

Giants Cut Cards' Lead; Senators, Red Sox Winners

By United Press
Winning the first game of the crucial series at St. Louis, Friday, the New York Giants reduced the St. Louis Cardinals' lead to 2-1-2 games. A sacrifice fly by Fred Fitzsimmons scored Lou Terry in the eighth with the run by which the Giants beat the Cards, 3 to 2.

The standing of the two leaders:

St. Louis . . . 76 44 .614
New York . . . 64 42 .598 2-1-2
Rube Bressler's single in the ninth drove Flowers across the plate, the Brooklyn Robins beating the Chicago Cubs, 1 to 0. A whirlwind finish gave the Cincinnati Reds a 2 to 1 victory over the Boston Braves. A walk to Wittmann, Kelly's double, and a single by Lucas gave the Reds two runs in the ninth.

The Pittsburgh Pirates continued their sensational play, beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 10 to 3 and 5 to 1. Pie Traynor made seven hits in eight trips in the two games, driving in eight runs.

American League:
Muddy Ruel's triple with two men on base in the eighth inning gave the Senators a 3 to 1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Jack Russell, Boston pitcher, won his own game with a single in the 11th inning, the Red Sox defeating the Chicago White Sox, 1 to 3.

The Yankees-Indians and Athletics-Browns games were rained out.
