CHILOQUIN

W. J. KERRIGAN (News Correspondent)

CHILOQUIN, Jan. 12. (Special) - Louis Polin, prominent business man and agent for the News in this city, will leave his car on Sunday to enjoy a ski trip to the Fort Klamath ski resort. Polin is always interested in sports. He was at one time a neighbor of the late Tex Rickard and went with Rickard to Havana, Cuba, to aid Rickard in showing a fight there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy D. Arnold, Mrs. Arnold's sister and Mr. and Mrs. Wheat will enjoy a ski trip into the Fort Klamath district Sunday.

Little Rose Emma DuVal will be the honor guest at a birthday dinner tonight at the home of Mrs. P. Miller in West Chilcoquin, at which Mrs. R. M. Wright will be hostess. After a birthday supper, guests adjourned to the drawing room, where they enjoyed dancing before they attended a theater party at the local theater. Guests present were: Bennett Weeks, Harold Wright, Mrs. Pansy Prather, W. J. Kerrigan, Rufus Hicks, Mrs. P. Miller, Mrs. R. M. Wright, and John Nelson, and the honor guest.

Chris Cronis, of the Quality cafe, expects to make a business trip to Klamath Falls early next week.

John Martin, popular pool room man, opened his new pool room in the Hoesig block today. He has host to many friends and acquaintances when he served barbecued sandwiches and coffee. He received many telegrams from Cook Bay, his former home. The new pool room and lunch counter are equipped with the latest and best in their line. The pool hall is especially popular with men engaged in the lumber industry in this section.

Business in Chilcoquin is good. Roy Duffenbacker, local barber, says that business is the best in 10 years that he has been here. He reports that there are more men employed than usual. Miss "Ole" Enstake, chief operator at the local telephone exchange, says that December business greatly exceeded that of November.

Rev. J. Parker, pastor of the Full Gospel church, will hold a meeting Sunday at 2:20.

Inspector Roberts of the U. S. Indian Service is checking over the books at Klamath Agency. He is from Washington, D. C.

A. J. Sprague, division official of the Southern Pacific company, spent yesterday in this city.

Paul Saether, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Saether, of Pine Ridge, passed away in this city Saturday evening at 6:23 o'clock, following an illness of several days' duration. In addition to his parents he leaves to mourn his passing a brother, Brebner. He was aged 6 years at the time of his demise. The remains are in the pink room of the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine avenue at Sixth, where friends may call. Announcement of funeral arrangements will be made later.

Mrs. J. C. Sparrin and daughter visited during the holidays in southern California. They report a very pleasant vacation.
