

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. and Mrs. Herb Welch were expected to arrive last evening from their home in Richmond, Calif., to be the guests of Ed Robinson of this city. They are planning to spend the weekend at Lake of the Woods.

Mrs. E. McLamore and two children are visiting here with Mrs. McLamore's father, M. H. Wampler, of Rocky Point. They will return to their home at Richmond, Calif., next Tuesday. Mrs. McLamore will be remembered as Miss Winnie Wampler, who made Klamath Falls her home for many years.

Mrs. Claude Coscomb and two daughters, accompanied by Mrs. Coscomb's mother, Mrs. G. W. White, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Coscomb. Mrs. Claude Coscomb and her mother will leave Monday for points in Washington where they will visit, but her two daughters will remain here with their grandparents until they return.

E. B. Duffy of the Southern Pacific left yesterday for Medford to transact company business, from where he will visit other valley points before returning to headquarters in Portland. He has been transacting business here the past three days, and was stopping at the Valley hotel.

Miss Mildred Davis of the chamber of commerce was reported yesterday as improving from a severe attack of tonsillitis. Miss Davis has been unable to attend to her duties for the past three days.

Claude Coscomb and his father, M. W. Coscomb, enjoyed several days' vacation at East Lake this week on a fishing and outing trip.

Oliver Paynter was in the city yesterday for several hours from the Forest logging camp, where he is employed. Paynter recently injured his leg and was in the city to receive medical attention. He formerly made his home in Klamath Falls, where he attended high school and has many friends here.

Louis Mueller, deputy sheriff, and T. R. Gillenwaters, deputy district attorney, left Friday morning with George Nolan and

E. G. Soto, who will enter the state penitentiary at Salem to serve prison terms. Mueller and Gillenwaters will visit Portland before returning to Klamath Falls Sunday.

Roy Hand and Louise Wynant, both of Klamath Falls, were granted a marriage license at the office of the county clerk Friday.

Mrs. Ralph E. Turner, Mrs. Lowell Ager and small daughter and Mrs. Ray Ager are leaving by motor this morning for a ten days' vacation at Haddon-By-the-Sea. Mrs. Turner is enjoying her annual vacation from her duties in the office of the county clerk.

Golden E. Silvers filed a divorce in the circuit court Friday against Joe D. Silvers, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff asks for $30 a month alimony to care for their minor child, and asks the court to allow her to resume her maiden name of Golden E. Hawkins.

D. G. Tyree, manager of the Copco investment department in Medford, accompanied by Emmett Knackstedt of the engineering department at Medford, were business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, returning to the valley city last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle P. North of Phoenix, Arizona, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew for several weeks. Mrs. North is a sister to Mrs. Drew. During their visit here several social affairs have been held in their honor.

Miss Jacqueline French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer French of Mills addition, has left for a three weeks' vacation trip to Wedderburn, Ore., where she will be the guest of Miss Edith Wakeman, who was formerly a teacher here.

Mrs. Fay Locke has arrived from her home in Portland for an indefinite visit with her mother, Mrs. Frank Oscarson, of Mills addition. Mr. Locke will arrive in a short time to spend a fortnight's vacation here.

G. E. Hosen of Eugene, post-office inspector, is spending several days in Klamath Falls on business. He is a guest at the Valley hotel.

Mrs. T. M. Fanscher of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. M. S. Ingalls of Donald, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnston of Salem made up a party of tourists who spent several days in the city after visiting Crater lake. They were guests at the Valley hotel. They left yesterday for Ashland, from where they will return home over the Pacific highway.

Miss Helen Adams has arrived to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Adams.

J. D. Abrams and B. Brunner, Portland business men, are visitors in the city for several days and are registered at the Valley hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Anderson and William Kilby, all of Lakeview, are spending several days in the city and while here are stopping at the Valley hotel.

Mrs. Al Meissner has returned from Jacksonville, where she was called by the death of her father, W. Obenchain, who passed away at Central Point. Mr. Obenchain was laid to rest at Jacksonville.

William Cole, deputy game warden from Medford, is in the city today. Mr. Cole plans to remain in Klamath county until Sunday.

J. Arant of Ashland, was a business visitor in the city Friday. Mr. Arant formerly made his home in this city.

Mrs. Olga Warren of Ashland is visiting here today. Mrs. Warren is at the Hotel Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller with their children, are enjoying an outing at Lake of the Woods.

A party of 14 prominent people of a number of the eastern states arrived on Friday morning's train from the south en route to Crater Lake. They were members of the Gullies-Kingports and Beard tour. On the first of August another tour of Thomas Cook and Son will make the trip to the lake. Members of the Sierra club will pass through here en route south on August 7.

Mrs. Joseph Justin, accompanied by her daughters, Muriel Ellen and Julianne Joy, are leaving for Oregon City, Portland and other northern cities where they will spend the coming six weeks visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Justin is the wife of Joseph Justin of the Justin-Montgomery clothing store on Main and 5th.

Charles Schaaf of Connolly Brothers is able to be out after an illness of several days during which time he was confined to his home with an attack of appendicitis. It is possible Mr. Schaaf will leave within a few days for Portland to submit to a major operation.

Mrs. George Cunniff of the Cunniff News company is north in Portland, where she will spend a week or perhaps longer purchasing gifts and novelties for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kress of Kelso, Wash., were visiting in Klamath Falls yesterday. They are guests at the Hotel Arcade.

Ada Rice of Chillicothe left yesterday for Sioux City, Iowa, where she will spend at least three months visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCoy are guests at the Hotel Arcade while here on a brief business visit.

Mrs. James Driscoll is expected home this week-end from San Francisco and other points in California, where she has been for the past several weeks visiting. Mrs. Driscoll made the trip by motor.
