OAKS TURN TABLES ON SEATTLE REDMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21. (U. P.)—Oakland turned the tables on Seattle today and blanked the Indians 5 to 0. Daglia held Seattle to five hits.

Gardner let the Beavers down with only eight hits so scattered that Portland did not score after the first and Los Angeles won 6 to 2.

Hollerson who allowed San Francisco only 9 scattered hits, Hollywood batted the ball all over the lot for 15 hits and defeated the Seals 13 to 3.

Sacramento showed over a winning tally in the last half of the ninth and defeated the Missions 5 to 4.

WEBFOOTS TO PLAY LINFIELD SATURDAY

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Sept. 21. (Special)—Possibilities of the Oregon football team for this fall will be shown here Saturday when the Webfoots meet the Linfield college eleven in the opening game of the season. Oregon is conceded the advantage over the Linfield team.

However, Captain John J. McEwan, Oregon coach, is not desirous of running up a big score, but expects to use as many Webfoot players as possible to see how each reacts under fire. At present he has four complete teams and probably will use every man on each eleven.

The first eleven, in practice sessions, has consisted of Victor Wetzel, Portland, and Howard Handley, Eugene, ends; Beryl Hodgen, Athens, captain and Robert Keeney, Portland, guards; George Stadleman, The Dalles, center; Ira Clay Woodie, Nampa, Idaho, quarter; George Burnell, Vancouver, Wash., and Arthur "Whipple" Ord, Nampa, Idaho, halves; and Cotter Gould, Salem, fullback.

The second aggregation probably will consist of Ted Pope, Portland, and Edgar Slanson, Sacramento, ends; Scott Warren, Chico, Cal., and Harry Wood, Portland, tackles; Hal Harden, Marshfield, and Irving Fiegel, Portland, guards; Merrill Hazan, Portland, or Everett McCutchan, Portland, center; Charles Williams, Portland, quarter; Robert Robinson, Portland, and Rollo Coleman, Eugene, halves; and LaSalle Cole, Haines, fullback.

In the first lineup, all but Stadleman and Handley are veterans.

GOOD WEATHER ON SLATE FOR FIGHT

CHICAGO, Sept. 21. (U. P.)—"Fair and cool" is the United States weather bureau's special prediction for the Tunney-Dempsey fight Thursday night.

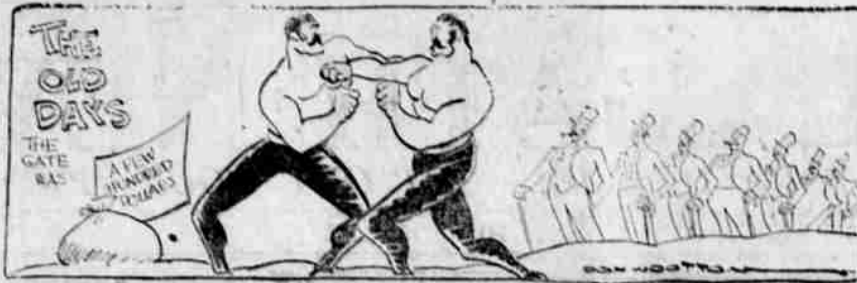

While lowering clouds were threatening rain, Prof. Cox after consulting with his charts, said the proverbial Richard luck would prevail and that clouds would not mar the heavyweight battle.

"The temperature will be between 55 and 58 degrees," he said, "with light winds."

Since Soldier Field is located almost on the lake front heavy coats will not be out of place in mammoth stadium.

Here's How Sporting Scribes Feel About Thursday's Big Ring Brawl

CHICAGO, Sept. 21. (U. P.)—Opinion of 72 representative boxing writers gathered by the Association to go on record one way or the other on the outcome of the fight.

While most of the experts' conclusions revealed a substantial majority favoring Gene Tunney, the following are some of the more detailed views:

Warren Brown, Chicago Herald and Examiner: "I can't pick them when there's so much money involved. It's too uncertain."

John Doyle, Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Tunney should be a 1 to 1 favorite but I will take a chance on Dempsey."

Bob Edgson, New York Evening World: "Dempsey by a knockout in eight rounds."

Ed Dickerson, Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald: "I expect to see Tunney knock out Dempsey by the eighth round."

See Taylor, Des Moines Register and Tribune: "I pick Tunney to win, perhaps by a knockout."

Harry Bullion, Detroit Free Press: "I pick Dempsey. He is 50 per cent better than last year and 25 per cent improved over his form against Sharkey."

Ed Hughes, Brooklyn (N. Y.) Eagle: "Tunney figures to win decisively but my suspicion are such that I would not be surprised to see anything happen."

Hype Igoe, New York World: "On form, Tunney ought to be a 19 to 1 favorite, but I string with Dempsey, the long shot, nevertheless, I'm playing the 'lunch' on the old stadium."

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21. (U. P.)—James Campbell, prize fighter, and A. B. De Wesse, promoter, Wednesday were freed of manslaughter charges growing out of the death of Harold Williams during a boxing exhibition September 14.

The charges were dismissed by Municipal Judge Baird when he declared there was no criminal intent in the blow struck by Campbell, which caused Williams' death.

This doesn't look as good for Champion Gene Tunney, this stinging blow to his stomach delivered by Billy 'Whiskey' left, in Tunney's first workout at Cedar Crest. Our handsome heavyweight champion, who will defend his title against Jack Dempsey within a few days, enjoyed his first workout in his new quarters on Labor Day. Approximately 2500 fans witnessed his actions.

Pirates Resume Pennant March

(United Press)—The pennant march of the Pirates was resumed Wednesday as the National League leaders beat the Robins, 4 to 2, and gained half a game on the Giants and Cardinals who were hls.

With 11 games left to play, the Pirates hold a three and a half game lead over both the Giants and Cardinals.

John Miljus allowed the Robins only five hits and was not scored on until the eighth.

Babe Ruth hit his 55th home run of the season in the ninth inning of the Yankees-Tiger game, leaving him only four shy of tying his 1921 record of 59.

Sam Gibson allowed the Yanks only seven hits and the Tigers won 8 to 1.

Members of the Senators, blanked the Browns, 10 to 0.

The Red Sox beat the White Sox, 7 to 2.

A run in the ninth gave the Indians a 6 to 5 win over the Athletics.

No other games scheduled.

OWLS CLUB TO GET REVENUE OF FIGHT

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 21. (U. P.)—The Order of Owls Club of Omaha today was ordered by the state boxing commission to secure the proceeds entitled W. L. "Young" Stripling of Georgia and Leo Diebel, Omaha city, for their recent fight in Omaha.

The club, according to the commissioner's direction, can employ such proceedings as may be necessary to secure the receipts from any third person who may have them. Stripling and Diebel were fined $100 each for an alleged "framed" fight in Omaha, and officials had declared their purses would be turned over to charity.

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

A certain small BOY of this community wanted a FOURTH helping of potatoes and GRAVY at the dinner table the other night, and his MOTHER REPROVED him for being so GREEDY, and told him he was a regular little PIG. The boy's FATHER, thinking he should take a HAND in the family DISCIPLINE, spoke to his SON and asked him if he knew what a LITTLE PIG was, and we CLAIM that was rubbing it in, but the TABLES were TURNED when the young man REPLIED that a PIG is a HOG'S little bdy.
