At the Liberty

If capacity audiences for a run of two days mean anything, the feature at the Liberty Theatre, "The Better Way," should be viewed by all the other—if there are any other—screen enthusiasts tonight, for it will coincide its engagement here with the last showing.

Dorothy Revier and Ralph Ince give the leading roles and are given excellent support by a talented cast. Ince also directed with the supervising cooperation of Harry Cohn, general manager of Columbia productions.

The story concerns a poor young stenographer who buys a lucky bit of stock and wins a fortune. There is a thrill in it from the first reel to the final, and the love interest has been cleverly sustained in a plot with a decided O. Henry finish.

Extraordinary Vaudeville At The Pine Tree

"We believe the finest aggregation of vaudeville talent that has ever appeared in Klamath Falls is at the Pine Tree theatre today," says the Pine Tree management. A most enthusiastic audience showed their approval of every number last night and the universal comment was that each act was better than the preceding one. The four Nossokoffs, doing sensational Russian dances, are grace personified, and this act, as well as that of the Florentine trio are a credit to the profession, and to any theatre fortunate enough to present them.

The Pine Tree is offering a week of high class attractions. Following this vaudeville presentation, Maxine's musical players will be presented Thursday and Friday. This troupe consists of seven players who offer a versatile program of music, specializing in the light opera selections. And on Saturday, San Francisco's sweet voiced lyric tenor, Maurice Ginsky, will appear for three performances. Known wherever the phonograph and radio is known, Ginsky's appearance here will be a real joy to music lovers.

Million Bones For Ball Team

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 18. (U. P.)—Negotiations for the purchase of the Cleveland baseball club at a sum approximately $1,000,000 are under way. Alva Bradley, head of a group of Cleveland financiers, said today.

At the Pine Tree

Headed by "The Nossokoffs" famous Russian dancers the program at the Pine Tree Theatre last times today consisting of five excellent variety offerings should prove a real treat this Wednesday.

"Dizzy Hand" the almost human horse starts the show off and Gerald and Hoag who act as the animal impersonators have arranged their offering in a very novel and entertaining manner. Their comedy steps keep the audience in roars of laughter from start to finish.

George Bradley, a young comedian who specializes in Hebrew monologues and stories in a likeable young fellow with a pleasing personality.

The Florentine Trio who feature harmony songs are a well balanced singing presentation with a repertoire that should appeal to all.

Bob White who stands in vaudeville today as one of the greatest bird imitators and stunts is a gifted young fellow who presents his different stunts in a somewhat different manner. A continual line of smart patter runs through his act.

The act featuring the Four Nossokoffs is a distinct novelty inasmuch as double addagio dancing is executed at the one time by one of the men handling both girls. A novel and difficult undertaking. Remarkable and graceful interpretations that supply a thrill long to be remembered. Russian Apache and other international numbers are included in their stirring repertoire.

Acid Scalp

How many carefully coiffured heads can stand the test of eyes only inches away, and fernal not a speck of dandruff? How many women can warm to the dance, and know their hair will have no taint for the partner who holds them close?

No one can be sure who has acid scalp.

If you even suspect this acid condition of the scalp, it is time for Danderine. This scientific preparation will neutralize any acidity, and dissolve all dandruff if there is any. And it always gives the hair itself a lovely softness and sheen. It will wave better, hold a wave longer, and behave better all the time if you just occasionally apply a few drops of Danderine. Try it! Every druggist has this perfect conditioner of the scalp and hair, and a thirty-five cent bottle lasts for weeks.—Adv.

Starkey Breaks Right Hand In Ninth Round of Fight; Pep Webster Is Awarded Decision

Pep Webster, colored welterweight of Tacoma, Wash., was awarded the decision over Kid Starkey, Klamath Falls, in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-round bout at the Legion hall last night, when Starkey broke his right hand, below the thumb. The end came suddenly. The two boys were milling around in the center of the ring. Starkey let loose a right cross aimed at Pep's jaw. The colored boxer ducked and threw up his shoulder. Starkey's fist cracked against Webster's shoulder and broke. The fight was about even up to the end, with Starkey mostly the aggressor, and with Webster tying up the Klamath slugger in clinches.

The negro's offense was almost impeccable. Starkey, anxious to get over his fight, could not persuade the colored boy to slug toe to toe. In the sixth round, Webster opened up a cut over Starkey's eye. Neither boy was knocked down and there were few blows that staggered. The upset of the night was the technical knockout scored by Mike Daly, Pelican City, over Wilbur Harrington, Chinaman Indian. Fighting a heavy scrap, Daly wore Harrington down gradually. In the sixth round he had him on the canvas twice, one for a count of nine. Harrington's second throw in the sponge when it appeared that Wilbur was out on his feet.

The fight that nearly stole the show was a slashing four-round draw between Eddie Peck, Southern Pacific, and Jimmy O'Neil, Los Angeles. The two junior lightweights slugged away at each other for four rounds to a popular draw. They will make a great re-match. Harrington's defeat upset the dope bucket. The Indian was figured a strong favorite over Daly. The Pelican City lumber piler fought a clever fight, protecting his jaw against Wilbur's famous shock punch, he shot short rights and lefts that hit the trio's hamstrings and that staggered Harrington time and again and finally dropped him twice in the sixth.

Interest in fights was seen by the large crowd present.

Wedding Breakfast Eaten In Airplane

LONDON, Oct. 18. (AP)—One of the first wedding breakfasts ever eaten in the air was consumed some thousands of feet above the English channel. When two honeymooners, Mary Lessing, of London, and a young American, Carlos Stuart, of New Orleans, were married at St. Mary-le-Strang they went straight to Croydon aerodrome where a special machine was awaiting them.

In the cabin was a table set for two. A waiter hovered discreetly near. The love repast consisted of oysters, an iced soup, a chicken souffle, and peaches braised in brandy; old wines to accompany.

With the oysters the pair got THE ORPHEUS TODAY RANGER in "The Outlaw Dog"

A GOOD START

OREGON CITY, Oct. 18. (UP)—Cutting teeth apparently isn't going to be a nuisance to little Donald Louis Kylio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kylio of Canby. Donald possessed two front teeth when he was born and by the time he was five days old two more teeth appeared on the lower jaw.

Would Make Her Title Brighter

LONDON, Oct. 18. (UP)—Miss Mercedes Gleitze, the London stenographer who asserted she swam the English channel after seven unsuccessful attempts, intends to go through with her threat to do it over again. She left London Tuesday to go to Cape Gris Nez where she will start her swim Wednesday in the presence of numerous witnesses.

She wants to counteract the stigma which the hoax of Dr. Dorothy Logan, who claimed she swam the channel and later admitted she did not, cast upon channel swimmers and also to vindicate her own statement that she accomplished the difficult feat last week.

In view of the temperature of the air and the water, experts believe her attempt must fail.

Camel

The cigarette preferred by experienced smokers

In the remarkable growing popularity of the cigarette, many brands have bid for favor, but Camel continues to lead by billions.

Quality put it there—quality keeps it there.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
