

Boys and Girls WRITE TO SANTA CLAUS

MERCHANTS GIVE BEAUTIFUL PRIZES

Local merchants, cooperating with the Klamath News on a Christmas gift campaign for children of the city, have offered sixteen fine gifts from the wares in their various stores and places of business.

The shops of the city this week have taken on a decided holiday air and decorations are lovely in every case. Holly, evergreen boughs and other green and red combinations are being used in profusion to carry out the spirit of the Christmas season. The gift goods on display is one of the largest and most varied assortments the city has seen in years.

The following is a list of the gifts being offered for the best Santa Claus letters written by children under twelve years of age:

Shaw-MacRae	$10 Camera
Brownsville Woolen Mills Store	$5 Boy's Blazer
George Metz	$35 Wrist Watch
Palace Market	18-Pound Turkey
Klamath Variety Store	Hook and Ladder Wagon
American Nat'l Bank	Five $1 Savings Accounts
Blue Bird	5-Pound Box Krause's Chocolates
Earl Shepherd Music House	Portable Phonograph
Underwood's Pharmacy	Beautiful Baby Doll

Roberts & Harvey	One-half Dozen Photographs
	$5 Tool Chest

INSTRUCTIONS

DEAR LITTLE CHILDREN:

I am writing to let you know that everything is already for the Christmas letter campaign. There are a few last instructions I want you to have.

As you know, only boys and girls under the age of 12 years are going to be allowed in the letter-writing contest, but I hope every child who is eligible will write a letter early to me so that there won't be such a rush the last day or two.

All letters must be in by December 22, and on the morning of December 24 Harry Poole wants to see all of you at his Pine Tree theatre. At this time I will be on hand to distribute the presents to the sixteen children who have written the best letters. The rest of you children will be given a bag of candy.

Besides the candy every child will see a dandy new movie and will hear some fine music from Hal Blackburn's orchestra.

SANTA CLAUS.
