble though a Pennsylvania state trooper was shot and killed in Acmetonia, Pa., and scores of Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers were arrested in various cities.

In New York City the entire force of 12,000 police was on duty and six companies of infantry and two machine gun companies, with wartime ammunition insurance, were held in reserve. Woman Arrested. In St. Louis police ejected a crowd of 100 persons who tried to hold a Sacco-Vanzetti memorial in the labor lyceum temple. One woman was arrested. One hundred and twenty-seven sympathizers were arrested in San Francisco as they passed the hall of justice. These arrests climaxed a day of unrest in which three demonstrations were blocked. Police rushed the first, a mass meeting, and prevented speakers from addressing the gathering.

Government buildings and residences of prominent officials in Washington remained under the protection of a large force of policemen and special guards.

How to Buy Food How to Prepare tempting Prices, Recipes for Ham Any housewife who has little time to plan her meals in sunny days, when the out-of-doors household duties offer distraction, will do well to consider convenience of ham. It is a food which can be prepared in any different and attractive way, each with a new flavor or a new appeal to the appetite. The fact that ham is now selling at exceptional levels makes its preparation all the more inviting. To begin with, there is baked ham which is tempting, not only it comes from the oven, but to, although different, equally tempting when served cold, sliced in sandwiches. Baked ham, when cold is always good sandwiches, salads and other warm weather dishes. The tested recipes which follow will enable the housewife to make effective and pleasing utilization of any meat that may be left over from a boiled or baked ham and add variety as well to a ways of serving ham. HAM ON TOAST 1 cup cooked ham, chopped. 1-2 teaspoon prepared mustard. 1-2 teaspoon pepper. 2 tablespoons butter. 2 eggs. Add the ham and seasoning to

Household Suggestions FUEL SAVERS To save the kitchen heat and cut down gas or electric bills get duplicate or triplicate saucers, pans, with covers that fit tightly. POPULAR SCREENS Three-fold screens are coming into popularity again. The smartest ones are neutral colored, with quaint prints decorating them. EGG STAINS Silver spoons or forks, used for eating eggs, should be rubbed with salt before washing, as egg stains will not come off with water. STENCILED RUGS Plain grass rugs can be stenciled to match the pattern on walls or furniture with the new washable paints on the market. ICE SAVINGS If you will wrap ice in several thicknesses of newspaper before putting in the box, you will find it will last much longer. FRUIT PANCAKES Pancakes, made larger than usual and rolled up with fresh applesauce or other sauce in them, make a fine supper dessert. SERVICEABLE BEAN-POT The old brown earthen bean-

Household Suggestions SET COLOR Add a half ounce of sugar of lead to a gallon of water and soak chintzes, ginghams and other colored cottons one hour to set the color. BERRY MUFFINS A cup of fresh blueberries, dredged in flour, added to a regular muffin recipe, sweetened slightly, makes appetizing muffins. SOUR CREAM Sour cream should be cherished. Dressing made from it is ideal for cucumber and other salads and, just seasoned, it is tasty on lettuce. SUPPER HAM A fine supper dish can be had by baking an inch thick slice of ham in milk, after it has been rubbed with a mixture of brown sugar, moistened with vinegar and a dash of mustard. NEW FLARES Paris fall styles make much of flaring skirts, flaring cuffs on sleeves and flaring jabot collars on coats for formal wear. PARASOL TRIMMING Sankekin has graduated into the realm of parasols. Colored silk ones take bandings of the skin and handle straps, to match purses.

Household Suggestions pot, if it has the usual spout, makes an ideal beverage pitcher because, once cooled, it stays that way. EGG DISH Diced hard-boiled eggs, surrounded by noodles and covered with white sauce, topped by ground peanuts, make an ideal baked dish for supper. MOULDY WEATHER Bread-boxes and cake-boxes can be kept sweeter in hot, damp weather that encourages mould, if they are lined with brown paper. VEGETABLE BOX The thrifty housewife will keep a covered box for fresh uncooked vegetables, as the air and heat wilt and toughen them. SWEETENED VEGETABLES All summer vegetables have a nicer taste if from one to four tablespoons of sugar is added to the boiling water. DELICIOUS CORN Pulverized dried mint leaves give an unusual flavor to meat sauces and salad dressings without definitely tasting like mint. FUR STORAGE If you have not stored your furs be sure that they have tur-

New Menus BY SISTER MARY. BREAKFAST—Baked apples, cereal, cream, crisp toast, codded eggs, milk, coffee. LUNCHEON—Vegetable chowder, toast sticks, stuffed celery, caramel custard, milk, tea. DINNER—Twice cooked lamb chops with lima beans, beet and cabbage salad, green-gage pie, whole wheat rolls, milk, coffee. One cup of boiling water is allowed for every egg to be "codded." The water should be boiling and the eggs carefully put into it without breaking the shell. As soon as the boiling point is reached cover the pan and remove from the fire. Let stand five minutes. Remove from from water and serve as usual. Eggs cooked this way are "jellied" through. The white will not be part liquid and part firm with the yolk just heated as in the average three-minute egg. Twice Cooked Lamb Chops. Six or eight lamb chops, 1 medium-sized onion, 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, 6 tablespoons butter, 1 cup chicken or veal stock, 1-2 cup flour, 1 cup milk and water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 egg yolks, 1

Fashion Hints OLD-TIME DRESS Reville, Ltd., London, is showing a new period evening frock of changeable green and silver taffeta that uses 13 yards of material. PAJAMA TRAIN Smartly feminine is a black satin and lace pajama suit that has a long lace train falling from its three-quarters lace jacket. NEW TUCKS Premet uses a new kind of tuck, tiny pin tucks in a fishbone design, to give novelty to the jumper of a faint rose-red kasha frock. HAIRLINE HAT The hair line turban in fine French felt promises to be popular for early fall. Brimmed hats take less width than summer ones. NOVEL COAT The black-white vogue is interpreted for winter in zebra fur, with the black and white stripes running cross-wise for the top of the coat and horizontal for the skirt portion.
