

Fractional Lead Held by Giants, Cards Hold Even

By United Press
National League
The New York Giants maintained their fractional lead over the St. Louis Cardinals Monday, defeating Cincinnati, 5 to 3, while the Cards tamed the Brooklyn Robins, 2 to 1.

The Cards theoretically hold the lead, a half game ahead of the Giants, but the actual percentage gives New York a .002 advantage.

The standings of the leaders:
New York ..... 67 63 609
St. Louis ..... 71 48 507
The Giants had to overcome a two-run lead piled up by the Reds in the first inning to hold their slight advantage but they tied the count in the third and scored the winning runs in the fifth and sixth. Rixey took the mound ahead of his turn in an effort to check the Giants but McGraw's men made 12 hits off him and one off Jablonowski who succeeded him.

With the score tied in the ninth, St. Louis rallied with the run that decided the game. Ernie Opatzki, recruit, substituting at first base for Jim Bottomley, III, scored the winning run after Bailey had singled. Harper had sacrificed. Holm had walked and Wilson had singled. The Robins got only four hits off Frankhouse and Haines.

Having taken the measure of St. Louis, New York and Brooklyn, the Chicago Cubs entertained the tail-end Philadelphia club and lost an 11 to 6 decision. Hack Wilson hit his 28th home run but it was smothered under the barrage of base hits.
The Boston Braves smothered Pittsburgh in a battling game, 14 to 11. The Braves were out-hit, 19 to 17, but their blows were more effective.

Portland will play the Seals here this week, Seattle will play at Los Angeles and the San Francisco Missions will tackle the Oaks at Oakland.

ALTURAS NOSES OUT ALL-STARS

In a game which was decided in the final inning, the Alturas baseball team defeated Red Sanders' aggregation of ball tossers from the Waldorf pool hall Sunday at Alturas, 11 to 1.

The field was in poor shape and, as a result, there were frequent errors; but the fans got a thrill out of the hotly contested game. The terrific slugging of Doc Smith, all-star second sacker, featured the game. Smith socked out two triples and a home run in four times at bat.

Hospitality of Alturas merchants evoked praise from the Klamath visitors. A large feed was provided for the baseball players and Klamath rooters.
The box score: R H E

All-Stars ..... 1 9 15 3

Tennis Tourney Draws Interest

Two new entries have been added to the tennis tournament at Mills Court and the matches will be played off sometime this week. They are Valentine of Bend, brother of the holder of the Central Oregon tennis championship, who will meet C. Richmond, and H. Landis who will play against Huls Thursday afternoon.

Today R. Watt of Modoc Point will play against J. Floyd, and on Wednesday the match between Carter and Cole will be played off. These games are among the finals.

In the Sunday matches Carter eliminated T. Watt of Modoc Point, 6-2, 7-5. Carter played a driving game all through and his serve was working nicely. R. Watt of Modoc Point eliminated C. Pierson also of Modoc Point in three sets of closely played and decidedly fast tennis. Scores stood 7-5, 7-9, 8-6. Robinson, victor over Sheehora, advanced to the quarter-finals when he eliminated Lucas, victor over Anderson.

Floyd eliminated Muellerweiss in a Saturday afternoon match with scores at 6-2, 6-1. Lawson eliminated Rucker, 7-9, 6-1, 6-2. In a match at the court Monday evening Dixon eliminated Lawson in three sets with the first set going to Lawson, 6-2; second to Dixon, 6-3; and third to Dixon 11-9.

SCOTCH DOG IS MONEY FINDER

Shades of Scotland! The ideal dog for a Scotchman has been discovered, a Lewellyn Setter.

W. A. Lawson is owner of the Klamath Sporting Goods store. He is a Scot and proud of it. Lawson owns a Lewellyn Setter given to him by Jack Dempsey. Believe it or not, the other day, the beautiful setter strolled into the store with a rectangular piece of dirty green paper in its mouth.

"Funny thing for a dog to drag in here," mused Lawson as he peered at his prize and joy. "It almost looks like a... no, it can't be; let's see... Whoopee, it is by gory!"

It was a $5 bill. Mrs. Jack Beall, deputy county clerk, has another good one to tell on these scotchishly inclined canines.

One day her Lewellyn returned with an excellent pair of shoes, just a shade too small for her husband. They listened for a minute and then from across the street came an irritated voice:

"Strange, strange—passing strange: I left those darned shoes under this tree and now they're gone."

It was shoeless Jack Slater searching aimlessly about for his lost "dogs."

Lomski Advances Notch, Smith K D'd

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (UP)—Leo Lomski, blonde Pole and leading contender for the lightweight crown now held by Tommy Loughran, knocked out George Smith, Newark, in the fourth round of their scheduled 16-round bout here tonight. The knockout occurred just 50 seconds after the fighters came out to start the round.

Lomski meets Maxie Rosenbloom at Long Branch, N. J., Friday night.

ROBERTO TO MEET SHARKEY
NEW YORK, Aug. 20, (UP)—Roberto Roberti, the big Italian who won on a foul from Johnny Risko last Wednesday, and Jack Sharkey, the Boston strong boy, will meet at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, in September. ### Fighters Getting Into Shape for Friday's Battles

A large crowd of fight fans turned out last night and watched Johnny Francis, headliner on Joe Bickerstaff's card for Friday night, take a four-round workout on Dummy Poole. The fans went home happy, Joe said last night. The rest of the card are working out nightly and are in good shape for the coming fights, according to the manager.

"Speed" O'Grady's manager was in town yesterday to inform the promoter that his man will be in good condition to meet Mickey Walker's protege Karin O'Carroll. Phil Bayes and O'Carroll are expected in today and will probably work out in the Veterans' hall this evening, Bickerstaff said.

Frankie Monroe is training faithfully under the management of his manager, Eddie Dunkin, Harold Wright, pride of the Indian reservation, says Mike Hall is made to order for him and thinks he can K. O. him in three rounds.

Two Indian boys, Chief Finley Wilson, who won his first tussel and Heap-Big-Chief, signs promise a live contest. Ringside seats are going fast. Ashland fans have reserved 50 seats to watch their favorite, O'Grady, "do his stuff." Bickerstaff expects a sell out, he said last night.

LaPine Rifle Shots Out-Shoot Locals

The National Rifle association match staged in Klamath Falls Sunday between the Klamath Rifle club and the La Pine team resulted in defeat for Klamath. The match was close and the Klamath Falls men lost by only a few points.

Delbrugge, of La Pine, was high point man and was responsible to a great extent for his team's victory. Klamath's high man was Machan, who did some fine shooting. The other men on the team were: Frost, Tatlow, Robley, Smith and Kidd. Members of the La Pine team were Delbrugge, Fredrickson, Parker, Howard, Meltenbuger and Amundson.

St. Louis Browns Trounce Athletics

PHILADELPHIA dropped another half-game back in the American league race when the St. Louis Browns scored 9 runs in the last three innings of their game and beat the Athletics, 9 to 2.

Ehmke held the Browns for six innings but they broke loose in the seventh. Neither Bush nor Rommel who succeeded Ehmke could stem the tide. Ogden held the Athletics to four hits.

Red Faber, took the mound for the Chicago team and led them to a 6 to 4 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Arthur Shires, recruit first baseman from the Texas league, made his debut with the White Sox, hanging out four hits in five trips to the plate.

VESSELS IN DISTRESS
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20, (UP)—Two fishing vessels were reported in distress today after striking rocks near the coast. The schooner, Mawema was being pounded to pieces at Tolstol Point, in the Bering sea, and the trawler Ideal was ashore 15 miles south of Point Reyes. Crews on both vessels were believed saved, but the ships and cargoes may be lost, it was reported.

Very wisely the farmer allows the town man's advice to go in one ear and out both.

Prescriptions from the Pine Tree and Square Deal Drug Stores can be refilled at any time at the Pelican Drug Co., next to Pine Tree Theatre.—adv. 20-4f.

George Henneford

There is one clown in the Sells Photo Circus, which comes to the city on Saturday next, August 25, who is not hired as a clown but whose salary is greater than that of any other performer. He is George Henneford of the famous English family of equestrians. His clown make-up creates laughter during the most hazardous moments of his act. In any other costume the originality and daring of his horsemanship would thrill an audience with admiration. Laughter would be the one impossible form of expression. His daring, originality and acrobatic cleverness is worthy of the expressions of serious appreciation to the artist that he is.

George Henneford has a philosophy that makes him shun the set and serious laurels. He would rather make one little boy laugh than listen to the tumultuous appreciation of ten thousand men and women. Unquestionably the greatest bareback rider of his day, he deliberately plans to baffle the attitude of the audience toward his daring skill. His clown make-up, does the tricks and when George Henneford rides, there comes to his audience the thrill of joy rather than the heart-grip of apprehension for the safety of the performer.

The Henneford family act is only one of the great exhibitions of riding to be seen in the Sells Photo this season. Many others of the world's leading equestrians will perform on horses that are admittedly the most beautiful to be found in this country.

Gene Near Dublin Welcome Planned

DUBLIN, Aug. 20, (UP)—Gene Tunney, retired champion of the heavyweights, now aboard the S. S. Mauretania, today radioed John McCormack, noted Irish tenor, that he would arrive in Dublin Thursday. He expressed a desire for a quiet unostentatious entrance.

"I regard my visit in the nature of a pilgrimage to a sacred shrine," he said. Despite the retired champion's wishes, arrangements have been made here for a big reception. Three members of the Tall Easann games council will meet Tunney at Holy Head and later a procession will proceed from the Dublin railroad depot to the Grand ham hotel, where he will make his headquarters.
