GIRL CHARGES ROBBERY.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 12. (AP)—No disposition has as yet been made of the cases of Harold Blake, 27, William McKay, 29, and Clara Martin, 18, arrested here and held at the county jail after theft of a car on the McKenzie highway. It is probable that the trio will be turned over to federal authorities as the car they abandoned here when another was taken is alleged to have been stolen at Santa Barbara, Calif., some time ago, according to county authorities. The girl admits that the men held up a service station at Bend before crossing the McKenzie Pass toward Eugene, but the men deny this. A quantity of new wearing apparel was found in possession of the party when arrested and it is believed by authorities that this may be loot from some robbery.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

By order of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, this eighth day of October, 1927. C. R. DELAF., County Clerk. 011.13.18.20
