

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Louis Link and daughter, Mrs. Allen Castello, and son, Louis Link, Jr., of Sacramento, are visitors in Klamath Falls and are stopping at the Claremont. They greatly enjoyed the celebration at Malin, Wednesday, and a trip to Crater lake yesterday.

Louis Deuce of the Ewanna woods camp is spending the week at the Claremont. He has been head cook at the camp for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wilk of Stockton are registered at the Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kernehan arrived last night from a tour of northern Oregon, where they visited the caves and Crater Lake. They are stopping at the Valley hotel for a few days before resuming their journey to their home at McCloud, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McElhinir are guests at the Claremont from their home at Fresno, Calif.

Among southern visitors who are enjoying a visit in the city are Mr. and Mrs. George Kiewit of San Diego. They are registered at the Valley hotel.

J. C. Walker and L. W. Campbell are business visitors here from Lorella and are stopping at the Valley hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Cook and Mrs. W. B. Barnes left Thursday for Salem, where Mrs. Barnes will spend the next two weeks visiting. Mrs. Cook is the daughter of Mrs. Barnes and with her husband has been visiting here for the past fortnight.

J. H. Ellars, connected with the Pacific Finance company, with headquarters at Eugene, is registered at the Valley hotel during a business visit here.

Corville McKune is a business visitor in Klamath Falls from Silver Lake. He is among the guests at the Valley hotel.

Portland guests who are stopping at the Hall are: Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Peterson, A. A. Farber, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George M. Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burkhardt are guests at the Hall from their home at Mt. Hebron, Calif., where Mr. Burkhardt is manager of the Siskiyou Lumber company.

B. D. Wallace of Yainix is a Klamath visitor and is staying at the Hall.

Fred R. Starr registered at the Hall hotel last night from Mar-deel, Calif. He expects to return to his home today.

Leslie Elmore motored to Ashland Wednesday evening, where he spent some time, returning to his home here yesterday.

Mrs. J. E. Parker and two children have arrived here from Portland for an extended visit with Mr. Parker, who is the proprietor of the Waffle House.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Conrad enjoyed all the celebrations in the county by visiting Chiloquin Tuesday for several hours, and motoring to Malin Wednesday.

Thomas L. McEnerney and Thomas H. Barnes, both of Klamath Falls, were granted a license to wed at the office of the county clerk Thursday. Chester White of Pelican Bay and Hilda Reimers of Klamath Falls were granted a marriage license late Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap, Mrs. Ralph Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLap and children and Mrs. Lloyd DeLap and children motored to Ashland Wednesday, where they spent the day enjoying the celebration which the valley city staged.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Driscoll and daughter, Ethel, accompanied by Miss Etta Farr, enjoyed a trip to Ashland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Baxter are visiting here from Coquille, Ore., and are accompanied by their daughter, Miss Fredah and Miss Katherine Pook, also of Coquille. They have been attending the Indian convention which was recently held at Prineville, Ore., and are en route home. Miss Pook is a student at Oregon State college and spent yesterday visiting a number of her friends here.

L. O. Shirley, federal prohibition officer, has returned to his headquarters in Portland after spending several days here. Shirley announced that a prohibition department would probably be added in the near future to the law enforcement departments of this city.

Among the Portland visitors who were registered at the Willard Wednesday were George Klingbeil, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cohen, George L. Dutton, L. E. Story, F. O. Vincent, Leo R. Powell, F. D. McGuirk.

Mrs. Jud V. Miller of Ashland is in Klamath Falls for several days to enjoy a visit with her mother and sister. She plans to return home on Sunday.

D. G. Sloan and J. O. Ferris are business visitors in the city from Medford. They are stopping at the Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Robinson are enjoying a visit in the city from their home at Oakland, Calif. They are guests at the Willard.

L. W. Foss of Bend is making his headquarters at the Willard during a short business visit which he is making to this city.

Raymond Mhyres, Forest Reed and Earl Harris spent the Fourth fishing on Williamson river. One 12½ and one 9½-pound trout were among the assortment of rainbows which the party caught. They reported taking the limit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway and family returned Thursday morning to their home at Medford after visiting over the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Guy N. Satterlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale S. Johnson of Portland and son Robert are in Klamath Falls visiting Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McDonald of McDonald's Shoppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dixon and small daughter were among the many who enjoyed the Fourth of July at Diamond lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Yeatch, accompanied by their daughter, Esther Yeatch, and son Bobbie, and Ray Brennan, enjoyed a mo-

New Jersey Child Torture Victim

A victim of cruelty described as the "most atrocious abuse ever brought to the attention of New Jersey courts," 6-year-old Elizabeth Hinkle still lies in the Lakeland County Hospital, Camden. Her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Robertson, were arrested and held in default of $5000 bail each, pending action of a grand jury. The girl charged that the couple blackened her eyes, broke her nose, suspended her by her wrists and tortured her with hot wires.

where they attended the Rodeo. They returned home shortly before midnight Wednesday evening.

M. C. Bryam, general auditor for the Great Northern railroad, arrived in the city Wednesday to spend several days here on official business. Mr. Bryam makes his headquarters in Spokane, Wash. During his visit in Klamath Falls Mr. Bryam is a hotel guest at the Bisbee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Easley of Antioch, Calif., former residents of Klamath Falls, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller of the Lakeview highway, en route to Crater Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Easley are on an extended tour of the northwest, and after visiting at Crater will motor on north into Washington and Montana. They plan to visit at Yellowstone National park and a number of other scenic spots north. They were accompanied to Klamath Falls by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hunt of Medford, former residents of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Kincaid of Eagle Point, Oregon, spent the holiday here with friends.

Mrs. C. E. Dudley of Ashland, sister of Mrs. Edward Olson of this city, is critically ill at the Ashland Sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olson and daughter, Miss Maxine, were called to the valley city yesterday on account of her critical condition. Mrs. Olson and daughter remained in the valley. Mr. Olson resumed his position at the Golden Rule Thursday morning.

J. Weiner, owner of the Oregon Woolen Mills store, arrived in the city Thursday morning from Portland and after a brief visit with Jimmie Walsh, manager of the local store, left for Lakeview to spend a few days looking after business in connection with the store in Lake county. Before returning to Portland, Mr. Weiner will visit here for a few days on his return from Lakeview.

Misses Beulah and Winnie May in company with Ralph Jones and Cleo Anderson left early Wednesday morning for Prineville.

At The PINE TREE

Last Showing Today
W. C. FIELDS & CHESTER CONKLIN
(Two old boys with young ideas)
... in ...

"Two Flaming Youths"

No argument here! The laughs come in wholesale quantities ...
On the same program

Pathe News—
Special Comedy—
Will Rogers—
Organ Selection

Coming TOMORROW
Billie Dove & Lloyd Hughes
... in ...

"The Stolen Bride"

At The LIBERTY

LAST SHOWING TODAY

John Bowers in
... in ...
"FOR LADIES ONLY"

Coming TOMORROW
Buffalo Bill Jr.

Miss Adams, a teacher, formerly taught in the Ashland schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hamilton, accompanied by Miss Wyma Brotherton, enjoyed a motor trip into California on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin of this city spent the Fourth of July at Prineville with friends.

Miss Bonnie Lamb arrived here yesterday from Los Angeles and will spend a few days in Klamath Falls. She is a guest at the Willard.

Walter Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. D. Jones of Dunsmuir, former residents of Ashland, has resumed his work with the Southern Pacific company in Klamath Falls, after being confined to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco for the past several months. Mr. Jones suffered with blood poisoning in his foot.—Ashland Tidings.

Leland Cantrall is confined at the home of his brother in Jacksonville, Oregon, with an attack of measles, according to word received here Thursday from Mrs. Cantrall. Mr. and Mrs. Cantrall left early yesterday morning for Jacksonville to spend the day with relatives and friends. Mr. Cantrall took ill this morning.

G. L. Dutton, special agent for a group of insurance companies, with headquarters in Portland, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Dutton has taken an active part in sports in Oregon for many years. He played on the Oregon State College team several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mortenson, Mr. and Mrs. Coonan and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bean enjoyed the holiday at the summer lodge of E. B. Hall at Lake of the Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Coonan and Mr. and Mrs. Bean are visiting in Klamath county from San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Green, the Misses Clover and Margaret Lindsey, Jack Orell and Lloyd Higdon enjoyed an outing on Miller Creek Wednesday, returning home late in the evening.

Edward D. Sullivan with a party of friends arrived in the city Thursday from Alhambra, Calif., to remain in southern Oregon for an indefinite time on an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Humphrey and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller spent the Fourth of July at Sun Creek on an outing.

ANSWERS LETTERS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 5, (UP).—Upon his arrival here today for a rest before going to New York Monday for conferences, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, vice presidential candidate of the democratic party, turned his attention to answering thousands of letters and telegrams. He will be joined here Friday or Saturday by Jesse Jones, of Texas, sponsor of the Houston convention.

Miss Margaret Churchman, Union street, and guest, George Gillespie of San Francisco, spent the Fourth of July holiday at Lake of the Woods. They will return to Ashland in company with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krum of Honolulu, who have been enjoying an outing at the lake for the past several days. Mr. and Mrs. Krum are spending a few months in Ashland at the home of Mrs. Krum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Appleton on Granite street.—Ashland Tidings.

Klamath Falls people are more than delighted with the announcement of the Southern Pacific that it will build a new line from that point 97 miles south into California. This will give a new outlet for lumber, and the mill men of Klamath Falls are pleased with this additional market. Dr. T. C. Campbell of Klamath Falls, registered at the Multnomah, is of the opinion that the town is the best bet in the state.—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rooney and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Croff of Weid were the holiday house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Rande at 532 North Second. The visitors returned home late this afternoon. Mrs. Croff is the niece of Mrs. Rande and has many friends in Klamath Falls, where she formerly resided and attended Sacred Heart academy.

Fay Stover and Mrs. Vesta Vaughn, both of Klamath Falls, have arrived in Ashland, where they will drive the J. A. Hunsaker taxi, located at the Ashland Flower Shop. Mrs. Vaughn is a sister of Mr. Hunsaker's.

Alexander Peterson returned to Alturas Thursday after spending several days here with friends. Mr. Peterson formerly resided in this city, where he was employed with the Southern Pacific railroad.

Miss Mary Ann Adams of this city spent the Fourth of July holidays in Ashland with friends.

JUST ARRIVED

PURE SILK HOSE

$1.00

Something new in footwear all the time. Come and see for yourself.

BUSTER BROWN
Shoe Store

Notice to Property Owners

In connection with the 65th, 67th, 69th, 71st, 76th, 77th, 78th improvement units, who want private driveway over the sidewalks, are requested to notify the City Engineer's office at once.

Connolly Bros. MEN'S STORE

The best place in town to buy men's clothing. We handle nothing but quality merchandise, and our prices are lower than any store in town, quality considered

Our Suit Sale Will Continue
All This Week

Just Think of It!

$35.00 Suits with 2 pair Pants for

$24.75

Only 18 suits left out of a lot of 50. Now is your chance to save on that New Suit. Saturday will be the last day

Connolly Bros. MEN'S STORE

914 Main St., at the intersection of Tenth St.
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

WINNERS USE

RICHFIELD

SPEED & POWER

...PLUS MILEAGE