Read in September TRUE STORY the fascinating story of this girl who believed that marriage should be a business proposition—and made it so.

All the marriages she knew of seemed to prove that love was blind—so to get her husband she mailed a coupon! Let experts recommend him!—as bankers recommend a bond.

Only this would be a marriage bond. Not an adventure, but an enterprise. A merger of souls, not a union.

And so she found herself traveling—a little frightened now—a thousand dreary miles to meet and marry "Mark Stevenson, age 35. Generous, good-tempered, affectionate, handsome. Plantation owner."

Idly she visioned the quiet luxury and culture of life in the Old South, in the picturesque foothills or Arkansas. These she understood were largely owned by Mr. Stevenson.

Then came an hour that was like a fantastic dream. Could this be Stevenson, the handsome plantation owner, this lean, taciturn stranger she had wed in the dim

Mrs. Burton Advises Women on Motherhood and Companionship

"For several years I was denied the blessing of motherhood," writes Mrs. Margaret Burton of Kansas City. "I was terribly nervous and subject to periods of terrible suffering and melancholia. Now I am the proud mother of a beautiful little daughter and a true companion and inspiration to my husband. I believe hundreds of other women would like to know the secret of my happiness, and I will gladly reveal it to any married woman who will write me." Mrs. Burton offers her advice entirely without charge. She has nothing to sell. Letters should be addressed to Mrs. Margaret Burton, 1417 Massachusetts, Kansas City, Mo. Correspondence will be strictly confidential.
