

Watch Klamath News Food Ads MARKET BASKET PAGE

Praise Be To St. Patrick!

RAISE be to St. Patrick for providing such a glorious occasion for a party. And what shall it be this year? A dinner? A dinner with green and white carnations and serving at the green glasses and silver plates, and the little green shamrock place cards twinkling back at them? To be sure!

Fun for All

And just as sure it is, there must be something to start the party off as St. Patrick would have it—with laughter. So have all your guests write a list line to the following linerick, and you'll learn some new things about prohibition.

A wonderful Saint was St. Pat. He wore a tunic for a hat And shaved ones of fakes. Whether real ones or fakes.

And as to place cards, wash a little potato all nice and clean and stick a paper shamrock with the right name written on it, in a little slit made in the potato. Or if you want to, you can take tiny potatoes and twigs and a little ingenuity and make tiny pipes; and with the aid of crepe paper, they can even turn into comic Daddys and gay Kathlens.

Not maybe you are getting as anxious for the menu as your guests for the meal, so here it is. And do you notice that most St. Pat's color, green, is used fittingly in the menu?

Market Report for the Pacific Coast

By United Press
PORTLAND MARKETS
Livestock
Cattle receipts, none. Market quotably steady. Quotations: steers good 10-10.50; medium 9-10.50; common 9-10.50; heifers good 10.25-10.50; common-medium 8.50-10.25; cows good 9-9.50; common medium 7.25-9; low-cutter 5.50-7.25; bulls (yearlings excluded) good 7-9; common-medium 7-8; calves medium-choice 10-12.50; cull common 8.50-10; vealers good-choice 12-14.50; 2-87, 12-13.50; cull-commons 9-12.

Hog receipts, none. Market steady. Quotations: heavy-weight (250-300 lbs.) medium-choice 10-10.75; (200-250 lbs.) 10.75-11.75; (100-200 lbs.) 11.75-12; 130-160 lbs. 10.75-12; packing hogs rough and smooth 9-10; slaughter pigs, (90-130 lbs.) 10.50-11.50; fenders and stockers, (70-120 lbs.) 10-10.75.

Sheep receipts, 240. Market quotably steady. Quotations: lambs (84-92 lbs.) good-choice 14-16; lambs, (92-109 lbs.) medium 12-14; cull-common all weights 11-12; yearling weathers 10-13; ewes, medium-choice 6-8; cull-common, all weights 3-5.50. Quotations on sheep and lambs on full woolled basis.

PORTLAND WHEAT
No. 1 Bluestem $1.47; soft white $1.21; western white $1.21 hard winter $1.18; northern spring $1.18; western red $1.18.

Merchants Exchange Prices
Butter: cube extras 45; standards 45; prime firsts 44-42; firsts 43.
Eggs: fresh standards extras 24; fresh standard firsts 23; fresh medium extras 22; fresh medium firsts 21.
Apples: 1.00-1.10 jumble box. Carrots 45-5; per lug; rutabags 50-60; beets 50 lug; 1.00 sack; rutabagas 60-85 lug; parsnips 45-50 lug.
Cabbage: 2.50-3.00 crate, 2.00 sack; cauliflower 75-1.00 crate.
Onions: No. 1 bluish 5.00; No. 2, 3.50 bidders 3.00 sack; green 35c doz. bunches.
Potatoes, 1.00-1.15 sack; spinach 1.25 orange box; celery 60-80 dozen bunches; lettuce 1.25 crate; brussels sprouts 1.10-1.15

Klamath High News Notes

The following articles, special to the Klamath News, are written by the students in journalism at Klamath Union High School.
Editor this week, Anna Burnett

HIGH SCHOOL BAND TO BE IN CONTEST

The high school band, consisting of 30 members, will compete in the state band contest at Portland May 11. The state contest will be in affiliation with the National Contest Bureau.

"We have almost every chance in the world in winning in D division—D division including all first year bands," said Mr. Derry, band instructor.

It had been formerly anticipated that the band would go to Corvallis April 6 to compete in a district contest, but Mr. Derry finally decided to go to Portland in May instead, which is a much more important undertaking.

The boys will wear their new uniform, which have been ordered and will arrive in about three weeks.

Mr. Derry expressed his appreciation of the work the Lions club has done to purchase the uniforms.

GIRLS' TOURNAMENT PROVES SUCCESSFUL

The G. A. A. tournament, the first of its kind in Klamath county and which took place Saturday, proved to be a success from every standpoint. Medals were awarded to the members of the Blue team, who scored the final victory of the day, by Miss Jewell's association. The winners were girls from Bonanza and Mallin.

The teams were formed by taking players from the various county representatives and grouping them together; two guards and two forwards from each school.

The elimination games began in the morning, the semi-finals in the afternoon, and the final game was played at 7:30 in the evening.

A delightful luncheon was served in the cafeteria by the members of G. A. A., and a short program was given. The visiting members expressed their appreciation in short talks.

In the evening the Girls' League entertained with a dinner and program. After the last game a dance was given for all the participants and Klamath students.

Practically every visitor stated that she would be eager to attend the tournament next year, and every one agreed that the cordial spirit and good feeling which prevailed made up for any disappointment at the loss of a game.

The Pep Peppers acted as hospitality committee, each member having charge of a group of girls.

SENIORS AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP POINTS

The seniors have won both the pennant and the cup this six weeks period for scholarship attainment. These soon will be awarded.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

COLLEGE PRESIDENT TO GIVE ADDRESS

Doctor Arnold Bennett Hall of the University of Oregon will deliver the commencement address next May on the subject, "Preparedness for Life."

Doctor Hall came to the University of Oregon two years ago from the University of Wisconsin, and was a professor of political science in that institution.

Since coming to the university he has enlarged the scope of usefulness and influence of the school to a great extent.

The Dad's club, which he has organized, has been a substantial influence of the university. He has been very active in getting legislative support for the university.

Mr. Jackson first spoke to him at the conference at the University of Oregon regarding the possibilities of him being the commencement speaker, and at the conference at the Oregon State college, he said that he would be able to be present.

REYNOLDS DELIVERS SECRETARIAL TALK

Earl C. Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

ATTORNEY GIVES PROFESSIONAL TALK

A. W. Schaupp, city attorney, gave a vocational guidance talk last Monday to the students of Klamath high school who are interested in law.

He advised the students as to preparation for becoming a lawyer, the advantages and disadvantages of the profession, the appeal, etc. He said he thought if one is interested in law, then one should certainly enter the profession.

Mr. Everbroke—I like the apartment very well, but the tenth floor is too high.

The Agent—Bill collectors are not permitted to use the elevators.

Mr. Everbroke—You may make out our lease.

Practical Book Of Recipes Will Make Nice Gift

Practical, handy, attractive and reliable—those are a few of the adjectives applicable to a description of this novel type of recipe book published by a well-known ginger ale company.

It is handsomely bound in dark green leatherette, imprinted in gold. Add-A-Leaf Hostess Book and measures 5 by 7 1/2 inches. The index makes it possible for one to turn to that portion of the menu upon which particular centers by using the thumb nail guides labeled Soups, Meats, Vegetables, Salads, Breads, Cakes, Pies, Desserts, Preserves, Beverages, Foods for the Invalid's Tray and Miscellaneous. Each section is attractively illustrated with actual photographs and contains a variety of dishes that inspire one to try something different in menu planning. Another clever feature—it is loose leaf with very substantial binder rings on which the owner may slip her own contributions to recipe book lore—a generous supply of ruled, blank pages have been inserted for just that purpose. One thoughtful person we know presented a copy to a little bride, having first added to each section several of her own favorite recipes. Of course, that addition doubly endeared the gift to the recipient.

This Hostess Book makes a delightful and inexpensive prize for a bride party, as it is sold at the cost price of compilation—$1. To secure a copy, enclose your remittance in check, money order or stamps, addressing Betty Beldon, The Canada Dry Hostess, 122 East 42nd street, New York City.

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

QUEEN SELECTS COURT ATTENDANTS

The May queen has selected her court that is to attend her at the May fete to be held May 3.

The members are as follows: Genevieve Houston, maid of honor; Helen Mason, Alidene Harris, Maryellen Bradford, and Gertrude Lindley are the senior attendants; Delphine Graham, sophomore attendant, and Mildred Fraser, freshman attendant.

The May fete is to be in the form of a pageant. It will be an old English May day; everything will have an English setting.

Mr. Everbroke—I like the apartment very well, but the tenth floor is too high.

The Agent—Bill collectors are not permitted to use the elevators.

Mr. Everbroke—You may make out our lease.

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.

For having the most on the grand honor roll the seniors received 200 points, and the juniors coming second received 100 points towards the grand contest.

The seniors on the honor roll are: Marylyn Bradford, Marie Cole, Ione Earheart, Erna Fricke, Isabel Jensen, Kathleen Livingston, Eva Miller, Roy Nine, Nadine O'Flaherty, Zelma Stiles.

Those seniors on the grand honor roll are: Alice Harney, Helen Jones, Claudine Miller, Mabel Moore, Evelyn Propst, Armand Ulrich.

The juniors on the honor roll are: Mary Upp, Ruth Lind, Ben Wilson. Those on the grand honor roll are: Dorothy Hallie, Agnes

Reynolds, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, gave an interesting and informal talk on secretarial work last Monday to those students interested.

"To be successful in secretarial work one must be able to meet the public and must be a good conversationalist," stated Mr. Reynolds. He indicated that the disadvantage is that it does not lead to any higher advancement, and can only be used as a stepping stone to some other occupation.

The seniors also received 200 points for having the most on the honor roll, the sophomores came second; receiving 100 points.</