

CITY BRIEFS

Miss Knole Hawkins, its librarian, is able to be out again after a serious attack of influenza, which had confined her to her home in Mills addition the past two weeks.

June P. Grimes, co-author of the song recently published and exhibited at the Palmer music house, "The Sea of Memory," spent Wednesday in Medford visiting local friends, returning Wednesday evening to her home in Klamath Falls—Medford Tribune.

Marjorie Lee Hoagland, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoagland of Ashland, is able to be about again following an illness of over a week. Marjorie Lee is the granddaughter of Mrs. Nate Otterhelm of this city, and has visited here a number of times.

J. K. Crowson, who for the past 12 years has been janitor at the Ashland high school, died at his home in the valley city Tuesday a short time after he had been stricken with a heart attack. He was 67 years old and had made his home in Ashland for the past 32 years. He is also known in this city.

Frank N. Petri and family, who left for Klamath Falls some weeks ago, where he is employed, had their household furniture moved to Pelican City today by the Whittle Transfer company—Ashland Tidings.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Novat of Lorville, spent several days here this week visiting friends and attending to business affairs before leaving for a vacation to points in southern California—Ashland Tidings.

A meeting of the railroad committee of the chamber of commerce was held Thursday when it was voted to send a representative to the Western Oregon Traffic association meeting at Eugene today. Walter West, chairman of the committee, will represent the chamber of commerce.

Ed Duffy, of the Northern, Rio Grande & Denver railroad, is in the city on a regular business visit.

Mrs. W. B. Barnes, wife of the justice of the peace, leaves today for Salem for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Burt L. Cook. She will also visit relatives in Eugene during her stay in the north.

Mrs. Irving Gusterson was shopping in Klamath Falls Thursday from her home at Dorris.

Daily rehearsals for the recital to be given Sunday by the Palmyra Music club are being held at the library auditorium, where the recital will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes are moving into their new home on Sixth street, between Jefferson and Lincoln, which was recently completed. Their former home was at 525 Jefferson street.

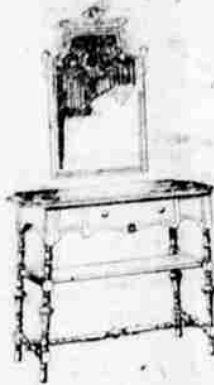

A letter has been received by relatives from Miss Albertina Nitschelm of the Hawaiian islands. The letter was written aboard ship enroute to Honolulu, and Miss Nitschelm states that the trip has been delightful.

March Exhibit

The New in Furniture!

Home beauty is brought out by the things in it! And furniture of such exquisite style as we present have "It." We urge you to attend this exhibit and see the wonderful new things that will be so in demand this season.

CONSOLE AND MIRROR

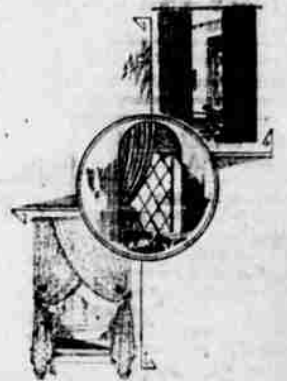

Just arrived—a new shipment of beautiful console tables and mirrors—an adornment for any hall.

Persian Oriental Floor Coverings

Beauty in the home is COLOR. And what more fitting as a floor covering is the soft, deep nap Persian Orientals with their glossy hues and their dashing patterns. You'll find our values exceptionally unusual.

DRAPERY AND CURTAINS

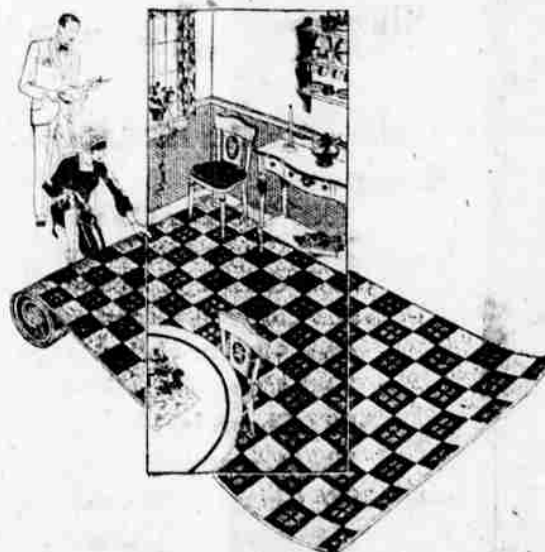

We invite you to inspect our selection of Draperies and Curtains comprised of the very latest window hangings. Let us show you new ideas and the attractive color schemes now so much in use.

PLEASING designs and colorful finishes feature the new Heywood-Wakefield breakfast room sets now on display at our store. The exceptionally high quality and low price make these sets a wonderful value!

Armstrong's Linoleum

for Every Floor in the House

Our March display assures savings most extraordinary on everything for the home. Our selection is most complete now, comprising of thousands of newly arrived pieces, all featuring the very smartest of fashion trends in furniture. We invite you and your friends to pay us an early visit and see for yourself what we mean by "FURNITURE VALUES."

Your Credit is Good—Use It

CLAUD H. DAVIS, Furniture

719 MAIN STREET

PHONE 581-W

LIBERTY

TODAY

AL WILSON
in

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

Coming Tomorrow

"Western Trails"

PINE TREE

TODAY

OLIVE BORDEN
SEENA OWEN

"SINNERS
IN LOVE"

Coming Tomorrow

"GANG WAR"

Poole's Pelican

TODAY—Matinee and Evening

ROD SUE
LA ROCQUE in CAROL

"CAPTAIN SWAGGER"

NEW PRICES Evenings, Entire Lower 50c
at the PELICAN Floor and Balcony
Bargain Matinees, 10c, 35c—Loges 65c—Kiddies 25c

Men... The Brownsville Is Ready for Spring

With a Wonderful Stock of

2-PANTS SUITS

Spring has arrived in all its glory—at all Brownsville Woolen Mill Stores! For the past several weeks hundreds and hundreds of handsome new 2-pants suits have taken their places on our racks. Positively the greatest collection we have ever shown!

Better Tailoring
Better Materials
Than Ever--

That's a strong statement—when one considers the reputation enjoyed by Brownsville clothing these many years—but when you examine this great assortment we know you will agree with us... that this season's stock presents the greatest values you have ever seen. Finest wools in all the new Spring styles and patterns—and sizes for every man! We're ready for you now with the largest and finest collection of 2-pants suits ever shown in Klamath Falls, at a popular price.

$ 25.00

$ 30.00

$ 35.00

BROWNSVILLE
WOOLEN MILL STORE