Wilson Wiley to Be Prosecutor

polled by the fact that if he had continued as prosecutor up to the first of the year he would have been disqualified to sit in judgment over various criminal cases which came to a head during the last few weeks and which would be handled by his office up to the first of the year.

D. E. Fletcher, prominent Klamath Falls attorney, was Mr. Wiley's most prominent opponent for the office.

When informed of the Associated Press dispatch telling of his appointment Mr. Wiley said: "I am naturally gratified over the action of the governor and deeply sensible of the recent efforts in my behalf.

"Because the district attorney's office has been vacant since Mr. Duncan's resignation, I shall immediately take office and undertake the responsibilities and duties of my position.

"There is one main duty which rests on the shoulders of a prosecutor—to assist in the enforcement of laws and to conduct prosecutions fearlessly and without prejudice or favoritism. In brief, that shall be my policy during my incumbency."

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 20.—(AP)

D. E. Fletcher of Klamath Falls, who is a candidate for the appointment to succeed W. M. Duncan as district attorney for Klamath county, conferred with Governor Patterson yesterday. Duncan was elected circuit judge for his district.

EARTH TREMOR STRIKES TOWN

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 20. (UP)—Asheville sustained its third earth tremor last night at 10:47 o'clock when a distinct shock was felt over the entire section of western North Carolina. The shock was of less intensity than that of Nov. 1.

Slight damage was reported. Eastern Tennessee towns telephoning into Asheville advised that tremors were also felt there. The shock here was more severe in the fashionable Beaver Lake and Grove Park sections than in the business district.

Better Than Any Diet

Pay less attention to what you eat, not one person in a thousand needs diet; or ever really has indigestion. Acidity, flatulence and heartburn are caused by excess stomach acid and food fermentation.

Following a heavy lunch, or too hearty a dinner, a little "Pape's Diapepsin" instantly neutralizes excess acidity, stops that fermentation, and soothes and heals the acid-inflamed stomach lining as if by magic. Your recovery is quick, and complete. Make a special point of getting a 60-cent package of "Pape's Diapepsin" from your druggist today, and so follow the example of millions all over the world who use "Pape's Diapepsin" to end indigestion and allied stomach troubles.

With "Pape's Diapepsin" handy you can eat and enjoy whatever you fancy without fear of pain or discomfort to follow. At any rate, it's worth the trial, for lots of folks have found a new freedom at the table.

Hoover Doctrine May Be Adopted

lost by the halt, as the big battleship was making as high as 18 knots an hour tonight to keep well ahead of schedule.

The possibility of a "Hoover doctrine" to supplement the Monroe doctrine in the relations of the United States with Latin and South American countries was advanced today by observers on the trip.

Theories Revised

The speculation was aroused by a noticeable subordination of the usual Monroe doctrine theories in all preliminary publicity for Hoover's tour. Although obviously Hoover will not ignore the time-honored cornerstone of United States foreign policy, it is pointed out that the immediate significance of the Monroe doctrine tends to diminish because of the increasing probability that any European country will interfere with American affairs.

Consequently, it was pointed out that the present time is favorable for development of a new basis doctrine to promote cooperation with the American republics. Such a restatement of policy would be of advantage in diverting public interest in all republics from the Monroe doctrine, which frequently is twisted to obscure the real merits of the particular issues.

Views Unannounced

The president-elect's views are as yet unannounced, but observers, commenting on Hoover's probable action, pointed out that it would be characteristic of him to seek a genuine but unemotional friendship. At the same time he would be adverse to interfering in the affairs of others.

The president-elect conferred with Ambassador Henry Fletcher today, completing the itinerary of the trip.

Hoover appears to be in excellent health. He takes keen interest in his "great adventure" and follows the course of the ship charts. He has been smoking a pipe on board ship.

The weather has been ideal.

Itinerary Announced

The itinerary of Herbert Hoover's good-will mission for the western coast of Central and South America was announced tonight as follows:

Amalapa, Honduras, November 23.

Launjon, Salvador (10 miles from Amalapa), November 25.

Corinto, Nicaragua, November 26.

Punta Arenas, Costa Rica, November 27.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, November 30 (date uncertain).

Callao, Peru, December 3.

Valparaiso, Chile, December 7.

The cities given are the ports where the president-elect's party will land and embark. The date of landing at Guayaquil may be changed by a day or two.

Unfavorable landing conditions prevent a call at Guaymas. It was announced, and the considerable diversion which would be required to stop at Panama, Colombia and Bolivia prevent calls in those countries on the southward journey.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 20. (UP)—The new Philadelphia grade teachers are on vacation.

Five States Hit By River Floods

the state. Thousands of acres of land were flooded and homes swept away, causing widespread suffering.

The Cumberland and Kentucky rivers rose in Kentucky, flooding five counties in the eastern part of the state. Driftwood carried a bridge away at Terjay, drowning three men.

Parapets Torn Out

The latest attack of the fall flood waters on the man-made parapets which ordinarily held the Mississippi river in its course, tore down the levees at Quincy, Ill., flooding approximately 12,000 acres of rich farm lands on both the Illinois and Missouri sides of the stream. Lowlands in southeast Iowa also were flooded.

Millions of dollars' damage was done to the section in western Illinois near Quincy, alone. Damage to crops and livestock in other sections of Illinois and Missouri will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Missouri on Rampage

The river has fallen a foot in the last 24 hours.

The Missouri river went out of its banks at many points in Missouri.

Train schedules in both Missouri and Arkansas were in disorder, and in many cases trains were cancelled.

Red Cross workers were sent from midwestern headquarters at St. Louis to offer aid to the sufferers in the stricken districts. Food and pure drinking water has been sent to many points where spread of disease was threatened.

The weather bureau predicted that warmer weather would prevail the remainder of the week in Kansas. Farther south, however, in the Carolinas, Virginia, Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia, near freezing temperatures were recorded in the first cold snap of the season.

OFFICE CAT By JUNIOR

"Where there's a wheel there's a way," isn't there William? The vicar was talking very severely to one of the younger members of his flock.

"William," he said, "I have been hearing dreadful tales about you. If all I hear is true, you are engaged to one girl in this village, another in Little Muddleigh and a third in Dittley. How can you ever do such a thing?"

William grinned uneasily. "Why, parson," he exclaimed, "I've got a motorcycle."

He Was Not a Gloom

The storm was increasing in violence and some of the deck fitting had already been swept overboard, when the captain decided to seep up a signal of distress. But hardly had the rocket burst over the ship when a solemn-faced passenger stepped on the bridge.

"Captain," he said, "I'd be the last man on earth to cast a damper on anyone, but it seems to me that this is no time for letting off fireworks."

Most of the girls now have impromptu complexions. They make them up as they go along.

"Less than two years ago," said the professional booster, with a wide sweep of his arms to include a new outlying area of his city, "this was all farm land."

"Is that so?" said the visitor, who was somewhat artistic and had a sense of beauty, as he looked over the shacks, pools of stagnant water, abandoned motor cars, and so on. "Is that so? That's too bad."

At a show, concert or lecture if your chair seems uncomfortable it is a sign that the entertainment is below standard.

New Stenographer: "What is your rule of punctuation?" Average Business Man: "I dictate as long as I can hold my breath and then I want a comma; when I yawn, I want you to put in a semi-colon, and every time I light anew cigar, you must start a new paragraph."

Glady: "I suppose you're happy, now that you are to marry George." Clarice: "Yes, but he says I've got to return all of Fred's campaign gifts."

Audience Enjoys 'Benefit Musicale'

very excellent musical organizations and its personnel claims men and women of excellent musical ability and fine citizenship as well.

Mrs. Claudia Spink Lorenz sang "Tis the Day" (R. Lionel Avallo), and as an encore selection she delighted her audience with "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" (James A. Bland).

Miss Ramsby Plays

Miss Betty Ramsby made the interior of the auditorium cheerful with her piano number, "Autumn (Chaminade), and gracefully responded to a hearty encore. Miss Ramsby is one of the popular musicians of southern Oregon.

"Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind" (Roger Quilter) was sung by Howard Graham. Mr. Graham is a favorite in Klamath Falls. His voice is rich and his tones are rounded out, making him a singer of great promise.

Varying the musical program, the next number was a selection by Miss Ruth Vauclie in reading. She chose "Guying the Guides," taken from Mark Twain's "Innocents Abroad." First, she took her audience to Europe on a sight-seeing trip and while in foreign lands she described some of the interesting sights as presented by the energetic French guide.

It was this dialogue between the Frenchman and the English traveler that brought out Miss Vauclie's ability as a reader. Her enunciation was clear, her facial expression was excellent, and with her pleasing personality, she sent her interpretation of the famous Mark Twain selection straight to her audience in a most pleasing way.

Mrs. Vore Sings

"Valse Nacaire" (Gedowsky and Kreisler), played on the violin by Miss Katherine Walton, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, was a number greatly appreciated. Miss Walton is an artist and her rendition of this difficult number once more won for her the sincere appreciation of the music lovers who were present.

The closing number on the splendid program was given by Mrs. A. J. Vore, who chose "Je Sais Titania," from Mignon (A. Thomas). That she chose a number suited to her soprano voice was evident, for every tone was bell-like. A most difficult selection it is, and only singers with intense training ever attempt it. Mrs. Vore gave her audience a real treat in that number.

At the Pine Tree

Laughs ring long and loud at the Pine Tree this week for the management has assembled a prize collection of mirth-provoking film entertainment such as we have never witnessed before.

This is entirely as it should be, however, and more than fulfills in every way the promises of the theatre in advertising their current program as "a carnival of comedy," in celebration of "Joy week."

"Dance Tactics" is the highlight of the five-act bill at the Pine Tree theatre this Tuesday, and Wednesday, where variety will take up the principal section of the double bill.

A quintette of clever young artists presented by Helen Clifton make up the personnel of "Dance Tactics," with Betty and Jess looking after the Spanish, Paul indulging in the Russian, and Brock with taps and buck wing numbers offering most of the eccentric. Dainty Marie officiating at the Ivories is an accomplished accompanist and a talented musician.

Billed as "The International Comedian," Stuart Barns is a big-time funster with his own specially written comedy bits that include a lot of topical humor as well as some satire that is refreshing in its originality.

Youth and ability to please are the outstanding features of the offering of Nevin and Dawes a peppy couple with song and dance tendencies.

Clare Vance, a comedienne with a way of her own, and a repertoire of popular song hits, is always a welcome addition to any program.

With Roman ring aerial stunts and some clever feats of contortion Morales Bros. and Daisy give the show a speedy send-off. Some of their gymnastics are breath-taking.

Revel Moore sent to Hawaiian Islands

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20. (UP)—The assignment of Revel S. Moore, of Los Angeles, as chief of the United States bureau at Honolulu was announced here today.

Moore, at present in charge of business operations of the United Press in southern California, will sail for Hawaii this week to relieve H. K. Ekins, transferred to the foreign department of the United Press in New York.

MANY TIMBER TRACTS SOLD

ROSEBURG, Nov. 20. (UP)—Timber valued at $159,260.43 standing on 18 different tracts of Grant lands and in eight counties of western Oregon was sold by officials of the United States land office here Monday. Practically $1,000,000 worth of additional timber that had been appraised by the government and advertised to be sold on this date failed to bring satisfactory bids and so remained unsold.

The most valuable tract sold was purchased by the Coos Bay Lumber company for $85,170. There were 526 acres in the tract.
