MEN ARRESTED FOR STREET FIGHTING

Two men, one giving his name as Nick Doris and the other as Jack Thompson, were arrested at Eleventh and Main last night while engaged in a fight.

MELTON MOWBRAY, Eng.

Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Lady Victoria Bullock, only daughter of the great sporting peer, the Earl of Derby, and one of England's finest horsewomen, died today from injuries she received yesterday as a fellow follower of fox hounds with the Prince of Wales.

Oh Boy! Here's a Line From Santa

office. He'll keep them for me and I'll decide which ones are to receive prizes when I arrive in Klamath. Hope to bring my reindeer down but may have to come in my airplane. It all depends on the weather.

In case you've forgotten about some of the letter prizes, here's all the dope again—

The Bluebird is giving a 5-pound box of chocolates as one prize. Another is to come from the Davis Furniture company in the form of a dandy Flexible Flyer sled. Stinson's studio, May King proprietress, is awarding a half dozen fine photos. The American National bank is offering five one-dollar savings accounts to be used for five little letter writers.

From the Variety store will come one of the best book and ladder wagons I've made up in a long time. It's a whizz. The Brownsville Woolen Mills store is giving a classy blazer as my recommendation, because I know somebody is going to be ticked to death with it.

Roberts & Harvey have one of my best tool chests for some good little letter writer, who I've already sent a beautiful baby doll to Underwood's who are going to provide it as a contest gift. Shaw MacRae are donating a knockout $10 camera as another prize. From the Palace Market will come a big 18-pound turkey for a hang-up Christmas dinner. And as for the music—Shepherd's Music house is giving a handsome portable phonograph as a prize. From George Metz, jeweler, some little girl is going to receive a lovely $35 wrist watch, just as good as the one big sister wears.

Write 'em now, kids, I'm impatient—

Your old friend, SANTA CLAUS.
