

CITY BRIEFS

M. O. Wilkins, Chiloquin attorney, was in the city on a business trip yesterday.

Henry Burke, well-known Klamath Falls wrestler, is greatly improved after an illness of several months, and expects to resume his position at the Pelican Bay Lumber company within a few days.

E. Goff and Fred Howard are now located on the Locke Motor company's new used car lot at seventh and Pine streets.

Mrs. Ida Hamilton accompanied Mrs. C. L. Beckard to Sacramento when she left Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hamilton will spend several weeks in the southern city before resuming her position at the Golden Rule store. They made the trip by motor.

O. H. Dean of the Pelican Market, who is a patient at the Klamath Valley hospital, is reported recovering from an infected hand.

Rev. J. Henry Thomas of St. Paul's Episcopal church will return today from Lakeview, where he held services last night.

T. B. O'Hara, formerly of Jerome, Ariz., is a new arrival in Klamath Falls and plans to make his home here.

Walter West leaves today for Eugene, where he will represent the chamber of commerce at a Western Oregon Traffic association meeting.

Miss Mada Paige motored to Klamath Falls Sunday for a day's visit with friends—Ashland Tidings.

Any members of the Fourth 11th St. Business residing in this county are asked now to forget.

the annual reunion and banquet to be held at the Evergreen hotel in Vancouver, March 9.

M. Massey and Henry Morrison, well-known used car salesmen, are now affiliated with the Locke Motor company and are stationed at the used car lot at 600 South Sixth street.

O. O. Nichols, state traffic lieutenant, left Tuesday for Klamath Falls and Bend to conduct light testing campaigns in those cities. He will spend Tuesday night at Klamath Falls and the next two nights at Bend—Medford Tribune.

Friends of Miss Mildred Lawrence will be interested to learn that she has been selected as the senior candidate for carnival queen at the Medford high school. Miss Lawrence, who is president of the girls' league in Medford, formerly resided in Klamath Falls and attended school here.

Russ Grissom of this city, who left for Medford and valley points last week-end, is now at the Jacksonville sanitarium, where he will remain for some time for treatment.

Mrs. Mattie Frazier, who had been a resident of Ashland for the past 21 years, and who also had a number of friends in this city, passed away at the Harbor Convalescent home in the valley city Monday evening. Four years ago Mrs. Frazier suffered from paralysis, and two subsequent attacks left her badly crippled and caused her death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohlen-Samp of La Grande and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn of Tacoma stopped in Klamath Falls Wednesday, en route to their northern homes after a trip to California. While in the city they visited for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Reynolds, formerly of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Cromwell are visitors in the city for several days from Weed, Calif.

A. M. Spangler of Oroville, Calif., is spending about three weeks visiting in Klamath Falls.

Judge James Brown of the supreme court of North Dakota is leaving this morning on his return home by way of Portland. He has been visiting for several days with his cousins, Mrs. Burr Westbrook of Merrill and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck of this city. Judge Brown attended the chamber of commerce forum Wednesday and is high in his praise of the progressive spirit of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Golda Huggins, who was formerly employed in a ready-to-wear store in Medford, is now affiliated with Moe's store in the ready-to-wear department.

Mrs. John Alloway is a new resident in Klamath Falls and is residing on Wapland avenue. Mrs. Alloway came here from Gaylord, Kansas.

R. R. Cox, formerly of Redding, Calif., is now making his home in this city.

George H. Pledger has arrived here from Berkeley, Calif., for an extended visit and is stopping at the Valley hotel while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burkhardt and their daughter, who have been residing in Klamath Falls for the past three years, leave today to return to their home in New York. They will make the trip past via the Panama Canal.

Honor Moore has accepted a position at the soda fountain at Magill's. She took up her duties Monday.

Mrs. B. T. Gift was shopping in Klamath Falls Wednesday afternoon from her home at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Perrin have returned from a short business and pleasure trip to San Francisco.

Final plans are being completed by Mrs. H. N. Moo and Mrs. H. R. Perrin for the old-fashioned sewing bee which will be the feature of the regular meeting of the library club Friday afternoon. All wishing to may wear Colonial costumes, which will add greatly to the old-fashioned spirit being carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pike are enjoying a vacation in northern points. Mr. Pike is affiliated with the Pelican Bay Lumber company.

Mrs. Oliver Kinney and Mrs. B. T. McKinnon were shopping in the city Tuesday from their ranch homes near Oleno.

Mrs. George Helm of Algonia was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker, owners of the Duck Inn at Bly, were in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. Ida Ericson was among the Fort Klamath residents seen in Klamath Falls Wednesday afternoon.

William David arrived Tuesday evening from Sacramento and has accepted a position at the Superior Service Station No. 2, which is located on East Main.

Abe Cartwright has accepted a position as setter at the Klamath Pine and Lumber company. Mr. Cartwright has just returned from a two months' vacation in California.

L. D. Jordan, district manager of the West Coast Life Insurance company, left last night for Portland to attend a meeting of life underwriters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Welch have returned to Klamath Falls after an extended stay in Seattle and Aberdeen, Wash. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Welch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Grizzle.

A regular meeting of Job's Daughters is scheduled for this evening at the Masonic hall, when several new members will be initiated and the fifth anniversary of the founding of the Klamath Falls chapter will be celebrated.

Mrs. E. Gillespie of Pine Ridge was shopping in the city yesterday.

The Malin boys' basketball team will be among those from Klamath county to enter the southern Oregon basketball conference in Ashland the latter part of next week.

W. C. Van Emon, attorney, and his son, Junior, left last night for Portland, where they will remain until Monday.

It was learned yesterday that a story written by J. M. Ezell, well-known Klamath county resident, will appear in the April issue of True Story magazine.

The title will be, "Love Thy Neighbor, but Leave His Wife Alone." Mr. Ezell has had several stories appear in various publications.

Miss L. Sauter has returned north to Portland to resume her duties as nurse.

Following a serious major operation which she submitted to in San Francisco, Mrs. H. H. Anderson of Merrill is reported as doing nicely. Mr. Anderson is in the southern metropolis with Mrs. Anderson and will remain there for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schlichter have returned from Los Angeles, California where they spent several months.

Frank N. Deak has returned to his home in Chicago after spending some time in Klamath county on the ranch property of his parents.

Miss Leola Ellis of this city is spending several days in Roseburg visiting with her sister, Mrs. D. J. Ross.

Little Jack Probst, son of Mrs. Irma Probst is recuperating from a tonsillectomy operation at the Klamath Valley hospital on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rosser returned Tuesday from a pleasant trip to Crescent City, Marshfield and way points. They made the trip by motor.

Mrs. Henry Barrell of Roseburg is enjoying a visit in Klamath Falls with relatives and friends.

Mrs. William Dunn is expected home within the coming few days from Seattle where she was called by the passing of her father. Mrs. Dunn accompanied the remains to Bellingham, Washington where the final rites took place.

MEN!

Dandruff, falling hair and baldness can be cured!
CALL 149-M

NON EXPLOSIVE

The Most for
Your Money
ALWAYS

$1.50
2-quart
HOT WATER BOTTLES
98c

$1.25
ALARM
CLOCKS
98c

BOOKS!

Hundreds of Them
75c
Each

8x10
Enlargements
50c

UNDERWOOD'S

The Most for
Your Money
ALWAYS

Don't It Burn You Up?

To go shopping for a Fountain Pen and be told that "We have Brand Pens. What will you have?"

You will find Watermans, Parker's, Conklin's and Sheaffer's in this store, not just three or four of each kind, but a complete stock.

A Selection that is large enough that you may select just the style, color and nib you want and at the nationally advertised price.

Conklin's $2.75 to $8.00
Parker's... $2.75 to $7.00
Waterman's... $2.75 to $7.00
Sheaffer's... $2.75 to $10.00
Pen Sets... $4.50 to $24.00
Desk Sets... $4.50 to $25.00

Underwood's Pharmacy
KLAMATH FALLS OREGON
WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE
BUY THEIR DRUGS

NYALS
KIDNEY PILLS

Positively guaranteed.
60 Pills for
60c

NYALS EASEM

For tired and aching feet.
A Sure Relief
25c

For Coughs

The Old Reliable
NYALS HONEY and HOAROUND
Keep a bottle in the house.
60c

Mail Orders
Promptly Filled

LIBERTY

TODAY and TOMORROW

AL WILSON in
"THE SKY SKIDDER"

Up in the Air Where a Man Sees Clearly and Fights Harder

PINE TREE

TODAY and TOMORROW

Sinners
in Love

Jeweled Sin by Dazzling
Here Meets against Bright
Night Club's Lights

Poole's
P
E
L
I
C
A N
Theatre

Today and Tomorrow—Matinee and Evening

ROD LA ROCQUE

"Captain Swagger"

with SUE CAROL

BARGAIN MATINEES DAILY—10c and 35c

NEW ADMISSION PRICES
Loges 65c
Entire Lower Floor and Balcony 50c

It's here

The new Dr. West's tooth paste you have been waiting for is here and it won't cost you a cent to try it, because you get a tube with the purchase of a Dr. West's tooth brush.

FREE

'Get it at Magill's'

MAGILL
DRUG COMPANY
YOUR DRUG STORE
Phone 270