

AS YANKS AND PIRATES CLASHED

AS YANKS AND PIRATES OPENED FALL CLASSIC

Here is an excellent picture of the big crowd of baseball fans that turned out for the first game of the 1927 world series in Pittsburgh. Forbes field was jammed to its capacity and then some, the attendance reaching 42,000. The demand for tickets was such that if the park had been twice as large it doubtless would have been well filled.

Rumor Again Says Pirates Are Sold Wetz, Millionaire

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10. (UP)—Rumor sold the Pittsburgh Pirates again today, but Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the club, said it wasn't so. The anticipated deal whereby Lew Wetz, Oklahoma millionaire, would get the club has not been completed.

The National league champions met and divided a purse of $111,842 their share of the world series receipts.

Each of the 26 regulars, Manager Dime Bush and two coaches received $2,994. "Kiki" Cuyler received $3,994. Cuyler mainly shared along with the others, but Adam Comorosky, recalled from Wichita to play in Cuyler's place let in the season, was not included in the distribution.

Attaches Get Purse—Sam Watters, club secretary, was voted $1,500, each of three Pirate scouts got $1,334, the club trainer $898 and the ground keeper and bat boys $499 each. Dime Bush issued a statement in which he placed blame for the benching of Cuyler upon the outfielder's own shoulders and declared that "Kiki's" statements since the series ended proved who was at fault.

"From what Cuyler himself said, it's apparent I could not have acted any other way," said the Pirate manager.

COSTLY PIRATE ERROR

In the third inning of the first game, with first and third occupied, Smith, the Pirate catcher, bluffed a throw to second and then threw to first. His strategy went wrong, however, for on Traynor's return throw Smith let the ball get away from him and Gehrig scored from third with a run that proved to be very important. Gehrig is shown registering while Smith scrambles for the ball.

WHEN TONY GOT MAD

Joe Harris hit into a double play in the Pirates' half of the second inning. Lazzeri to Gehrig, Tony tagging out Grantham on the path and throwing to first. Tony wanted to start a fight with Grantham for interfering with the play. Photo shows Grantham lunging into Lazzeri to hamper the latter's throw.

Kid Starkey Will Meet Webster In Main Event On October 18; Harrington To Fight Mike Daly

"Kid" Starkey, whose iron fists have not been seen in action in a Klamath ring for many a moon, will again display his wares in Klamath ring, it was announced yesterday by Glen Larson, matchmaker. Starkey will meet Pop Webster, clever Tacoma welterweight in the main event of a bang-up card here Oct. 18.

Always in good condition because of his regular daily work—carpentering—Starkey is itching to work himself back to the position of foremost boxer in Klamath. His milling style, his iron heart have won for him a wide place in the hearts of Klamath fans and he is always a good drawing card.

The square-jawed, broad shouldered slinger declares he's in the "plek" and says that he will show the fans a great fight on the night of October 18. He wants again the position of main attraction that he enjoyed for so long and is willing to take any chances to obtain it.

Webster, a colored boy was seen at disadvantage in his first 20 bouts, when he met Tim Callahan in the main event of a boxing card here recently. Both boys were the same style fighters, clever fighters. To make such a style fighter show himself to the fullest extent, a fighter of the type of Starkey is needed.

Another great favorite of the Klamath ring will again be seen in action—"Shock Punch" Wilbur Harrington, great Klamath Indian scrapper whose terrific left and right hook are known to all of the cash customers. Wilbur will meet Mike Daly, Pelican City scrapper, in the six round semi-final. Daly is a corner, a willing mixer and is considered a good match for Wilbur. If he swarms over the bronze faced warrior from the reservation and keeps him from getting set for his terrific punch, he should keep the Indian under control. But if Wilbur slips one of those murderous punches through Daly's guard, it will be curtains. Give and take slugging with Wilbur is poor medicine. He has only to give one and is willing to take many to get that chance.

A special event which booked good is the bout between Jimmy O'Neil, former stablemate of Fidel Laforia, former featherweight champion of the world and Eddie Peck, pride of the Southern Pacific. Eddie is switchman for the S. P. and will have his contingent of rooters from the railroad group.

In the semi-final Joe Gans, 161, of Allentown, won by a foul in the fourth round from Tom Kirby, 175, of Boston.

VIENNA, Oct. 10. (UP)—Reports from Sofia indicate that the Bulgarian cabinet, as a demonstration of friendliness toward Jugo Slavia, has declared martial law in the Petritch district whence the comitadjis have been invading Serbia.

Veteran Leader Of League Will Soon Be Retired

CHICAGO, Oct. 10. (AP)—Ban Johnson is putting his baseball house in order. The doughty old warrior is about ready to step out as president of the American League.

He may hand over the reins to some one else November 1, but no one knows definitely when he will step from the stage to the wings. He says he will retire when he gets everything straightened up.

In the meantime, he has tidied up his office here. He and his clerical staff have swept through an accumulation of papers that tell in stray figures and records the fighting career of Ban Johnson. The office is about in shape for his successor, who, it is freely predicted, will be E. S. Barnard, president of the Cleveland American League baseball team.

Technically, the American League magnates are expected to dispose of the very important business of selecting a president at the annual meeting, which usually is held about December 1. But they may move swiftly and secretly to the gossip in major league circles.

But, whenever the action is taken, the new president will find the desks cleared for him.

Barnard has been connected with organized baseball for nearly a quarter of a century. He had been a football coach, sporting editor of a newspaper, and secretary of the Columbus, O., builders' exchange before that.

He went to Cleveland in 1903 as secretary of the Cleveland club. In 1910 he became vice president and in 1916 was made manager. He held that post until July, 1922, when he was made president.

Barnard was graduated from Otterbein College at Westerville, O., in 1896 and 1897. He coached the Seventeenth U. S. regiment, football team and in 1898 was coach at the Ohio Medical University. He was sports editor of The Columbus Dispatch from 1898 to 1907, helped organize the Columbus baseball club and later was president of the Western Association.

Barnard is a hard worker and many consider him hard-boiled, but the Cleveland players declare the opposite. When he draws a player's contract, they say he puts in the highest figure he thinks reasonable and possible, and then stands pat.

Barnard is married and lives in Cleveland with his wife and aged mother.

CHINA GIRL DENIED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10. (UP)—Nancy Hui, 21 year old Chinese girl, may not enter the United States although she is the daughter of a native born Chinese. The United States district court of appeals so ruled today in upholding the decision of a Seattle, Wash., superior court, forbidding the girl entry on the ground that she was the child of a second and polygamous marriage, to which her father was a party in the orient. This decision establishes the fact that Chinese laws recognizing polygamous marriages cannot be invoked to win American citizenship and win admittance to this country.

T. Canzoneri To Meet J. Dundee

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. (UP)—Johnny Dundee, former featherweight champion of the world, will return to the ring at his old fight weight of 126 pounds to meet Tony Canzoneri of Brooklyn in a 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden, Oct. 24.

There being no recognized featherweight champion at the moment, Canzoneri probably will be proclaimed king of the class if he defeats the old veteran. Tony lost his chance to win the famous title when Bud Taylor beat him in Chicago and gladly climbed into the heavier division where weight-making no longer troubles the growing young Italian.

At the Liberty

A brilliant array of screen celebrities appear in the principal roles of the photoplay adaptation of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's immortal poem, "The Ancient Mariner," made under the direction of Henry Otto, celebrated creator of fantastical films, with supplementary direction of a modern sequence by Chester Bennett. The picture opens a two-day run at the Liberty theatre today.

Paul Panzer, widely known character player who scored heavily in Fox films production, "The Fool," "East Lynne" and "Thunder Mountain," portrays with fine skill the role of the unfortunate Mariner in the fantasy sequence.

Robert Klein and Gladys Brockwell characterize "Life" and "Death," two important roles in the allegory.

The modern story, which is interestingly interwoven with the symbolic poem, is interpreted by stellar players, Leslie Fenton, Fox film find of the season, plays the leading male role with Clara Bow, one of the brightest of the younger feminine stars, in the leading role opposite Mr. Fenton.

Ernie Williams, for years a star in his own right, characterizes a feature role, as does Nigel De Bruller, famed for his remarkable portrayal of Teheroff in "The Four Horsemen."

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips" Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly. For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all cases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.
