

FIGHT FILMS FINALLY GET LAW SANCTION

Frank Getty, Sport Scribe Says Movies Fail to Tell Truth of Scrap

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—That long "Chicago" court which favored Gene Tunney when the heavyweight champion sat in the resin and heard the taunting of the bledies now can be exhibited and viewed with impunity in any state of the union.

United States District Court Judge Goddard has handed down a decision which makes it possible for films of the Dempsey-Tunney fight at Soldier Field, Chicago, to be shown in any state—provided said films are not received from common carriers or through the mails.

A grand jury investigating the alleged illegal transportation of fight films from one state to another asked Judge Goddard whether it was illegal to exhibit or receive such films.

The judge said "no."

United States Attorney Tuttle has agreed that his office and all concerned will abide by the judge's decision.

In view of the fact that the sport Gene Tunney received in Chicago is the one absorbing topic among fight fans the country over, this should provide an excellent opportunity for each to judge for himself.

The films show Tunney going down beneath a shower of lefts and rights to the law, and in "slow motion" they portray vividly the distress of the champion.

One thing that may be said about the films is this:

They are misleading, but they are a source of immense satisfaction to Dempsey sympathizers who did not see the fight, but feel that their man really should have been declared the winner.

In the films, Dempsey appears much better than he did in the ring that night at Soldier field. But in the films, the man who bores ahead and throws his punches wildly always looks better than a cool, calculating opponent.

Outside the first theater in New York to show the films, one hears the emphatic protestations and lamentations of Dempsey supporters as they emerge.

"Why, he beat him forty ways from Sunday," the admirers of the beaten ex-champion protest.

And the expression on Gene Tunney's face, magnified by the "slow motion" film, should prove a balm to the pecuniary wounds of those who backed Dempsey and had to pay up.

A friend who has spent years learning the motion picture game from censor's numbers to final fade-out warns, however, that no one should attempt to gauge the length of time Tunney sat in the resin by the length of time it takes to portray his downfall in the movies.

There is no adequate comparison, and any attempt to time the film must inevitably prove misleading.

U.S.C. Favorite, Tied By Stanford

The figure 12 has been the linch pin for three years has kept the University of Southern California from defeating Stanford on the gridiron. This year's game, with U. S. C. the favorite, was a tie, 12 to 12. The picture shows Drury, U. S. C. star and the scintillating light of the game, dashing over the line for the final Southern California touchdown.

24-Year-Old Girl Candidate For Mayor of New England Community

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 20.—(A.P.)—Miss Helen Goodwyn Jones, 24-year-old Concord girl, may be the next mayor of this city, capital of New Hampshire.

Miss Jones is the first woman in New Hampshire ever to be nominated for mayor.

Although unversed in practical politics, she defeated two other candidates and ran second only to the present mayor, Fred N. Marston, in the primary contest. On November 8 she and Mayor Marston will be the candidates for election. In the meantime an intensive campaign is in progress that will make new political history in Concord.

Miss Jones was graduated from the University of New Hampshire last June and intended to enter the Yale Law School this fall. When the vacation season closed she started the voters by announcing that she was a candidate for the mayor's chair.

With the aid of her brother, Joseph, who is a garage mechanic, she began a "whirlwind" speaking tour. Visiting every section of the city, she spoke nightly to large audiences.

Miss Jones now must overcome a political tradition here that the high span in the primary is slated to win the municipal election.

At college she made an enviable reputation, being not only a leader in scholastic standing, but a member in the student council and active in debating and athletics. Her training as a speaker made her one of the best orators in this section.

Stanford Team Passes Through Klamath Falls

PAOLO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—Stanford's "big red" team, 30 strong, boarded the Cascade limited tonight for Portland, where they will meet the Oregon Agricultural college gridderes Saturday on Millamab field.

All the players, with the exception of Vincenti, end, and Murphy, quarterback, appeared in good condition. Vincenti and Murphy suffered injuries in the U. S. C. game last week, but they will accompany the team northward.

Bearing the entire Stanford football team which meets the O. A. C. eleven in Portland tomorrow afternoon, the "Cascade" crack S. P. train, speeded through Klamath Falls early this morning.

COMMITTEE WILL GATHER MONDAY

STENOGRAPHER PLUNGES INTO WIDE CHANNEL

Girl Determined to Discredit Doubt Cast on Swimming Prowess

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Miss Mercedes Gleizes, the London stenographer who claimed she conquered the English channel after seven unsuccessful attempts, plunged into the channel here at 4:20 a. m. today on her "vindication" swim.

She will attempt to swim the channel in view of official witnesses and newspapermen, to prove that her former claim is genuine. Weather conditions are favorable.

She left London Tuesday for here, stating that she desired to counteract the stigma which the hoax of Dr. Dorothy Logan had cast upon channel swimmers. Dr. Logan had claimed to have broken the record of Gertrude Ederle in swimming the channel, but later admitted her claims were a hoax.

Oregon 1st Year Team To Invade Cities Of State

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 20.—(A.P.)—Only one more practice session remains on tap for Coach Retakart's yearling gridderes before they throw their trunks preparatory to invading eastern Oregon for what is to be the "battle of the season" in that section of the country.

Scrimmage with the varsity has been included in this week's workout for the first year-men and it has been a great aid in giving the babes a taste of real action. The varsity, still remembering the escapade at Portland wherein the Golden Bears from Berkeley featured in the leading role, dealt with the freshmen in a rigorous fashion when the latter migrated to Hayward field.

The freshmen did not take the meekly and displayed enough smutz and drive in the short battle to warrant the confidence of Oregon fans when they enter for Pendleton Friday. They tackled hard, bit hard and played hard, and it can be safely said that if the Cougar kittens are expecting a pink tea affair when they trot out on the gridiron in the Hoquiam city on October 21, they are due for a rude awakening.

The W. S. C. frosh are pointing to this particular tilt and while they consider it their hardest they are displaying an abundance of confidence in the outcome.

Pennsylvania Hit By Big Flood

points had their share of suffering.

Two railroad employees were killed when an engine ran into a washout near Halstead, and at Sayre, a man was drowned when a bridge over a swollen creek collapsed with the weight of his car.

As the torrents made the Whites Barre section an island sea, hundreds of families fled their homes to dry ground and were marooned in the bottom lands of the Susquehanna.

Highways and residences around Seranton were rained by the waters and the lowlands were washed out and badly damaged.

Anthracite coal mines were given new grief by the overflow. Already suffering from an industrial slump, many mines were flooded and face suspension of work.

Accompanying the floods near Uniontown, snow clogged traffic arteries.

Along the Delaware river, seven feet of water covers the main highway in spots, and it is impassable at Point Pleasant, Brownsburg and Yardley.

JUSTICE OF PEACE VISITS IN VALLEY

W. B. Barnes, justice of the peace, left late yesterday afternoon for Medford, where he intends to transact business. It is also understood that the magistrate will continue his journey from Medford to Portland.

To facilitate the proper handling of broken bones Klamath Valley hospital has installed an X-Ray department.

LABORERS BLAMED FOR BRINGING ARMS INTO PHILIPPINES

MANILA, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—Filipino laborers returning from Hawaii are chiefly responsible for the smuggling of firearms in the Philippines, according to evidence uncovered by the constabulary.

Many revolvers, it is shown, enter the islands by mail, but most of the unlicensed guns in the Philippines slipped in with the baggage of returning emigrants.

The favorite means of smuggling, says the constabulary's report, is inside of books. The pages of a book are cut to the shape and size of the gun so that there is nothing in the appearance of the book to arouse suspicion.

M. M'Tigue Back In Good Standing

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—Once again, Mike M'Tigue and his manager, Jimmy Johnston, are in the good graces of the National Boxing Association.

Meeting today to consider the joint suspension of the two, the association lifted its ban when M'Tigue promised to fight Larry Gaines in Toronto, Canada, between Nov. 19 and 20.

At the same time Johnston filed a challenge to meet Jimmy Slattery.

Harse Attains New Record In Big Dope Upset

LATONIA, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—Another track record fell today in an upset in the Gloucester, when Mike Hall accomplished the mile and 70 yards in the sensational time of 1:49-3/5.

Wearing the livery of Hal Price Headley, Mike Hall won by a full length, a feat considered one of the outstanding racing victories in the Kentucky fall season.

Mike Hall did the quarter at 22-4-5; half, 46-2-5; six furlongs, 1:11-3-5; mile, 1:26-1-5. He packed 193 pounds with jockey M. Meyer up.

At the Liberty

After portraying almost every imaginable type of role which calls for vigorous action, William Fairbanks, America's most athletic actor, turns to the "Raffles" type of story in his latest production, "One Chance In A Million," at the Liberty today.

As Jerry Blaine, Mr. Fairbanks has a most unusual part, inasmuch as he cheerfully allows himself to be accused of all kinds of crimes and instead of trying to vindicate himself he always manages to make a sensational escape.

The followers of Mr. Fairbanks always look to him to provide thrills in his pictures and the producers state that, despite the fact that the action of the picture is laid in the realm of society, there are more exciting moments than in any previous Fairbanks production.

Being a mystery story it is deemed advisable not to reveal too much of it in advance but suffice to say that it will come up to every expectation of the lover of fast action melodrama.

Three Indicted For Displaying Fight Pictures

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—Following close on the heels of news from the east that a federal judge in New York had ruled that it was unlawful to exhibit prize fight films, three men were indicted by the federal grand jury here on charges of conspiracy to transport films of the Dempsey-Tunney fight into California.

The men indicted were Harry Burke, former city editor of the New York World, his son, H. W. Burke, and J. J. Moore—a theatrical agent.

The owners of the theater where the films were seized were not indicted by the grand jury.

Bail for the elder Burke and Moore was fixed at $2,500 each, and for "Billy" Burke at $1,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—(U.P.)—The announcement of a United States district judge in New York city that fight films can be exhibited legally in "New York or any other state" will not interrupt the prosecution of three men under arrest in San Francisco for local exhibition of the film, Eugene Bennett, acting United States district attorney declared today.

"We are not attempting to halt the exhibition of Dempsey-Tunney fight films," Bennett said. "We are endeavoring to stop transportation of the films from one state to another and there is evidence in this case that this was a conspiracy to transport these films to this city."
