KIRK NOTES

INA M. CHRISTY (News Correspondent)
KIRK, April 11.—After a month of spring weather, old King Boreas has shown up again, and the fields and highways in and near Kirk are again buried with snow. Snow fell steadily all day Sunday. By early Monday morning approximately six inches of snow had fallen.
The Kirk Community club held a joint business and social meeting at the school house on Thursday night. A committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Burton, chairman, Mrs. F. W. Cadonhead and Mrs. S. O. Davis. The committee will make plans for a community picnic on the last day of school. After the business meeting the school pupils gave an interesting musical program which was followed by several contests. Mrs. Elsie Burton and Mrs. W. A. Carlstrom were in charge of the entertainment for the evening. The club will probably be discontinued during the summer. However, another meeting will be held. The first meeting of the next year will be held on the first Friday after the commencement of school in September.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dural and two children, Robert and June, who have resided at Martin during the winter, moved to Chiloquin last Thursday, where Mr. Dural expects to be employed during the summer.
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Christy and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Christy motored up from Klamath Falls last Thursday. The party had lunch at the C. W. Flinn home with Mrs. Anna Coffee, who is a sister of Mrs. H. E. Christy.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eittrheim, who were employed by the Southern Pacific until just recently, returned to their former home in Wisconsin. They were accompanied by Mrs. Eittrheim's mother. They are making the trip by motor.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carlstrom spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, former residents of Kirk. The Carlstroms stopped at Modoc Point and brought Mrs. Elsie Burton and daughter, Jean, back with them.
The Forest Lumber company has employed a carpenter to construct a house for Bill Carro, who is track walker for the lumber company.
George Chapman made a trip to Klamath Falls on Saturday.
The local freight train has changed its schedule and now ends the run at Modoc Point instead of Kirk. This change puts Kirk on the Crescent Lake run.

MALIN HIGH NOTES

A mock trial was held Friday and Monday, April 5 and 8. Frank Kamarad is suing Louis Kalina for damages because Bennie Layman hit Frank over the head with a baseball bat. Louis Kalina is guardian of Bennie Layman. The attorneys are Havlina and Kandra for plaintiff, Frank Kamarad; Paulson and Kunz for defendant, Louis Kalina. Mr. Menegat acted as judge; Charles Zuma, clerk; Ernest Stewart, bailiff; and Edward Downing, sheriff. Those who were witnesses for the plaintiff were Charles Steyskal, Edwin Petrasek and Lloyd Smith, doctor. Those for the defendant were Mervyn Wilde, David McComb, Mr. Street, Miss MacMillan and Bennie Layman. The jurors were Grace Thompson, Helen Honzik, Ellen Westenberg, Alice Worlow, Viola Worlow, Anna Zurr, Eliza Kirkpatrick, Carrie Weaver, Joe Miksovsky, Ernest Stewart, Richard Jackman and John Miksovsky, foreman. The final verdict of the jury, by a majority vote, was in favor of the defendant.
The pep club met April 5 to decide whether the money that was earned at the carnival should be loaned to the athletic fund until next fall. The vote in favor of making the loan was unanimous.
John Miksovsky and Mervyn Wilde, both students, are taking a Waterman's jazz piano course from Mr. Pickell at Klamath Falls.
Lucille Florin has been absent from school on account of illness.
Bill Steyskal '27 graduate of the Malin high school, is working on his homestead during the spare time that he is not employed by Santford and company.
Dr. R. E. L. Stiner of Salem, is in Klamath Falls for a few days visit. Dr. Stiner has handled the state hospital for the insane for many years and is one of the best posted men on state affairs in the state of Oregon. He is not only a physician of high rank but as a politician Dr. Stiner has given everyone in Marion county 75 points and then wins out at every legislative session.
