Fate of 'Kiki' Cuyler Depends On Whether Sale of Pittsburgh Club To Millionaire Is Closed

By Frank Getty

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Now that the amateur trade makers of baseball have had their innings and have transferred "Kiki" Cuyler from the Pittsburgh Pirates to at least seven other clubs in the National league, it might be well to point out that not unlikely spot in which to look for the dashing young ball player from Flint, Michigan, will be in center field for the Pittsburgh Pirates along about next April.

This much is certain—if the Pittsburgh club changes hands, and Lou C. Wentz, Oklahoma millionaire obtains control, Cuyler will be restored as a regular player in the Pirate outfield.

Cuyler Valuable
It is no secret that Fred Clarke will direct the destinies of the Pirates from a playing point of view if Wentz buys the club. Nor is it a secret that Clarke considers Cuyler just about the most valuable player on the payroll.

Before Wentz and Clarke left for Pittsburgh to make their annual offer to Barney Dreyfuss, they let it be known that their plans included the placing of "Kiki" at center field.

Young Lloyd Waner, they admit, is a great ball player—fleet as the wind, an excellent lead-off man, a consistent hitter and a thorn in the side of opposing pitchers. But the younger Waner will have to learn to play left field, if Wentz and Clarke buy the Pirates.

Sale Discussed
Perhaps the reason why there is less talk in Pittsburgh from elsewhere of Cuyler being traded is that those close to the situation know that Wentz and his associates have been closeted with Dreyfuss today, with the sale of the Pirates as the sole topic of discussion.

It is not unreasonable to assume that Wentz and Clarke, having made known to Barney their intention of bidding once more for the club, have indicated their desire to have Cuyler remain with it.

"Kiki" does not want to play left field. The sunlight at Forbes field, when it penetrates the customary smoke and fog, is too severe for Cuyler's eyes. Fred Clarke has agreed tentatively to make a shift which will place "Kiki" in center—if Dreyfuss sells to Wentz.

Would Be Good Trade
The Pittsburgh club undoubtedly could obtain some good baseball material in exchange for

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips" Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1878.—Adv.

At the Liberty

Some of the most beautiful scenery obtainable in a country noted for its beautiful locations was used in "The Ancient Mariner," the version of the Coleridge classic, which will have its last run at the Liberty today.

From the High Sierras to the rock-bound coast of Lower California the most superb vistas, ones that people are only too glad to come thousands of miles to see, are visible in the picture.

The boundless ocean is used as a background for some of the most dramatic scenes in the picture—scenes of such rare beauty that no other background but the fathomless ocean was sufficiently impressive to indicate the mood required in the allegory. The scene wherein the albatross, symbol of love and happiness, is wantonly slain by the superstitious mariner, is one which will long be remembered by those who are so fortunate as to witness this screen offering.

UPHOLDS HEALTH RULES.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11. (A. P.)—Rules requiring health tests of public school pupils were upheld today by Circuit Judge C. H. McCulloch. The decision was in a suit by Mrs. Carrie H. Williams, who sought mandamus to compel school authorities to permit her daughter, Emma Mae, 13, to return to classes after having refused to submit to a physical examination. Judge McCulloch, while denying reinstatement of children dismissed because of refusal to submit to physical examinations, directed the school officials to accept certificates from any licensed physician regarding health of the pupils. The trial was marked by testimony of parents finding fault with examination of pupils by nurses and physicians employed by the school board.

Two Jacks Will Clash In Fight Ring Friday Eve

NEW YORK, Oct. 11. (UP)—The French-Canadian heavy-weight boxing situation is due for considerable clarification Friday night when Jack Delaney, who not so long ago was touted as the man to beat Gene Tunney, meets Jack Renault, who a few years ago was certainly the top opponent for Jack Dempsey.

Both Renault and Delaney have hit the down trail since those days, and now both are bent on coming back.

Delaney was beaten by Jimmy Maloney, the rosy-poly Boston fishmonger, and was losing to Paulino the basque when saved by a foul. Renault grew fat and slovenly and was an easy victim for Jack Sharkey and George Godfrey.

Now this pair of French-Canadians meet in what may be considered the first of the heavy-weight elimination bouts of the indoor season.

WOULD KILL HIS GIRL.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 11. (A. P.)—Because the girl with whom he had been keeping company refused to marry him, Archie Damon, of Elkton, threatened to kill her so that she could marry no one else. District Attorney Gordon stated today that he was informed by the girl's parents.

A warrant was issued for Damon's arrest and he was taken into custody this morning. Damon, after threatening the girl's life, the district attorney says he was informed, traded his rifle for a pistol and made the statement that he would see that the girl would marry no one else.

Officers are investigating the case today while Damon is held in jail.

MORE MEN AT KFI.

Sailors Groomed For Great Clash With Notre Dame

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 11. (UP)—Head coach Bill Ingram has a powerful navy eleven groomed for the visit of Notre Dame at Baltimore next Saturday.

Whereas the Roekne "Irish" would ordinarily be strong favorites in such an inter-sectional clash, the middies have displayed such football strength this season as to warrant their being accorded an excellent chance of winning.

Although only two veterans of his 1927 first string eleven remained to Ingram when the present season started, the navy coach has found some jewels among the rough material.

Camel

The cigarette that earned first place by its goodness

The greatest endorsement ever given to a cigarette is revealed by the fact that Government figures show that more Camels are being smoked today than ever before. An endorsement by the many—not the few.

We have all been too close to people whose hair had a noticeable odor. It is due to an acidity that soap and water are powerless to prevent. You may not have a scalp. Or you may have it and not know it. But dandruff should make you suspicious, and hair that "strings" is a sure sign.

When hair has a dull, "dead" look after curling—and the wave is all out a few hours after use of the iron—it is time to use Danderine. Just a few drops of this highly scientific preparation will check acidity, and give your hair such lovely softness that dressing it will be a delight. It will arrange easily, and stay as you arrange it. Every particle of scale will be dissolved. It makes an amazing difference. And for only thirty-five cents, your druggist will give you a bottle of Danderine that will last for weeks!—Adv.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
