New Jury System Is Stressed

Teapot Dome Mistrial Evokes Censure of New York Criminologist.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (Copyright, 1927, U.P.)-Radical overhauling of the jury system is needed in view of conditions such as are now being exposed in the Fall-Sinclair teapot dome trial, says Caleb H. Baumes, chairman of the New York state crime commission, and author of the famous Baumes' law, providing life sentence for chronic offenders.

"I have never seen anything so flagrant as this affair pur-ports to be," he told the United Press. 'We are trying to stiffen up our jury system in New York and I think it ought to be done In a good many other places, The national attention attracted to this case here ought to help demonstrate the need of reforms
