

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. La Pointe, of La Pointe's Shoppe, left Wednesday for a two months' buying trip in the east. She will stop at Chicago, Philadelphia and will then go to New York to spend several weeks. Mrs. La Pointe has been attending the style show in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lawson returned Sunday from Los Angeles, where they enjoyed a fortnight's visit with relatives. En route home they stopped at Tulare for a visit of several days with their son and also spent some time in San Francisco.

The sloping hills along Klamath lake in the vicinity of the Reames' golf course are attracting many skiers during the afternoons and moonlight evenings.

One of the most attractive windows to be seen along Main street this week is a display window in Moe's Store which carries out a scarlet and black color scheme. It contains only two Francisco, where he will spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders have returned from a vacation in Idaho, where they visited relatives and friends.

E. A. Hurley, representative of the Pullman company, is a business visitor in the city for several days.

Orval French, brother of E. L. French, who passed away at his home on East Main street yesterday, left last night to return to his home in Berkeley. Mr. French was called here by his brother's illness, but was unable to remain for final rites.

Barton R. King arrived in the city last night from Hill, Calif., to attend the funeral services for his mother, Mrs. Julia Ann Bartle, who passed away Wednesday morning. Mrs. King accompanied her husband to Klamath Falls.

E. C. Jerome, Medford auto dealer, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls transacting business.

Dave Teritt, owner of the Panatorium in Medford, was among the business visitors from the valley who spent Tuesday here.

Pearl Hatchett of Yreka, Calif., arrived in the city yesterday to spend about three months.

W. J. Cameron, representative of the N. S. Gypsum company of Los Angeles, is a business visitor in the city.

E. C. McFee has arrived in Klamath Falls from Oskama, Wash., and will remain here indefinitely.

Mrs. F. L. Camps is confined to her home on Crescent avenue with an attack of influenza. Mr. Camps returned Tuesday from Yreka, Calif., where he spent several days on business.

Hubert S. Grafton of Dorris, Calif., is spending about a month in the city on business.

P. F. Thomas is a business visitor in Klamath Falls from his home at Sacramento, Calif.

George Hillard was a business visitor in the city Tuesday from his home at Merrill.

Ed E. Brown of Walla Walla, Wash., is spending a week in the city with his brother, who resides on Oregon avenue. From here Mr. Brown will go to Oakland, Calif., where he will spend the remainder of his vacation with another brother. Mr. Brown is an employee of a lumber concern in Walla Walla.

Dr. B. F. Peden, Chiloquin physician, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schmidt and Howard Papple were among the Langell Valley residents who were shopping in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Alma Ruth Garrow, daughter of Mrs. Julia Ann Bartle, who passed away Wednesday morning, will arrive this morning from San Francisco to attend the final rites for her mother, according to a wire received last night by relatives.

The largest registration for out of the state motor vehicles for this year occurred yesterday at the registration booth at the chamber of commerce. Registration of cars for the day totaled about ten, as against only two or three a day since December.

Mrs. H. A. Runde and two daughters, Joan and Carolyn, returned home Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in San Francisco, Oakland and other bay cities where they were with relatives and friends. Mrs. Runde went south because of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Dillstrom left on Sunday morning for Alma, Washington, where Mr. Dillstrom has accepted a position as electrician. They intend, however, to return to Klamath Falls some time this coming summer. Before her marriage, Mrs. Dillstrom was Miss Edna Vaughn of this city.

The regular meeting of the Fairview P. T. A. will be held at the school auditorium on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Paul Jackson, principal of Klamath High school will speak on "Thrill". Mrs. George Holmstead will render a vocal selection. Mrs. J. A. Schlotterstein will render a piano solo. All members and friends of the association are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick M. Smith plan to leave on the special train for San Francisco on Friday night where they will enjoy several days. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the Automobile Show which opens in San Francisco on Saturday. Mr. Smith is connected with The Acme Motor Company.

NEWS OF KLAMATH COUNTY

*** ** *
Written by Special Correspondents, Exclusive to the Klamath News

CHILOQUIN

W. J. KERRIGAN
(Special News Correspondent)

CHILOQUIN, Jan. 22.—Robert Wilson, well-known cattleman of the Wood River district, is spending a few days in Klamath Falls.

Irving Crawford, son of William Crawford, has returned to his home after having a successful operation performed at the Klamath Agency hospital, and is regaining his former health.

Judge Brophy and Judge Spink are in Klamath Falls attending the Thompson trial.

Mrs. George Dumore, Mrs. Hans Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. George Dumore, Jr., have returned from Klamath Falls, where they went to call on little Bobbie Dumore at the Klamath Valley hospital. Bobbie is improving and expects to be able to return home soon.

Byron Lotches and Mrs. Lotches are having their new home furnished by the Davis Furniture company. Clyde Davis is in charge of the work, and at present in Klamath Falls making purchases and attending the Thompson trial.

Edward F. Hall of Williamson River is spending a few days in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Rose M. Wright, Mrs. John Prather and little Rose Emma Du Vall are in Klamath Falls on a shopping tour.

A band is being organized by the local citizens and all those interested and players are requested to get in touch with John Martin or Walter J. Kerrigan.

Bennett Weeks, well-known rodeo rider, is regaining his health again and is now in a position to sign up contracts for the season's work.

Harry Crook, well digger, has taken a contract to dig a well on the Polly Miller ranch in West Chiloquin.

Lincoln P. Butler, well-known rancher of Modoc Point, and family left today for Beatty to attend the funeral of Mrs. May Turner.

Word has been received that J. J. Steiger, well known timberman of Medford, who has been spending the past few months in Texas, will arrive in Medford about January 21. Mr. Steiger spent about five years logging in this district.

Superintendent Leroy E. Arnold of the Klamath Agency and his assistant, T. M. Wheat, have been in Klamath Falls the past two days on official business.

Buck Anderson, well-known cattleman of the Beatty district, is in Klamath Falls for a few days.

William Cowan, who for some weeks past has been in the Klamath Agency hospital, is improving rapidly and expects to leave for his home the latter part of the week.

L. R. Robertson, manager of the local telephone office, is in Lakeview on telephone line work.

Tom Stargess, well-known poolroom man, reports an increase in business over last year and expects to make some improvements to his place of business.

Roy Geinger, of the Geinger Grocery Co., left today for Medford to visit with Mrs. Geinger and young daughter, Bonnie Mae Geinger.

Examiner Bureau, Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 16.—Modoc Indians won a contest of long standing today when Federal Judge Frank H. Kerrigan ruled they are within their rights in refusing grazing permits to members of the Alturas County Stock association.

Twenty-one suits were settled by Judge Kerrigan's decision, handed down in the one action against P. S. Dorris, president of the Alturas County Cattleman's association, agreed upon as a test case.

Mrs. Joe Kirk of Modoc Point was in town today shopping.

"Red," local barber of the corner shop, is the first merchant to offer his services to the Chiloquin band now being organized. "Red" being a musician of many years' experience.

A number of homes in the new addition near the Chiloquin mill are going up fast and are being occupied as fast as they are completed.

The new eight-room home in West Chiloquin of Mrs. John Lee Ball will be finished and ready for the furnishings in the next ten days.

Great interest is being shown in the skating events at Fort Klamath by the local citizens and Klamath Agency folks.

Norris George Smith, formerly of Sprague, has returned to West Chiloquin and is at present under Dr. Rogers' care at the Klamath Agency hospital.

All the local men who intend to take advantage of the low rate to San Francisco and return, which special leaves Chiloquin S. P. station on Friday, January 25, are requested to get in touch with the local ticket agent as early as possible and wear their ten-gallon hats with Chiloquin hat bands.

For results use News Class Ads.

LANGELL VALLEY

MRS. LEVI McDONALD
(News Correspondent)

LANGELL VALLEY, Ore., Jan. 22.—William Duncan, a prominent farmer of this section and a pioneer resident of Langell Valley, passed away Thursday, leaving many friends to mourn his loss. He was liked by all who knew him and was considered a fine neighbor. The funeral was held in Bonanza Friday at 2 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kilgore made a business trip to Klamath Falls Saturday, returning to their ranch in this section Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ticknor made a trip to Klamath Falls Saturday on business, returning home the same day.

Dewey Horn was a business visitor at the McDonald ranch Thursday.

Dan Clary was among the many who gathered in Bonanza Friday to attend the funeral of William Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gale were in Bonanza Friday from their ranch near Lorella.

Dewey Horn made a trip from the Horn stock ranch Friday to Bonanza.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Keller, accompanied by Mrs. Dorris Smith, made a trip to Bonanza Friday.

Mrs. Floyd Gift motored to Bonanza Friday from her home in the Lorella section.

Earl and William Scheele were Bonanza visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDonald motored to Bonanza Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kilgore and Shelley motored to Bonanza Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hilton made a trip to Bonanza Friday on business.

Mrs. James Malone made a trip to Bonanza Friday from her home in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell motored to Bonanza Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Grohs and family and Johnnie Turnage motored to Bonanza Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kilgore and two sons were Bonanza visitors Friday from Clear Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete McNeil and son, Roy, were Bonanza visitors Friday from their home near Merrill.

Terry Sullivan was a Langell Valley visitor Thursday from his home in the Malin country.

SPRAGUE RIVER

MILDRED DALY
(Special News Correspondent)

SPRAGUE RIVER, Jan. 23.—Friends of W. L. Clark will be glad to learn that he is rapidly improving at the Klamath Valley hospital, where he was taken after suffering a triple fracture of the skull at the mill in Sprague River.

James Perdue is home after an operation for appendicitis in Klamath Falls.

Reginald Schonchin was a visitor to Klamath Falls this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Goddard returned to Sprague River Sunday after a visit to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holmer were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. William Daly at a delightful dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wolford made a business trip to Klamath Falls on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Morgan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wann with a lovely dinner Saturday evening in celebration of the birthdays of Mr. Morgan and of Mrs. Wann.

Mrs. Fred Johnston was hostess for a most enjoyable five-hundred party on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Sprague River. High score was awarded to Mrs. Ralph Holmer, and consolation went to Mrs. Victor Oring.

Among recent visitors to Sprague River was Mrs. Robert Neall, engineer in charge of construction for this part of the O. C. & E. railroad.

Mrs. Mae Turner passed away at her home near Yainax Sunday evening. She had been suffering for some time with heart trouble. She has lived most of her life on the reservation, and leaves a large number of friends who mourn her loss. Mrs. Turner is survived by a brother, Homer Hutson, and a niece, Rose Turner.

Social life at Sprague River has been considerably enlivened by surprise parties, which were given the last two Saturday evenings.

The first was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paanke, at their ranch home near Sprague River, and the second honored Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hees, at their home here. The greater part of the time was spent in dancing, with splendid music furnished by Mr. Hayward and Mr. Hees. Both old-fashioned dances and more modern ones were enjoyed. At a late hour the ladies

A New Idea in Beauty Culture

It is a common-sense idea—based on how few face creams you actually need rather than on how many you can be sold.

Barbara Gould, Ltd.,

offers seven creams—more than enough for anyone. Read the booklet "The Art of Creative Beauty" and select for yourself the exact creams a beauty specialist would recommend. Each Barbara Gould Cream is made to meet a definite need—each is one dollar a jar. If you are not entirely pleased, the price will be refunded.

"Get It at Magill's"

Magill Drug Company

528 Main Street

Phone 270

Watch For—

Moe's
THE WAREHOUSE

Dollar Day

SATURDAY
January 26th

Copco Preferred Stock

INCREASES IN PRICE

February 1

Effective February 1, 1929, the price of 6% Cumulative Preferred Shares of The California Oregon Power Company will be advanced to

$101 a Share

Orders received up to and including Thursday, Jan. 31, will be filled at the present price of $100 a share

Information about our investment offering to customers will be cheerfully furnished by any member of the organization. Shares may be purchased for cash or on our convenient monthly investment plan.

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

OFFICES:

Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls—Oregon
Yreka, Dunsmuir—California

Pool's Pelican Theatre
Today, Friday and Saturday
Matinees, 2 P. M.
Evening 7—9.20

"Four Sons"

Big as the Heart of Humanity!

Storm and Stress, the Hell of War, the Heart Aches of a Bereaved Mother, all are yours in this master film which has swept the country.

In the Cast:

Margaret Mann..... The Mother
James Hall, Francis X. Bushman, Jr.
Charles Morton and George Meeker
The Four Sons

Youth and Age Bare their hearts in this superb story. A smashing hit in New York and throughout the country. You will love it too!

REX STRATTON

At the Giant Wurlitzer, listen for his rendition of

"LITTLE MOTHER"

A Master Musician's
Arrangement of a
Beautiful Melody

HARRY BOREL

and
The Pelican

Orchestra

11 Musicians 11

Prices—Matinees, 10c and 35c—Evening, 25c, 50c, 65c.

Always the Best Entertainment at the Sign of The Pelican