

CITY BRIEFS

Miss Ethelwyn O'Flaherty is improving at her home on Jefferson street after an attack of influenza. Miss O'Flaherty is editor of the 1929 El Rodeo, high school annual.

After being postponed a week, the bazaar being sponsored by the Helping Hand society of Malin will be held Friday, December 7. Short plays and other forms of entertainment will fill the fore part of the evening. A number of booths will display articles for sale.

Hubert Farrar, formerly of this city, has returned here for a visit from Wasco, Idaho, and is now a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Wilson.

Ben C. Day, Portland attorney, was transacting business and visiting friends in the city Wednesday. Mr. Day is well known in the city, since he makes frequent trips here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis of San Francisco, who are visiting here, and Mrs. H. N. Mee, enjoyed a motor trip yesterday to Fort Klamath, where they visited the Rosemere ranch home.

Mrs. C. E. Anders was able to resume her position in the store department of Moe's store yesterday after an illness of several days.

A double wedding ceremony was performed Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Frank L. Wemett at the Methodist parsonage. Joseph T. Ward and Dorothea Marie Gathwright became man and wife.

Mary Pickford's Sister Beaten

Here is Lottie Pickford, sister of Mary, as she appeared after being kidnaped, beaten and robbed. Miss Pickford and her escort, Jack Daugherty, were returning from a night club in Los Angeles about 3 a. m., when four men attacked them, knocking Daugherty unconscious and carrying Miss Pickford into the hills where she was beaten and robbed. She was later released.

NEWS OF KLAMATH COUNTY

Written by Special Correspondents, Exclusive to the Klamath News

MODOC POINT

MRS. J. C. KAUBLE
News Correspondent

MODOC POINT, Ore., Dec. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McGee motored to Klamath Falls Saturday to dinner and enjoyed the show, "Our Dancing Daughters," which was the picture showing at the Pine Tree theater.

Harold Wimer, and Mrs. Myrtle Van Woerner were callers at the J. C. Kauble home Friday afternoon.

Darl Gideon and Mrs. Ruth had a narrow escape from injury last week when the sedan in which they were riding was struck by a highway truck. The sedan was injured to the extent of a smashed wheel and broken axle.

Among those from this community who were shopping in the city Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox and daughter, Viola, granddaughter, Isaac; Mrs. J. C. Kauble, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McGee, Mrs. C. J. Salton and son, Conley; Mr. and Mrs. William Cluskey, Mr. and Mrs. Carlsson, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Engeline, and Mr. and Mrs. Hixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Helm, formerly of Modoc Point, are expected to return this week from Bellingham, Wash.

Mrs. W. Williams and Mrs. Ellis McGee are owners of new White electric sewing machines. Mrs. William Van Dekker, Sr., is still improving after a major operation.

Francis Simpson is confined to his home with illness this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Knauss are among the residents of this community who are confined at home with illness.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlson is improving after a serious attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. A. Jacobson, Mrs. Carl Swanson motored to Klamath Falls Monday afternoon.

Harold Wimer and Mrs. Myrtle Van Woerner, formerly of Modoc Point, were married at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Port Klamath.

Allen and Maurine Seymour of Portland were the week-end guests of Mrs. William McCluskey.

Mrs. Roy Warner of Chiloquin visited with Mrs. Norris Sholt Monday.

Mrs. W. Emerson of Chiloquin called at the J. C. Kauble home Tuesday.

Marriage licenses were granted Wednesday to Daniel W. Jackson and Vivian Cobb, both of Algoma; Joseph T. Ward and Dorothea M. Cartwright, both of Klamath Falls.

J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, was back at his desk Wednesday after a two weeks' vacation spent in southern California.

SPRAGUE RIVER

MRS. MILDRED DALY
News Correspondent

SPRAGUE RIVER, Ore., Dec. 6.—Mrs. R. E. Wolford is able to be up and about again after being confined to her home with a severe cold.

Mrs. Daniel Waan has been ill for the past week with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Orling and children spent Thanksgiving in Klamath Falls with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Raw and Mr. and Mrs. Richards were shoppers in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Mrs. William Daly entertained a number of the younger matrons of Sprague River with bridge at her home on Friday afternoon. Herb honors went to Mrs. Richards, while consolation fell to Mrs. Dunlap.

Mrs. Marcella Raw, a teacher at Port Klamath, spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith.

MALIN HIGH NOTES

MALIN, Ore., Dec. 6.—"Yes, we enjoyed our Thanksgiving holidays very much. No, we didn't get sick afterwards, because mother's castor oil bottle was too handy." This was the summary of the students' Thanksgiving holidays as they entered school the following Monday.

Beth Kirkpatrick, '28 graduate of the Malin high school, and Earl Jackson, '26 graduate of Henley high school, were married Wednesday, November 28, at Klamath Falls. The young people will make their home at Henley in one of the Halley houses. They were chartered last Saturday night by the people of the Henley community.

After having been postponed, the annual bazaar given by the Helping Hand society of Malin will be held this coming Friday. The entertainment to be given at the first part of the evening will consist of short plays, and various other forms of amusement. After that, booths will be opened. Candy, pie and fancy work and embroidery are samples of the different things to be offered for sale.

Many students of the Malin high school spent an enjoyable evening December 5 at the Bohemian Sokol dance. The old-fashioned dances were featured mainly the polka and beseda. A great amount of enthusiasm was shown by the young folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Poole and Phyllis Marie Poole of Henley spent the holiday with Mrs. Poole's parents, Mrs. Poole was formerly Miss Rosie Honzik, a '26 graduate of the Malin high school.

Miss MacMillan, instructor in English, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Klamath Falls with friends. She had planned to go to her home in Lebanon, but changed her plans.

Miss Powers, instructor in commerce, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of her grandparents in Anderson, Calif.

Several students of Malin high school attended the Copco dance at Klamath Falls Thursday night. The hall was decorated with colored lights. They all reported a good time.

Mrs. Mahlon Landis is confined to the home of her sister, Mrs. Will Houston, suffering with a severe attack of influenza. Her daughter Barbara is also ill. Both mother and daughter are reported improving.

We're Setting the Pace in Value-Giving With Such High-Grade

OVERCOATS

Brought to You Through 5-Store Buying Power at

What a real pleasure to shop for an overcoat at the Brownsville—hundreds of fine coats from which to select are here at $25.00. Every feature found in much higher priced garments are in evidence in this group, too—

- Pure Wool Fabrics—
- Single or Double Breasted Models—
- Light or Dark Colors—
- Full Run of Sizes—

Light weight, snappy-looking topcoats—or big, heavy overcoats, if you prefer. All the latest browns, grays, tans, ox-fords, navy blues, blacks, etc. You'd pay $30 or $35 anywhere in town for their equal—you pay $25.00 here!

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILL STORE

COR. MAIN AND FIFTH STS.

AT THE LIBERTY

Thursday and Friday

Lars Hansen
Pauline Starke
Marceline Day
Ernest Torrence

In a captivating Sea Story

"CAPTAIN SALVATION"

— PINE TREE —
THURSDAY and FRIDAY
"Steal My Man, Will You!"

THE BARKER

with MILTON SILLS and DOROTHY MACKAIL

BETTY COMPSON and Doug. Fairbanks, Jr.

It's the real life, stark, undorned! A Hula queen fights for the right to be loved. A snake charmer turns temptress and steals white kisses from a yokel's lips. A father fights to keep his son straight. While all the time the barker smiles and spiels of the joy and fun behind the canvas!

From the Broadway Play that Received More Praise Than Any Show in the Last Five Years!

held Friday, December 7. A large and varied supply of beautiful articles which will make ideal holiday gifts will be displayed for sale in the booths.

Mrs. L. V. Ackerman, sister-in-law of Mrs. Bert Hawkins, who arrived here not long ago to make her home, left Wednesday for the east, called by the death of her mother at the family home in Omaha, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Raymond and Mrs. G. F. Roberts are visiting in the city for a short time from their home in San Francisco.

All those who have contributions to make for the Angel bell and box which members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are shipping from this city December 19 are asked to leave them at the Glover Jewelry store, where Mrs. Warren Hunt will rather them for packing and shipping.

The condition of Bill Burke, captain of the city police force, was reported last night as improved. Burke became ill Sunday with an attack of influenza.

E. J. Goodrich, who was in charge of the Klamath Falls Red Cross drive, has returned from a business trip to Oakland, Calif.

Tourists going to New Mexico through southern California will be granted permits of 30 days free of charge, according to word which has been received at the information booth of the chamber of commerce from the Automobile Club of Southern California. The permit can be obtained at the custom house at Tia Juana. When tourists plan to remain 30 days the cars should be bonded and the fee for this is about $10.

Teachers of the city schools and their friends will gather at the Winter Gardens Friday evening for a dancing party. The Jack Bowring orchestra will provide the music. This is one of the affairs being sponsored this winter by the Klamath Falls Teachers' association.

E. B. Henry, county engineer, is confined to his home with an attack of influenza.

Frank Sexton and Fred Peterson motored to Merrill and Malin yesterday where they visited the schools.

Fredrich Piper has returned to Portland from Klamath Falls, where he and his partner, J. H. Van Horn, maintain an office for legal work for one of the railroads. At Klamath Falls lives A. B. Ashurst, who with Messrs. Piper and Van Horn owns and operates the White Horse mine near Gold Hill. The trio have the mine going 24 hours a day and are well satisfied with the results. The three men have not even incorporated, nor are they selling stock, but just figure they have a pretty good thing and are getting a kick out of being mine owners as well as lawyers.—The Oregonian.

For Business Opportunities In West Klamath, see Slater Investment Co.

The Gift of Gifts
Columbia Portable

What Gift Will Give Such Real and Lasting Pleasure?

$17.50 to $50.00

Give records, too Give Columbias, the records without a scratch.

"Get it at Magill's"

Magill Drug Co.
528 Main Phone 270

For Business Opportunities In West Klamath, see Slater Investment Co.

For results use News Class Ads.

Now is the time to buy lamps

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

Houses and Lots—of Light

Know the convenience of having lamps on hand ready to replace burnouts as they occur. Buy lamps by the carton.

This attractive toy house carton contains six Edison MAZDA Lamps. Order a carton or two now. Fill your empty sockets and get a novel toy for the children.

You may secure house cartons of various sizes of lamps at the following new low prices:

Six 25 watt lamps $1.20	Six 50 watt lamps $1.32
Six 40 " " 1.20	Six 60 " " 1.32
Six 100 watt lamps $2.10

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

OFFICES:
Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls—Oregon
Yreka, Dunsmuir—California