

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Louis are leaving this morning for San Francisco after visiting their daughter, Mrs. Bill Jones, formerly known as Constance Schallack. They were accompanied north by Mrs. Jones of Palo Alto, Calif., mother of Mr. Jones. Mrs. H. N. Moe will leave with them this morning for the south, where she will spend the coming fortnight visiting.

Miss Gertrude Parker, sister of Mrs. E. S. Veatch, and Miss Augusta Parker of Fremont school, is spending the week-end in the city from Medford, where she is teaching this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Wray Lawrence left last night by motor for Medford and Ashland, where they will spend the week-end with relatives and friends.

J. B. Stuart, representative of the Upjohn Drug company, with headquarters at Eugene, has been among the business visitors in the city this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton left yesterday for the W. C. Dalton ranch near Malin, where they will spend the week-end.

Among the county teachers who were in the city Saturday were: Miss Mildred Kieger, Chemult; Dorothy Short, Henley; Hills McCall, Midland; Doris Watson, Hildebrand; R. B. Hough, Altamont; Jennie Reinhardt, Mt. Laki; Stella Bowne, Bonanza; Lester Turnbaugh, Merrill; Margaret Freuer, Upper Post valley; Alice Tomlin, Plevna; Anabel Brown, Olney; Letha Miller, Reno; Lucille Dawson, Lone Pine; and Earl Reinhardt, Lamons.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Metcalf left yesterday for Ashland, where they will spend the week-end with Mr. Metcalf's parents, who reside near the valley city.

Miss Lila Moe was unable to attend to her duties in the book-keeping department of Moe's store Saturday on account of illness, which confined her at home. Miss Moe is suffering with a severe cold.

Miss Delia Hawkins and Mrs. Edward Despain are expected home today from Corvallis, where they have been spending the past two weeks with friends at Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Zumwalt had as their house guests the past week Mr. Zumwalt's mother of Portland and his sister of Lovelock, Oregon.

Mrs. Louis Mandros of Owens street submitted to a serious operation at the Klamath Valley hospital this past week. At last reports she was recovering slowly. Mrs. Mandros has been ill for the past month.

Miss Winnifred May, who is attending Ashland normal school, is spending the week-end in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. May.

Mrs. C. W. Miller is expected to arrive home today, after spending the past several months in Severy, Kansas, where she visited her mother.

Alpha Delta Pi at the University of Oregon is heading the grade list, with the Alpha Delta Pi chapter at Corvallis ranking second on the list. This will be interesting to Klamath Falls residents, since several well known Klamath Falls girls are members of this sorority, including Miss Edna Dunbar and Miss Jeanette Shultz at Eugene, and Miss Delia Hawkins at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Roos and son, Jack, Walter Roos and Ed Vonderhaeghe, all of Portland, were members of a hunting party who have enjoyed hunting ducks the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roos and son left yesterday morning for California on a vacation tour and Mr. Vonderhaeghe and Walter Roos are planning to remain here for further hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, who have been residents of Klamath Falls during the summer months, have returned to their home in Marshfield. Mr. Patterson was employed here on street work.

Mrs. Hall, niece of J. A. Maddox, contractor of this city, has arrived from the East to visit here for some time.

Mrs. C. H. Wallace of Ashland arrived in the city Friday to visit for a brief time with her daughter, Miss Wanda Wallace of the Klamath Dye Works. Mrs. Wallace is at the city today, visiting with a sister, Mrs. Edward Wallace, who is seriously ill.

After several months confinement to his home, suffering with broken limbs, John Farnell, one of the well-known old-time residents of Klamath Falls, was on the street Saturday enjoying the sunshine and greeting old friends. For years he has been a familiar figure on the streets, and during these many months he has been ill his friends have missed him greatly.

Gangplank down tomorrow morning, showing the greatest display of men's suits, overcoats, shirts, hats, shoes, and work clothes that we have ever been permitted to make at any season.

Walter Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart of the Spring Lake county, will leave today for the University of California hospital, where he will remain indefinitely for medical attention. His hosts of friends are hoping the treatments which he plans to take will prove beneficial to his health, which has been so poorly for many months. His father will accompany him south, and will also receive medical attention while in California.

Bishop Titus Lowe, who was recently appointed to the Portland area of the First Methodist church, will be the week-end guest of Rev. and Mrs. Frank L. Wemett. Bishop Titus will speak at the dinner on Monday evening which the ladies of the local church are planning.

A marriage of interest is that of Everett Wiman and Miss Jennie Robertson. The young couple were married on Thursday evening at the Immanuel Baptist church. Rev. R. R. Mulholland performed the ceremony. The immediate families of the young couple were present. After a motor trip to Montana Mr. and Mrs. Wiman will be at home to their friends in this city. They plan to leave by motor for the north on Thursday.

For those wishing to attend the seventh annual dinner of the Klamath County Health association, reservations must be made as soon as possible. The dinner will be held at the Pelican grill banquet room on the evening of Friday, October 12. Reservations can be made through calling Harry Hill of Hill's Flower shop at phone 1118. Mr. Hill is anxious that everyone make reservations as soon as possible. Mrs. Sadie

Orr Dunbar of Portland will give the principal address of the evening.

Clyde Warren, deputy fire marshal of Portland, is in Klamath Falls today on an inspection visit.

Friends of Mrs. Lowell Dunn will be interested to learn her condition shows improvement. Mrs. Dunn has been seriously ill at the family home for some time.

A concert will be held at the First Christian church this evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Van Fleet, Wendell Smith and Allen Scovell will be the soloists for the evening.

The ladies of St. Mary's Altar society have decided to hold the annual bazaar on November 22 and 24 in the Legion hall.

Jack Cole left Friday for San Francisco, where he was called by the critical illness of Mrs. Cole. Late Friday Mrs. Cole submitted to a serious major operation in the southern city.

T. Ahern, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific, making headquarters in Sacramento, was in the city on official business Friday.

Charles Slauson, general agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters in Sacramento, visited here Friday, en route north to Eugene to attend the football game. One of Mr. Slauson's sons plays on the U. of O. team.

Wisconsin Drubs Notre Dame 22-6

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 6. (UP)—An untried Wisconsin team defeated Knute Rockne's hosts from Notre Dame 22 to 6 today when Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite's fighting Badgers opened the season before a crowd of 35,000.

Three touchdowns, a safety and two extra points after the touchdowns measured the supremacy of the Badgers over the South Bend boys, whose best effort was a single touchdown.
