

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hine arrived yesterday from San Francisco to spend several days. They registered at the Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Bronken and family motored to Lakeview, where they spent the week-end. They enjoyed a few hours' fishing en route home Sunday.

Dick Besse of Algoma is a business visitor in the city. While here he is a guest at the Hall.

E. C. Ahlstrom was in the city Monday on a brief business trip from his home at Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shambhart and daughter, Virda, who have been visiting here for the past two weeks from their home at Effingham, Ill., are leaving this morning for Portland, where they will visit for some time.

Prof. Ivar Tragarth, chief entomologist of Stockholm, Sweden, arrived in the city yesterday to confer with Paul Keene, who is prominently identified with the United States forestry department.

ment. He is a guest at the Willard while here.

Mrs. H. H. Nelson of Mosier, Ore., is spending several days in the city and is stopping at the Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shambhart and daughter, Virda; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thomas and children, Betty Marie and Jerry; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Smith spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Shambhart near Merrill.

Lloyd DeLap, circuit court clerk, has returned from a fortnight's vacation which he spent in California.

Friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Lydia Sexton is still very ill at the home of her son, Frank Sexton, and has shown no improvement for some time.

Nat Obenchain and Otto Baye were business visitors in the city yesterday from Bly.

F. R. Fridiger, representative for Enders & Co. at Ashland, is in the city on business and is staying at the Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith were host and hostess at a dinner party at their home Monday noon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shambhart and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thomas and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Shambhart.

Among the many who spent Sunday swimming in the cool waters of Crystal Springs near Olney were Jeanette Shultz, Maryellen Bradford, Marjorie and Virginia Peyton, Virginia Richmond, Lorraine Mordoff, Lois Bynon, Esther Vetch, Mildred Davis, Vivian McCauley and Merle Swanson, Lee Pruitt, Howard Pruitt, Alva Shultz, Bill

Amundsen's Last Picture

This perhaps is the last picture to be taken of Captain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, center, receiving best wishes from the Italian Ambassador in Oslo, Norway, before he started northward to search for General Noble and his men. Amundsen and his French pilot, Major Guilbaud, never arrived at Kings Bay, Spitzbergen.

Mathers, Raymond Yarnes, Loren Osborn and Edward Swanson.

J. E. Overdale is spending two weeks in the city from Washington, D. C. He arrived Sunday and registered at the Valley hotel.

F. J. Williams and party arrived here Sunday from Oakland, Calif., to spend a short time with relatives. Mr. Williams is assistant auditor at the Oakland hotel and formerly made his home in this city, where he established the first music store. They are guests at the Valley hotel.

Miss Etta Mathers left Sunday afternoon for Ashland, where she will spend the coming six weeks attending the summer session of art school at the Ashland Normal school. Miss Mathers was recently awarded a scholarship in art.

R. L. Foster and son are guests at the Valley hotel from San Francisco during a business visit here. Mr. Foster represents the Wieland Brothers' Wholesale company.

Mrs. F. L. Mathers of the Midway Beauty Shoppe returned from Portland Saturday evening after spending four days in the northern city on business and pleasure. While there she took lessons and purchased a Realistic Permanent Wave machine, which is now installed in her shop at the Midway Beauty Shoppe.

Marie J. Baker of Portland is a Klamath Falls guest and is visiting Dr. W. L. Mackintosh. While in the city Miss Baker is stopping at the Valley hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Solari of Mt. Shasta, Calif., where Mr. Solari is a prominent banker, merchant and hotel proprietor, are guests at the Valley hotel during a short visit in the city.

Lynn Roycroft, who is connected with the Pacific Finance company, is registered at the Valley hotel from Portland.

O. J. Hill, representing M. Seller, a Portland wholesale company, is a business visitor in the city and is registered at the Valley hotel.

Among the Portland guests who were stopping at the Willard yesterday were: J. W. Hanners, H. O. Peck, W. B. Jamison and Otto A. Corky.

Mrs. Helen Call and Jessie Alexander are Klamath Falls visitors from their home at San Francisco. They are registered at the Willard.

Meredith Hutchens and Joe Evans motored to Kirk Sunday, returning late in the afternoon to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gray of Medford were among the valley visitors who are stopping at the Willard for several days.

The recently married Mr. A. O. Schumacher, of Aberdeen, Washington, is here on his honeymoon, accompanied, of course by Mrs. Schumacher. They will visit Crater Lake and other points of interest while in this part of the state. Mr. Schumacher is employed by the Port of Grays Harbor, being in charge of the electrical work of the port.

G. Q. D'Albini, accountant of Medford formerly connected with the Bonick-D'Albini firm of this city, is in Klamath Falls on a brief business visit. Mr. D'Albini is stopping at the hotel Arcade while here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Deardorff nee Camille Patterson, formerly of Klamath Falls, with their small daughter, Sharon Lee, have returned to their home in Roseburg after a brief visit here with relatives enroute home from Arizona where they visited with Mr. Deardorff's parents. While in Arizona little Sharon Lee was entered in a state baby contest and was voted the most perfect and beautiful child entered. A picture of her as she was entered in the beauty contest, as well as the baby parade appeared in several of the larger papers of the state. She is just ten months old.

Ed Olson of the Golden Rule returned home Sunday evening from Ashland where he spent the week end with his wife and daughter Maxine, who are at the bedside of Mrs. Olson's sister, Mrs. C. E. Dudley. Slight hopes are held for Mrs. Dudley's recovery. She has been in a critical condition for several weeks.

Tom O'Reilly and A. J. Connolly are planning a two weeks' outing and fishing trip to Polson, Montana, one of the most beautiful spots in the state. They plan to visit Glacier National Park. They are making the trip by motor.

W. H. Morgan of San Francisco is at the Earl Shepherd Music store for several days. Mr. Morgan expects to be here for another week on business before returning south.

C. H. Underwood left last evening for Portland on a brief business trip.

Murray Hannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hannon, has accepted a position as City Editor of the Siskiyou Journal of Yreka, California. Mr. Hannon expects to take up his duties this coming week. For the past month he has been enjoying a vacation here with relatives and friends.

Norville Hamilton and Clare Whittle, both connected with Stone's Cash stores left Sunday morning for San Francisco on a two week's vacation. They made the trip south in Hamilton's car and plan to visit a number of cities enroute.

Dick Hannon, farmer of the Tule Lake district, is suffering with an injured knee which he sustained while working in the fields on his ranch. He was in the city on Saturday receiving medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Doremus of Ashland enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake while in Klamath Falls visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bussard of the Pelitiorum.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harvey have returned from Ashland where they visited with friends. They formerly made their home in the valley city.

E. Fitzgibbon of Helena, Montana, is among the visitors in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Fitzgibbon is a guest at the hotel Arcade while here.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Liggett formerly of Klamath Falls and now residents of Kelso, Washington, will be interested to learn they are the proud parents of a baby girl, born July third. The child has been named "Doris Virginia." Mr. Liggett held a position with the Klamath

TO HOLDERS OF

Third Liberty Loan Bonds

The Treasury offers a new 3 1/2 per cent. 12-15 year Treasury bond in exchange for Third Liberty Loan Bonds.

The new bonds will bear interest from July 16, 1928. Interest on Third Liberty Loan Bonds surrendered for exchange will be paid in full to September 15, 1928.

Holders should consult their banks at once for further details of this offering.

Third Liberty Loan Bonds mature on September 15, 1928, and will cease to bear interest on that date.

A. W. MELLON,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, July 5, 1928.

Hardware store while in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Frank Simmons and two daughters, Misses Maude and Betty, have returned home from Ashland where they visited for several days at the home of Mrs. Ellis Oxford. Last winter, Miss Maude attended Normal school at Ashland.

Jean McCall, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. John A. McCall, is seriously ill at the family home. Miss Jean was taken with an attack of illness on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Shepherd of the Earl Shepherd Music store returned Sunday evening from a business trip to Lakeview.

Increased development of the Klamath country is assured by the announcement that the Modoc Northern railroad will build immediately from Klamath Falls southward through Merrill and the Tule lake region and on into Alturas, reports Frank Ward of Klamath Falls, at the Heathman. The line will open up a rich agricultural section which has long been in need of transportation facilities. Construction of the line is to start immediately.

Fred Liskey, rancher of the Malin district, is slowly improving from a fractured skull which he sustained on Fourth of July. He is a patient at the Klamath General hospital.

Mrs. Axel Johnson is confined to the Klamath General hospital where she recently submitted to a serious major operation. Her condition this morning was favorable.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas with their two sons and daughter enjoyed Sunday at Rocky Point on an outing.

Mrs. Mary Hansen has returned from Santa Rosa, California, where she has been for the past fortnight with her son.

After a delightful three weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Downing, Mrs. Sam E. Holden, accompanied by her daughter, Shirley Ann Holden, returned Sunday by motor for her home in San Francisco. Mrs. Downing drove with her daughter to Mt. Shasta City, California, and then took the train back to this city. Mr. Holden met Mrs. Holden and daughter at Mt. Shasta City and motored the rest of the way to San Francisco.

Mrs. Mary Vandenberg and daughter, Cecile, of Portland, returned home on Sunday after spending several days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg. Mrs. Vandenberg and daughter are the mother and sister of Mr. Vandenberg, well known young attorney of this city.

The condition of M. Motschenbacher, well known resident of this city, who is in the Klamath Valley hospital is showing steady improvement. Mr. Motschenbacher submitted to a critical major operation several days ago.

A marriage of interest to people of Klamath Falls was that of July third in Medford when Pat Hogue and Eva Stevens of this city were married. Mr. Hogue has the stage line between Klamath Falls and Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett and family enjoyed a motor trip to Prospect and Crater Lake on Sunday, returning home late Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable and children, Miss Merle Josephine Root and Mrs. Docia Norris enjoyed an outing at the Truax summer home at Rocky Point on Sunday. Mrs. Truax and Miss Root remained at the summer home for a rest of several days, the rest of the party returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary McCauley, mother of Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, is a guest at the Vandenberg home from Portland. She plans to remain here indefinitely, coming south upon receiving word of the arrival of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Vandenberg.

Mrs. C. A. Ca. Maris of Klamath Falls is a patient at the Community hospital, arriving Saturday to avail herself of the advantages of that institution.—Medford Daily News.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gaston Lyon, of Springfield, Oregon, the oldest member of the D. A. R. in the state of Oregon, just recently celebrated her 101st birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Edsall with their son Arlet Edsall and Miss Ethel Nixon have returned from a delightful trip into California where they spent the past fortnight.

Mrs. Verne McClellan of 615 North Seventh street is a patient at the Klamath General Hospital where she recently underwent a serious major operation. Mrs.

McClellan is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fryrear have left by motor for a trip north which will keep them away for at least a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud V. Miller have returned to Ashland. Mrs.

Miller has been visiting here for several days with her mother and sister. Mr. Miller arrived from the valley over the week end to join his wife on her return trip.

Monroe will build a $50,000 union high school.

JACK FROST
SHOE REPAIRING
WHILE YOU WAIT
Women's half soles as low as $1.00 per pair.
Work gloves for men
LADIES' HEEL SPECIALIST
119 South Sixth St.

a cool stroke!

TREE TEA
ORANGE PEKOE

Whether you wield a racquet outdoors, or sit astride a swivel indoors, the heated question of the hour is—"How can I keep cool?" The answer is—Tree Tea Iced! Tomakereallygoodicedtea, you must use a tea of full flavor with strength enough to withstand the dilution caused by pouring over ice.

Tree Tea Orange Pekoe is that kind of tea

STUDEBAKER

The Great Independent

FIRST SHOWING OF FOUR LINES
OF NEW CARS

Irresistible feminine appeal has been added to masculine power in The President, The Commander, The Dictator and The Erskine.

Beauty—Here are delightful new colors from which to choose—with just a dash of antique cunning in the finish of interior door panels and exterior body belt. Smartest of upholstery fabrics in harmonizing shades.

Charm—Here are alluring new features to increase your pride of possession—handsome winged headlamps—flat radiator cap with the same wing motif—slender, graceful radiator design—jaunty "polo cap" visor.

Comfort—Seats of new design—full cushioned, form fitting lounges—adjustable steering wheel—ball-bearing spring shackles give unapproached riding ease—hydraulic shock absorbers—super-brakes which stop the car smoothly, gently in half the standard distance.

These are the cars women have been hoping for—spirited, beautiful, safe, comfortable. Luxury and good taste at One-Price prices.

New President Eight—$1685
—109 horsepower—80 miles per hour

The President Eight . . . $1685 to $2485
The Commander . . . 1435 to 1665
The Dictator . . . 1185 to 1395
The Erskine . . . 835 to 1045

All prices f. o. b. factory.

SEE THESE NEW CARS—ON DISPLAY HERE TODAY

Dunham Auto Co.
Sixth and Oak Streets Phone 52-W

At The Pine Tree
STARTING TODAY
Vaudeville and Feature Picture
ON THE STAGE

ALBERT and ARMOND
"THE SINGING XYLOPHONISTS"

St. John Bros. Acrobatic Novelty | Hubbel Bros. Trio Harmony Songsters | Cardo & Neal Avoirdupois A la Mode

ANETTE GARRET'S DANCE CARNIVAL

ON THE SCREEN
A Smashing Broadway Hit Brought Hilariously to the Screen
"THE GINGHAM GIRL"

with Lois Wilson—the star of "The Covered Wagon" and George K. Arthur—the boy who put laughs in "Rookies"

Coming—THURSDAY and FRIDAY
MARY ASTOR and GILBERT ROLAND in
"THE ROSE OF THE GOLDEN WEST"
A romance of Old California

ICE BOXES

$9.00

While They Last

ALSO A FEW
REFRIGERATORS

Klamath Ice & Storage Co.

661 Spring