National League Play Ruined by Rain Thursday

National League.
Rain poured down on three of the four national league games and the Boston Braves and the Chicago Cubs were the only teams able to play out a game.

Charley Root returned to last year's form and held the Braves to five hits, winning, 4 to 1. It was the first well-pitched game the speed-ball ace has delivered since early spring.

A muddy diamond saved the New York Giants from being massacred by the St. Louis Cardinals. St. Louis winning, 11 to 1.

Ray Moss and Adolpho Luque pitched almost perfect ball for eight innings, only to have the Brooklyn-Cincinnati game called on account of rain. Moss gave the Robins three hits and the Dodgers got six off Luque, neither side scoring.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh did not play.

NORWEGIAN BOAT VICTOR SANDHAMM, Sweden, July 12. (UP)—The Norwegian boat, Figraro V, sailed to victory today in the third and final race against the Salema, American ship, and won the Scandinavian wind cup for six meter craft. The wind was less violent today—supposedly an ideal condition for the American boat—but the Figraro won with ease. Each boat had won two races previously.

Leaders Still Two Games in Lead on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12. (UP)—Sacramento and Hollywood, tied for first place of the Pacific Coast League, drew two full games ahead of their closest competitors with victories today.

The Senators won their second straight game from the San Francisco Seals, 2 to 1. Each team scored once in the first inning but after that the moundmen, Kallio of Sacramento and Moudy of the Seals, kept hits well scattered. A double in the sixth, however, gave the Senators their winning run.

Hollywood scored three times in the eighth inning to beat Seattle, 5 to 2. The Indians tried a ninth-inning rally but only made one run.

The San Francisco Missions trounced Portland, 12 to 2. Mission batters pounded the offerings of three Portland hurlers for 19 hits.

After allowing Oakland two runs in the first inning, Dumovich, Los Angeles pitcher, held them scoreless and the Angels won, 8 to 2. Los Angeles made seven of its runs in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings.

dency over Frank Regan, Rockford, Ill., his nearest competitor. Edgerton received 65 votes and Regan 29.

The nomination of Barney on the second ballot was regarded by the disgruntled or anti-Hoover faction of the party as a victory for them. Barney received 65 votes on the second ballot, five more than was necessary for nomination.

AI Gets Two

The result of the first ballot gave Barney 53 votes; Hoover 42; Aaron S. Watkins, Waynesville, O., 16 and Smith 2.

Hammond and his band of revolvers, numbering between 15 and 20, left the convention hall prior to the balloting, protesting against the insistence of the apparent controlling faction to endorse Herbert Hoover, the republican presidential nominee.

Fearing a split of the party, other delegates followed the Hammond faction into the corridor outside and the discussion became so heated that threats of blows were made. Hammond and several others insisted they would not stand for the tactics being used, but they were induced to return to the convention hall.

Trouble Started

A resolution presented by Clinton Howard, Rochester, N. Y., proposing that the party refrain from the nomination of any candidate for president and calling upon Hoover to declare himself in favor of the principles of prohibition, set off the first fireworks of the day.

More Trouble

The second uprising, which attended the nominating speeches, was far greater than the first, and the convention chairman could not get the delegates back into their seats for several minutes.

This demonstration was started when James M. Templeton, Cary, N. C., placed Governor Smith in nomination.

In nominating Smith, Templeton said:

"I want to place in nomination the name of a man who is known from coast to coast, one who is unafraid to make known the principles for which he stands—Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York."

Howard, leader of the Hooverites, jumped to his feet and demanded to be recognized, shouting:

Declared Insult

"This is an insult; this is an insult."

Delegates rushed through the aisles while the chairman hammered for order without avail. Howard, his face flushed and swinging his arms wildly was in the center of the confusion. Threats of fighting were heard on all sides, but no blows were struck.

Smith's nomination was seconded by a colleague of Templeton from North Carolina and these two votes were cast for the New York governor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Schnadel, recently of Castle Rock, Washington, have purchased an acre tract of ground south of the city on the Kellsmeyer property. The deal was closed through Chicote and Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Schnadel plan to raise chickens and are already busy improving the property.

Sixth Stowaway Will Make Trip

ABOARD S. S. PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, July 13. (UP)—Hugo Leistner, San Francisco hurdler, who missed making the United States Olympic team by a fraction of a second, is going to Amsterdam anyway.

Leistner, who was one of the six stowaways discovered a half hour after the President Roosevelt left New York harbor, has been released from the brig upon receipt of a wireless from W. F. Humphrey of San Francisco, guaranteeing Leistner's passage over and back. The hurdler will not participate in the Olympics.

The three hundred athletes took advantage of the perfect weather today to take a workout on deck. Sprinters sped up and down the cork track which has been laid out, and the swimmers and divers splashed in the large canvas pool.

Cyclists circled the deck, marathon runners jogged five or ten miles, and the boxers and wrestlers swarmed into the special ring which was built for them.

Uniforms were issued to the athletes today. They consisted of white trunks and jerseys, diagonal red, white and blue sashes, and dark blue sweatshirts and trousers.

The women will wear similar uniforms.

Germany Accepts Peace Proposal

examined with the greatest care the contents of the note and the revised draft of the pact which was enclosed. The government is pleased to state that the standpoint of the government of the United States of America as set forth in the note corresponds with the fundamental German conception as it was communicated in the note of April 27, 1928.

Agrees to Changes.

"The German government also agrees to the changes in the preamble of the draft of the pact. It is therefore pleased to be able to state that it takes cognizance of the statements made by the government of the United States of America contained in your excellency's note of June 23, that it agrees to the interpretation which is given therein to the provision of the proposed pact and that it is accordingly ready to sign this pact, in the form now proposed."

Germany First.

Germany thereby becomes the first of the 14 nations invited to become parties to the treaty which has formally signified its willingness to do so.

It is expected that other answers to Secretary of State Kellogg's proposal to renounce war, which will make it possible for the treaties to be signed here early in August, will follow within a week.

Tight Scores in Games, Pitchers Feature in Play

Five closely-fought games were played in the American League Thursday, with six pitchers delivering sterling performances.

The Chicago White Sox batted up-hill all the way in the first game of their double-header with the Philadelphia Athletics and pushed across a run in the ninth inning to win, 4 to 3. Rube Walberg gave the Sox 14 hits and the Athletics collected 40 off Ted Lyons. In the second game Eddie Rommel let Chicago down with six hits and the A's, riding on an early lead, won 5 to 2.

Wiley Moore and Henry Johnson passed too many men, and while Detroit got only eight hits, they had no difficulty in defeating the Yankees, 4 to 2. Stoner pitched well for the winners.

The best pitching of the day was turned in by George Eble, who went 10 innings for the Cleveland Indians and won a 2 to 1 victory over Washington, allowing only five hits.

The St. Louis Browns continued to play smart baseball, and although they were outbid by Boston, they assembled most of their hits in the sixth inning to win, 3 to 1.

Berg Wins From Waters in Bout

CHICAGO, July 12. (UP)—Jack Berg, English lightweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Mickey Waters, Los Angeles, in the ninth round of their scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. Berg's victory advances him to the finals of Promoter Jim Mullens' elimination tournament, where he will meet Billy Petrolle, "the Fargo express."

The winner to meet Lightweight Champion Sammy Mandell early in August.

Berg was far too clever for his California opponent and won every round. The bout was stopped in the ninth to save the coast boxer from further punishment, as he was nearly blinded and "out on his feet."

MORGAN-MARTIN BOUT IS POSTPONED FIFTH TIME

NEW YORK, July 12. (UP)—The fifth postponement of the Tod Morgan-Eddie (Cannonball) Martin junior lightweight title bout was announced today by Promoter Humbert J. Funnay, because of a conflict with three other boxing shows. The bout will be held Saturday night instead of Friday night at Ebbets field, Brooklyn.

WILL DEFEND TITLE

NEW YORK, July 12. (UP)—Corporal Izzy Schwartz of New York will defend his flyweight title against Frisco Grande, Buffalo, N. Y., Filipino, in a 12-round bout at Rockaway, L. I., stadium Friday night.
