in the Golden Dream district. Judge W. B. Barnes and several other men are owners of this mine.

Miss Aileen Loomis, who has been a guest in the city for the past month, has returned to her home in San Diego. Miss Loomis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Loomis, formerly made her home here, and has been visiting a number of friends in the city.

Ralph Farmer, Chiloquin attorney, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Langelet of Lincoln street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a new son at the Klamath Valley hospital yesterday morning. The baby weighed 5½ pounds at birth and has been named Charles Robert. Mr. Langelet is well known here, where he is connected with the American National bank, and Mrs. Langelet is one of the prominent young matrons of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Arens and children left Friday for Prineville, to visit for some time with relatives of Mrs. Arens. They then plan to return to their home in California, making the trip over the Redwood highway. For the past several days Mr. and Mrs. Arens and children have been visiting here with friends. They formerly made their home in this city where they have many friends.

Mrs. R. A. Hunsaker and children have arrived from Farmersville, California, to spend at least a month here visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hunsaker moved to California shortly after the holidays last year and have purchased a tourist park in the southern city.

"The roads are showing steady improvement, and the stage line is now permitted to travel a portion of the trip over the new highway from the Bell ranch half way to the Devil's Garden," Clifford Hogue stated yesterday morning upon leaving for Lakeview with the mail for Lakeview.

A number of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here to attend the eighth encampment of the order will remain over to enjoy a trip to the Lava Beds on Sunday. Captain O. C. Applegate will lead the caravan which will leave here at eight o'clock in the morning from the chamber of commerce. People interested in taking the trip are invited to be at the chamber of commerce. Those wishing to take their cars will be welcomed, according to Captain Applegate.

Mrs. H. Whitehead of Woodland, California, left on Friday morning's train with a relative who has been in ill health for some time. Mrs. Whitehead is returning to her home at Woodland. She arrived in the city yesterday from the south.

Wilbur Kennett, manager of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Store of this city, left for Portland to attend the final rites of Mr. Bowman, president of the concern, who passed away suddenly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murray of Marshfield, formerly of this city, are here for a business visit of several days. They arrived from San Francisco where they have been for several weeks on a vacation trip.

Del Reeder, advertising manager of the Golden Rule, will leave on Saturday for a two week's vacation trip which he plans to spend in Portland and Seattle with relatives and friends.

Miss Merle Palmer of The Golden Rule Store plans to leave Saturday for Spokane where she will visit for two weeks with relatives and friends. Miss Palmer is on her annual vacation.

G. Mornal left Friday morning over the Southern Pacific for the east where he will sail the last of this month for his home in Italy.
