

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McIntosh of Spokane, Wash., where they are affiliated with the Crescent Store, are spending a brief time in Klamath Falls en route to San Francisco, where they plan to spend several weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip. They will also visit in Klamath on their way back north.

W. L. Foreyth arrived home this morning to spend a short time here from Klamath county, where he is located in the logging business.—Cons Ray Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pernel of the Spring Lake district announce the birth of a son, born Friday, January 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright have left for Santa Cruz, Calif., to spend the winter with their daughter, Charlotte, who is teaching school in the southern city. Miss Wright recently spent several weeks visiting her parents here at their ranch in the Midland territory.

Edward Sutton, who has been in poor health for the past three weeks, will leave Monday for San Diego, where he will remain for an indefinite time. Elmer Holcomb will accompany him south and will also visit friends and relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kohlmeier of Algonia, accompanied by their daughter, Virginia, departed for a fortnight's visit in Salem with relatives and friends. Mr. Kohlmeier's brother, D. Kohlmeier, just returned from Salem, where he has been visiting for several weeks. While north he visited for a time in Seattle.

K. Sugarman's store will close this evening at 8:30 to allow employees to attend the Klamath Falls-Ashland basketball game which is being played at the gym of the new high school. The game will not start until 8:45 in order to allow the business men of the city to attend. It is expected that a good crowd will witness the game. Preliminaries will start at 7:20.

Mrs. Joseph Powers of Reno spent yesterday in this city shopping and visiting friends.

Adam Schrap, employee of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, left last evening for California. He will spend some time in the south, visiting in Los Angeles.

and San Diego, before returning to Klamath Falls about the first of March.

Reports from Medford state that the Jackson county fair dates have been set for September 11 to 14. Other plans will be made at the coming state meeting of Oregon secretaries and officials, which is to be held shortly.

Mrs. H. J. Rothman has departed for Oakland, called by the news that her aunt had been injured in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Flora Hayden, bookkeeper for the Klamath News and the Evening Herald, has left for San Francisco and other southern cities, where she will visit friends for a few days. Mrs. Hayden's sister will journey from San Diego to meet her in San Francisco. Mrs. Hayden was on the special train that left Klamath Falls last night.

A number of Klamath residents are planning to motor to Medford next Wednesday evening where they will attend the show, "Gay Parce," at Hunt's Crater.

A dance was enjoyed at the Klamath high school gymnasium last night after the game between Klamath high and Chiloquin. The affair was held in courtesy to the visitors. Music was furnished by the Pelican Troubadours.

E. Davidson, advertising manager at Moe's store, left last night for San Francisco to spend several days.

Tom Williams, of the Industrial Belting & Supply Co., San Francisco, was called home by long distance telephone Thursday morning on account of the death of one of his partners, R. E. Steele, who died of pneumonia. Mr. Williams will return to Klamath Falls next week.

Luke Walker arrived in the city Friday from Lakeview and left last night to accompany his mother, Mrs. Addie Walker, to San Francisco.

Mrs. Ray Taylor was a visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday from her home at Fort Klamath.

Mrs. L. C. Sisemore was shopping in the city Friday afternoon from her home at Fort Klamath. She left last night for a visit in San Francisco, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Tom Lewis.

Mrs. R. S. Hopkins and two children were among the Bannock residents who visited the city Friday.

Mrs. W. N. Brotherton has returned to her home here from Salem, where she was called by the illness of her niece, Miss Mabel Shepherd. Miss Shepherd accompanied her aunt home, and will remain at the Brotherton home until her health improves.

LaMonte Frulan is spending several days in the city with relatives. He has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frulan, in Ashland.

A. D. Gabrick of Klamath Falls is spending several days in Ashland. He is a guest at the Ashland hotel.

J. H. Bakanson of Sacramento, Calif., is spending about 10 days visiting in Klamath Falls.

H. Altman has arrived here from Phoenix, Ariz., and will make his home in the city.

T. H. Austin of Los Angeles is spending about a month in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. F. L. Camps, although slightly improved, is still seriously ill at her home on Crescent avenue. Mrs. Camps is suffering with an attack of gall stones and has heart trouble.

Miss Lorraine Mordoff is spending a week visiting in Medford with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thompson left last night for San Francisco, where they will remain for several days. They went south on the Southern Pacific special.

The regular meeting of the senior society of Christian Endeavor will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday at the Presbyterian church. Election of officers will be held. All members are requested to be present. The topic will be "What shall I do about the liquor question?"

Mrs. Ivy Propst has received a crate of the best artichokes available in the south. They were shipped to her by her father, Judge R. A. Emmitt, who is now visiting in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Initiation of about 20 new members into the girls' athletic association of Klamath Union high school was held last night. The new members are the girls who took part in the tennis tournament and volleyball games during the fall months.

A meeting of the industrial committee of the chamber of commerce was held Friday noon at the chamber of commerce. Only routine business was transacted.

A. E. Walker, traveling freight agent for the Canadian Pacific railway, has returned to his headquarters in San Francisco after spending several days in Klamath Falls on business.

T. C. Evans motored over to Klamath Falls Friday from his home in Ashland, and boarded the excursion train which left here last night for San Francisco.

Perry O. Crawford, vice-president and general manager of the California Oregon Power company, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Atant and family, who have been residing on a ranch at Pine Flats, have moved to Dairy, where they will make their home.

A long article written by John Maiben, formerly winter caretaker at Crater Lake lodge, appeared in the January 24 edition of the Medford Mail Tribune. In the article he tells of the feud which is to be renewed by old timers of Klamath county in a winter carnival contest. He also states that work will be started next week on the snow race track at the Crater Lake Ski club winter carnival grounds just outside of Fort Klamath. It is to be a circular mile track with heavily banked turns.

Miss Pearl Collister is able to be out again after being confined to home with illness. Miss Collister has not resigned her position in the office of the O. C. & E. railroad as was before stated.

Bill Elliott, proprietor of the Waldorf Billiard Parlors, was out again Friday after an illness of several days which confined him to his home on North Ninth street.

Mr. Parker, formerly a resident of this city, is building a pool hall and lunch room at Talent, according to word received here.

Percy Southwick, superintendent of the Klamath Hatchery, is confined to the Klamath Valley hospital with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Otis Mack of Medford spent the week-end with her par-

Weird Looks, Tale

John C. Price, was reported burned to death in his home near Bozeman, Mont.—a burial service was held over bones found in the fire, and his widow was paid $10,000 insurance. A few weeks later, Price manifested and wearing the mask shown in the lower picture, appeared in Salt Lake to tell of being kidnapped. Utah and Montana authorities are investigating.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Potter, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Gray, at Klamath Falls.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Bryant Williams, son of Mrs. Mary Williams of this city, and a sophomore at Oregon State college, has been initiated into the Beaver Knight chapter of Intercollegiate Knights, an underclassmen's honorary service organization.

The young people of the Emmanuel Baptist church will hold a candy sale at Stone's Store No. 4 today.

D. E. Van Vactor, Klamath Falls attorney, left late Thursday for Glendale, Wash., where he was called by the illness of his father. His father's death came as a complete shock to the family, since he had been in good health at Christmas.

Miss Helene Low left Thursday for San Diego, where she will spend the coming two weeks with relatives. Miss Low is enjoying a vacation from her duties at the Pine Tree theatre.

Charles Adair of Grants Pass has returned to his valley home after a business visit in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lamb of Klamath Falls were Sunday guests of Mrs. Nellie Powers at the Lathia apartments.—Ashland Tidings.

Lee Coleman connected with the Indian department of the government-making headquarters in Illinois, left Thursday night for California, Arizona and other western states where he will transact official business before returning east. Mr. Coleman expects to be called into Washington D. C., in the near future on business.

Although still in a very weakened condition Mrs. H. K. Redden has been moved to the family residence on North Fourth street from the Klamath Valley hospital. Mrs. Redden has been seriously ill for some time.

Members of General Canby Chapter, Children of the American Revolution will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Warren Hunt in Hot Springs. Wilbur Jones, Jr., president will preside at the meeting. Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburr will have charge of the group in the absence of Mrs. Emma Lee Mills. Miss Mary Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas has prepared a most interesting program. All members of the chapter are asked to be present.

Mrs. E. A. Shulmire has returned to her home in the Midland district after spending some time in Sacramento, where she was called by the passing of a sister. Upon getting to Sacramento, Mrs. Shulmire found a brother seriously ill. He too passed away while Mrs. Shulmire was there.

Miss Augusta Parker, principal of Fremont school and president of the Klamath County Teachers' association, announces a meeting of the members on February 16 at Merrill.

Connolly Brothers

912-914 Main
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

January Clearance SPECIALS

|                                                                     |                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Men'sHEAVY WOOL SOX2 pair ..... 89c                         | CANVAS GLOVESHeavy weight6 pair ..... $1.00              |
| Men'sLEATHER COATS$18.75 value$12.50                  | Men'sLEATHER COATS$15.00 value$10.00                |
| HEAVY TURKISHTOWELS3 for ..... $1.00                       | Boys'SHIRTS and BLAZERSReg. $1.00 and $1.25 val.69c |
| SHOESEndicott-Johnson 8 inchHigh Cut—$8.00 value$6.15 | MEN'S ALL WOOLDRESS BLAZERSReg. $3.95 value$2.00    |
| Men'sALL WOOL BLAZERSSpecial values at$5.00            | Men'sHEAVY WORK SHOESSpecial value at$4.00           |

The House of Standard Values

Spring's New Printed Frocks

Are Refreshingly Colorful

$12.50 $15.00 $16.75

Buys a charming Model.

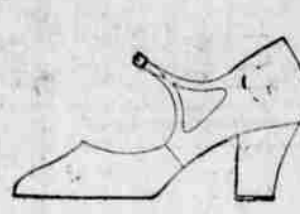

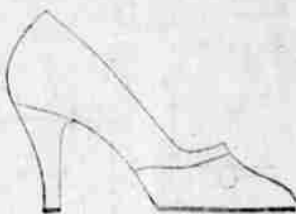

Original in design, vivacious in line and colorings, the new prints are intensely attractive.

BARNHART'S

McCarthy Bldg. Ladies' Shop 118 N. 7th St.

Our Annual

CLEAN-UP Sale

We have tabled for Saturday Shoppers a large selection of JOHANSEN'S $10 — $11 — $12 values at the low price of . . . . .

$4.49
4

These are short lines but many fine styles and sizes are here for your inspection at prices about one-third the regular price.

Our entire stock of Children's Footwear at greatly reduced prices.

Boys' Boots and Shoes on Sale.

LUXITE HOSIERY REDUCED

Houston's Shoe Store

525 MAIN