

CITY BRIEFS

A box social which is being sponsored by the Pollock P. T. A. will be held at Pollock City school this evening. The public is invited to attend.

Myron Spurr, representative of the U. S. Fishery and Game-wilderness company of Portland, left Medford for Klamath Falls today after spending a few days here on business—Medford Tribune.

State Traffic Officer C. P. Tallent, who received injuries in an auto accident near Ashland recently, has recovered sufficiently to be moved from the hospital to his home, according to word received here. It will probably be several weeks before he will be back on duty, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimes are expected to return home today on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Initiation of new members into the Rebekah lodge will take place this evening at the Odd Fellows' hall at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cain and daughter, Charlene, are guests at the C. W. Miller home on the lake-view since their return from Nebraska. Mrs. Cain is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Members of the Gaulty chapter, Children of the American Revolution, are asked to meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones, 207 High street, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Robert E. Watsenburg, acting supervisor, will be in charge of the meeting.

Frank T. Thompson, prominent Tule Lake rancher, has taken a year's leave on the Hansen ranch in Pine Valley. Mrs. Corning was shopping in the city yesterday from her home at Tule Lake.

Mrs. F. D. McDonald and four daughters expect to leave Friday for Bend, where they will spend the week-end with relatives. Sunday they will be joined to the northern city by Mr. McDonald and will return Monday.

A meeting of the Daughters of Job will be held this evening in the Masonic hall, according to an announcement made yesterday by Mrs. G. A. Massey.

Herbert Atkinson and Frances Brown, both carriers on the Klamath News, have been signed up for the next boxing match card to be held in Klamath Falls in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Richardson of Sacramento, Calif., are visiting in the city with Mrs. Richardson's sister for several days.

A rompage sale will be held by Mrs. Mary Altar tomorrow in the Maschio building on North Eighth street Saturday. Mrs. William McKinsey will be in charge.

Mrs. J. A. McInyre will leave today for a fortnight's visit in San Francisco with relatives and friends.

G. C. Walker is a visitor in Klamath Falls for several days from his home at Westwood, Calif.

Alton E. Sages has arrived here from Quincy, Calif., for an indefinite stay.

Walter A. Porter recently arrived from Berkeley, Calif., to spend about a month. He is stopping at the Klamath Falls Auto camp.

Frank Stewart is expected to arrive here Friday from Portland where he has been a patient in a hospital. Stewart, who is a well-known rancher of the Spring Lake district, submitted to two operations while in the northern city, but, although improved enough to be moved to his home here, his condition is still felt to be serious. He has been ill for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hilyard were attending to business in the city Wednesday afternoon from their home on the Lakeview route.

Mrs. Carrie Williams of Bangor, Mich., who has been spending the past two months on the coast, is the week-end house guest of Mrs. J. Percy Wells. Mrs. Williams is an old friend of Mrs. Wells.

Lindsay Shumore, Port Klamath rancher, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

A. A. Hayden, southern Oregon representative of the Foster-

Kramer company, was a visitor in the city yesterday from his home at Medford. Mrs. Hayden accompanied him on his trip to this city.

M. O. Wilkins, Clifton attorney, was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Lina A. Brady, who spent the past three months in Klamath Falls at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Percy Wells, has returned to her home in Oregon City.

Mrs. Mildred Rifeout, who spent the week-end in Klamath Falls with her parents, returned to Ashland Sunday evening to resume her course at the Southern Oregon Normal school. Ashland Tidings.

The Spanish War Veterans are reminded of the regular meeting of the organization tonight at the court house at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Blanche Wohlander of Klamath Falls arrived in Marshfield Sunday to spend several days visiting her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Gramsmit, of this city. Coos Bay Times.

Miss Elizabeth Ramsey expects to motor to Klamath Falls Thursday to be in attendance at the dancing party and social evening being given by a group of young women of that city to about 200 friends. Miss Betty Ramsey, daughter of Mrs. Ramsby, is to be one of the hostesses. Ashland Tidings.

Advertising the musical comedy "Jolie Toes," to be staged in Klamath Union high school February 25 and March 1, the high school band marched down Main street yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock. Proceeds from the musical comedy will be used by the Lions' club to purchase band uniforms for the boys.

J. J. Brady, electrician for the Southern Pacific with headquarters in Portland, was in the city Wednesday on business.

A Meyer, representative of the Henshaw company in San Francisco, is a business visitor in the city.

William Henry of this city is spending several days in Ashland. He registered at the Oregon hotel.

Among Klamath residents who were in Ashland Monday were Dan Hayes and family, who were guests at the Oregon hotel.

Mr. Jane Warren was shopping in the city yesterday from her home at Bly.

Albert May of Bly's store plans to leave Sunday for San Francisco on a buying trip. He expects to be gone about a week and will purchase spring materials for the store.

Mrs. Loyal Christy of Pine Ridge was among those shopping in the city Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Rosalie Hickman, who recently attended high school in this city, is now making her home in Portland, where she has a business position. It has been learned by friends here.

Rev. J. Henry Thomas leaves tonight for Independence, Ore., where he will conduct final rites at the vault entombment of Dr. T. C. Campbell, who passed away at a local hospital Tuesday morning.

Miss Della Hawkins has been elected president of Alpha Delta Phi society on the campus of Oregon State college, according to word received by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Hawkins. This sorority made the highest rating in scholarship of all the girls' organizations for the first term.

A church social in the form of a George Washington party will be given at the Immanuel Baptist church tonight for members of the church and friends. The party was formerly announced for Friday evening but because of the ski races at Fort Klamath, the date has been set ahead. Games will be featured.

The meeting of the Friendship club which was scheduled to convene next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George McCollum, has been postponed until the following Friday, March 1, because of the illness of Mrs. McCollum's child and because of the Crater Lake ski race.

Mrs. Frank Z. Howard of the Klamath Union high school will accompany the boys and girls to Corvallis tomorrow, who are to attend the annual exposition at Oregon State College. The students in company with Mrs. Howard and Everett E. Vanderpool will leave the city by motor on Thursday morning.

Word has been received from J. A. Maddox, Edward Probst and Melvin Johnson from Los Angeles where they will spend several days on business before leaving for Nevada. The local men left here last Saturday for the south by motor and plan to be gone for possibly three weeks.

Due to ill health, Mrs. Dena Hazelhurst nee Dena Heister, teacher of the second grade at Central school has tendered her resignation to the school board. Mrs. Hazelhurst plans to leave Klamath Falls shortly because of her failing health.

"Mothers Influence" is the title of a play to be given this evening at 7:20 o'clock at the First Christian church by the high school group of the Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church. A splendid program will be given before the play. Some splendid talent will be heard. Tickets are to be sold at the door. The public is invited to attend.

Ewanna Heights Circle of the First Methodist church will meet today at the home of Mrs. C. H. Barnstable at 123 High street. The members are asked to be present at one o'clock for a pot luck luncheon. This meeting was postponed because of the illness of Mrs. Barnstable last week.

The first of a series of dancing parties to be sponsored by a group of the younger social set at the Hotel Willard ball room will be given this evening. The Jack lowering orchestra will play. Dancing will start at 8 o'clock. More than 200 invitations are out for the affair which is to be informal. It is expected this dance will enjoy an unusually large attendance.

Announcement of the postponement of the regular meeting of The Friendship Club scheduled for Friday, February 22, was made yesterday by Mrs. Paul Sharp. The next meeting will be held on Friday, March 1, instead of who members will be with Mrs. George McCollum. Another meeting is scheduled for March 29. Definite plans of meeting is to be told later.

Bogus Dale of the firm of Dale and Hosking, realtors is home from Portland where he spent the past week on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Dale went north to enter the Veterans' Hospital for medical treatment. He is much improved in health and high in his praises of the wonderful hospital in Portland for disabled veterans which is filled to capacity at this time.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ottoman, residents of this city, will be interested to learn they are enjoying their delightful trip abroad. With their family, Mr. and Mrs. Ottoman are now in Casco-Sivakla. At the present time they are enjoying the opera season in their native country. Mr. Ottoman was connected with the First National Bank of this city.

A. A. McDonald of McDonald's Ladies Shoppe is home from Portland where he visited with Mrs. McDonald who has been in a Portland hospital for some time. Recently she was taken from the hospital to the home of her daughter. As soon as she is able to travel Mrs. McDonald will go to Seattle and California markets before returning to Klamath Falls. Spring merchandise for the local store is now on the way and will be on display shortly.

H. A. Hinchaw, assistant freight and traffic manager of the Southern Pacific with his private secretary, W. W. Stolner, left yesterday for Lakeview on official business. From Lakeview they will go to Alturas and then on south to San Francisco. Mr. Hinchaw spent the past two days here with local Southern Pacific officials. He expressed himself highly pleased with the developments in Klamath Falls. "I expect this to be the greatest year in the history of Klamath Falls," the official said before leaving for Lake county.

Colonel C. G. Thomson left Medford on Tuesday enroute to California where he will take over his duties as superintendent of Yosemite National Park, to which position he was recently appointed. On last Saturday Colonel Thomson was sworn into this office before Judge Taylor. Colonel Thomson is expected to return to Southern Oregon in about two weeks with E. C. Solinsky, who will succeed him as superintendent of Crater Lake National Park. He will remain for a time to acquaint Mr. Solinsky with his new duties and the people of this vicinity. Mrs. Thomson and two sons will remain in Medford for some time before going to California to join Colonel Thomson at Yosemite park headquarters.

Plans for the construction of a new $200,000 hotel where the Nash hotel is now located in Medford are being formulated, according to word received in Klamath Falls from the valley. E. T. Allen of Portland has spent several days in the valley arranging for the construction of the new hotel. The corner of the new building is to occupy will be 100 by 100 feet, facing on Main street and South Front. It is one of the finest locations in Medford, in the belief of well-known residents of the valley. E. T. Allen is a brother of Bob Allen, well known resident of this city. Definite date for the construction of the building was not told by Mr. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Darrow, well known residents of Klamath Falls have left for Santa Cruz, California where they will make their future home. Recently Mr. Darrow resigned his position as manager of Woolworth's store. With his brother, Mr. Darrow will open a variety store in Santa Cruz. A number of delightful social functions were given in courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Darrow before their departure for the south.

LIBERTY
Today and Tomorrow
Wally Wales
The Cowboy Prince
—In—
"Galloping On"
It's fast from start to finish.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY
Not a War Picture — BUT A GREAT PICTURE

The AIR CIRCUS
with LOUISE DRESSER DAVID POLLINS SUE CAROL ARTHUR LAKE
Directed by HOWARD HAWKS and LEW SEILER

Young America Flies to Conquer!

Four Shows Daily. Regular Prices at Poole's Pelican
Try News Classified Ads for Results

REFRESH YOURSELF at MAGILL'S FOUNTAIN

Try a Peggy's "MORE BETTER" You'll say its better and want more 30c

HOT CHOCOLATE that is hot 10c

Have you had your OVALTINE today? We serve it hot 10c

OMALTED MILK COFFEE. It's different 10c

You'll find our menu refreshing reading

MAGILL DRUG COMPANY
YOUR DRUG STORE

of the most for your money ALWAYS

UNDERWOOD'S

Don't Miss Fort Klamath's Ski Race
Friday, February 22

Take a Kodak. Your friends on the outside will be glad to receive pictures of this Big Winter Classic—

"KRYSTAL KOTE" Kodak Finishing is the World's Best.

SPECIAL Alarm Clocks for 98c	RAZOR SPECIAL Your choice of a Gillette or Auto Strop Razor with. 50c Tube "Par" Shaving Cream	SPECIAL Your choice of regular $1.50 water bottle or fountain Syringe 98c
RUBBER APRONS 65c to $2.00	HAIR BRUSHES Metal, ivory and wood. Priced from 75c to $8.00	FLASHLIGHTS Complete with batteries 75c and up Clicbes 15c Batteries 10c
8x10 Kodak Enlargement 50c	Underwood's Pharmacy Klamath Falls Oregon WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

Mail Orders Filled Promptly